Anti-War Council Names Four To Question Faculty on Strike

The Anti-War Strike will be conducted at Madison Square Park on Monday, April 17, except for the students who are unregistered freedom fighters. Students participating in the strike are invited to attend a meeting of student representatives at five clubs last night for discussion of the following policies:

1. If it is agreed to hold the strike in the auditorium, then the student committee reserves the right to choose its own speakers and present resolutions, free from all censorship.

2. If the strike is to be called, the committee feels that it is being restarted on Wednesday, and it will call for a meeting outside of the college building.

3. If the speakers are to be invited to the faculty, the students must ensure that the faculty is present and that the meeting is open to the public.

Tinker Ass'n Names Stein '37 as Editor

Alfred M. Stein, '37, was unanimously appointed as editor-in-chief of Tinker Ass'n, which has had a faculty adviser to the association last Monday afternoon.

Beavers Repulsed By L.J.U. Nine-5-0

The high-flying Blackbirds of L. J. U., sporting one of the most powerful baseball aggregations of the season, suffered their first setback yesterday in Lewiston.

Gamma Beta Holds Initiation Dinner

The Gamma Beta chapter of Sigma Nu gathered to initiate its new members last night. The chapter's new members were welcomed by Professor Ross A. Baker, Dean of the College, and Mr. Aaron Kurz, on behalf of the college. The chapter's new members were given a warm welcome and a place in the fraternity.

Theatren to Present "Outward Bound" A Watery Fantasy, Saturday Evening

By Stanley Aronson

Outward Bound, a three-act fantasy by Sutton Vane, will be presented by Theatre, the students' dramatic society, at 8:30 p.m. on Saturday evening at the Pauline Edwards Theatre.

Bound for nowhere, a shipload of dead people, and one couple of whom in any way. Unhappily, none of them know they are dead. In this inanimate vessel, they are guided by Miss Waterman, the skipper, who plans to sell them to heaven.

Directed by Messrs. Levy, Kraus and Ryan of the public-speaking department, this play is marked for its success in both its dramatic and musical features.

Junior Buttons on Sale

Buttles that will entitle junior students to admittance to all the events during special weeks and final meetings and a special feature of Junior Week, to be held the week of May 13, will go on sale today.

All Certificate Students To Take Same Exam

Professor Jacob S. Orleans last Friday released the following explanatory notes on the present examination required of all Certificate students:

1. The Certificate applicants in the Stenographic and Merchandising groups have been honored for articulating the special group of the qualifying examination. This was taken following a resolution of the students who will appear in the examination in view of the strong probability that training in Commercial Arithmetic will be required of all Certificate students, it seems only reasonable that the same examination by all students, it seems only reasonable.

Therefore, the content of the examination for all the students will be commercial, arithmetic, applied English, and business information.

A.S.U. to Hold Discussion on ROTC Thurs.

Pelowitz and Cornfeld to Debate on "A.S. U. and R.O.T.C."-

MEETING OUTSIDE

To Be Held at 44 East 23rd Street at 12:30 O'clock

Continuing its policy of sponsoring outside meetings with the Faculty Committee on Student Relations, the American Student Union will hold a symposium on "The A. S. U. and the R. O. T. C." at 12:30 p.m. at 44 East 23rd Street.

Jack Pelowitz, R. O. T. C. member, will challenge the A. S. U. position which urges gradual development of the American Student Union, and will outline his organization and its course.

In opposition to this view, Jack Cornfeld, editor of the executive committee of the A. S. U., will make a presentation of the Council of the American Student Union.

Council Votes for Peace Assembly

Accepting the report of the Students Rights Committee, the Student Council voted last Friday at 9:30 a.m. to have a Peace Assembly at 12:30 on April 22.

There will be a student chairman, no censorship of speeches, and permission will be given to any group wishing to organize a peace movement. The peace committee will meet to discuss the possibility of a peace assembly.

The Council also voted to change the name of the April 22nd Anti-War Strike to Anti-War Demonstration.

For this reason the permit will be obtained for a protest March in the area of the Pauline Edwards Theatre.

Directed by Messrs. Levy, Kraus and Ryan of the public-speaking department, this play is marked by its success both in its dramatic and musical features.

Junior Buttons on Sale

Buttles that will entitle junior students to admittance to all the events during special weeks and final meetings and a special feature of Junior Week, to be held the week of May 13, will go on sale today.

All Certificate Students To Take Same Exam

Professor Jacob S. Orleans last Friday released the following explanatory notes on the present examination required of all Certificate students:

1. The Certificate applicants in the Stenographic and Merchandising groups have been honored for articulating the special group of the qualifying examination. This was taken following a resolution of the students who will appear in the examination in view of the strong probability that training in Commercial Arithmetic will be required of all Certificate students, it seems only reasonable that the same examination by all students, it seems only reasonable.

Therefore, the content of the examination for all the students will be commercial, arithmetic, applied English, and business information.
39 Five Nips Juniors, 14-13; '37 Down Fresh

Moskowitz, Kohget and Goldstein Star in Exciting Game

Balancing time and again in the most exciting intramural game of the last few seasons, the 39 quarter-victory assured itself of its third successive basketball crown when it defeated the Juniors last Thursday with a score of 14-13. This was the closest the opponents have come to defeating in more than a year's competition.

Maintaining a sustained drive in the first half, the '39 hoop-sters, paced by Kohget and Goldstein, capitalized on the squad's inability to sink their shots with their accustomed accuracy, and led at the half, 7-2.

It seemed for a while that, at least, some team could match the '39 team's aggressiveness without fouling, but the Juniors fell back in the second half and committed four fouls, all of which were flipped through the hoop by the '39 men.

Stan. Markoff, high-scoring for the visitors and put in the winning shot in the last thirty seconds of play. After Wallach, Kohget had tied the score with a sensational shot from mid-court. In the second game of the '37 basketballeers topped the freshmen, 19-13, in a duel, lists and lures two weeks ago, which could not keep pace with the more experienced seniors.

Practice Starts Today for

Tryouts for the varsity teams will begin on April 2, and continue throughout the week. The开着 competition Against the Union and the Concourse Tennis Team, started at 7:00 p.m. at the Concourse's new tennis courts.

Coach: Daniel Bruehman expects to carry a large squad into the meet. The regular team will be graduated this June.

Issue French Paper Thurs.

Academic Franchise. The French Club's initial publication is to appear Thursday April 2. Special articles and a review of past comprehensive examinations are featured. Milton Smtowsky and Irwin Schapiro are the editors. Mr. Louis Seligman, the secretary of the newspaper.

Accounting Forum Features Vital Articles on Business

By Samuel Fresky

A readable and scholarly review is the Accounting Forum. Its value lies in the assortment of lectures on accounting. An account of writing students in the field of accounting are scattered throughout the various sections. In this issue's announcements, vital articles on the history and development of accounting are presented.

Professor Korn, a recent graduate, now employed as a junior accountant.

The value and limitations of accounting as a tool to management are clearly set forth in a straightforward, lively manner by Professor Sterling K. Atkinson.

An authoritative discussion of the significance and use of statistical values for no-par stock is prepared by Jacob Pollak.

In "Opportunities for Women In Accounting" Mildred Star contends that there is definitely a place for women in public accounting.

Columbia University team. It will start broadcast over the W.N.Y. City College Forum Hour on Sunday evening, April 12. David Barash, Murry Wein­berg, and L. McKie will probably represent City College.

Plan Portraits

The Phosphoric Society will hold the first of a series of experiments in portraits this Thursday at twelve o'clock in the auditorium.

A discussion with actual demonstration will be presented by Hether Kramer, Pearl Schangel, and Helen Weitman have consented to pose.

Barstare Hear Aviation Law

The Law Society presents its, Mr. L. L. Barstare, who will speak on Aviation Law on Monday, in Room 322. The talk promises to be beneficial to students, both from the legal and non-legal standpoint.

Hitler and Mussolini will meet "U Boat" in the Evening Undergraduate this Wednesday.

The New York City Council in the United States 10th Street, 1936, 186 East 3rd Street.

Ed Group Plans Party Thursday

An Easter party will be given by the Education Society on Thursday, April 2, from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m., in Room 88. Students will be served, and entertainment will be provided by the trio of Nussbaum, Solomon, and Schofield, professional musicians. There will also be a program of student entertainers, directed by Jordan Horowitz.

The new 58 radio will provide the music for this event which will occupy a major part of the program.

The Girls' Club will lend its cooperation to the affair. Admission will be by invitation only.

Student Poll Favors 55

As Lounge and Ballroom

As a result of a poll conducted last week, Room 58 will be maintained as a lounge room.

Weekly dances will be held every Friday in 58. The music will be supplied by the new radio.

QUALITY NEED NOT BE EXPENSIVE

- KELLOGG'S SANTICH

169 Zast Station, East 23rd Street

QUALITY NEED NOT BE EXPENSIVE

- KELLOGG'S SANTICH

169 Zast Station, East 23rd Street

Corona & Underwood

For tie and Typewriter Carrying Case

Original Price $5

One Year Guarantee

Linda Sober, 121 Biltmore; Large

and Small Machines, and Parts.

Biltmore Machine, Microphone, Check

Dec 23 and 26, 5th Street. At 9:15

WORMSER CO.

One Year Guarantee

One Year Guarantee

Biltmore Machine, Microphone, Check

Dec 23 and 26, 5th Street. At 9:15

WORMSER CO.

One Year Guarantee

Biltmore Machine, Microphone, Check

Dec 23 and 26, 5th Street. At 9:15

WORMSER CO.

One Year Guarantee

Biltmore Machine, Microphone, Check

Dec 23 and 26, 5th Street. At 9:15

WORMSER CO.

One Year Guarantee

Biltmore Machine, Microphone, Check

Dec 23 and 26, 5th Street. At 9:15

WORMSER CO.

One Year Guarantee

Biltmore Machine, Microphone, Check

Dec 23 and 26, 5th Street. At 9:15

WORMSER CO.

One Year Guarantee

Biltmore Machine, Microphone, Check

Dec 23 and 26, 5th Street. At 9:15

WORMSER CO.

One Year Guarantee

Biltmore Machine, Microphone, Check

Dec 23 and 26, 5th Street. At 9:15

WORMSER CO.

One Year Guarantee

Biltmore Machine, Microphone, Check

Dec 23 and 26, 5th Street. At 9:15

WORMSER CO.

One Year Guarantee

Biltmore Machine, Microphone, Check

Dec 23 and 26, 5th Street. At 9:15

WORMSER CO.

One Year Guarantee

Biltmore Machine, Microphone, Check

Dec 23 and 26, 5th Street. At 9:15

WORMSER CO.