We Meet at Madison Square...
City Students Protest War at Park Today

Join Thousands in Nation-Wide Peace Drive

- Protests against ROTC, the growth of the student movement, the anger of the government and the peacemakers who are their tools of repression.

- A preliminary rally last Wednesday was attended by Lewis Mumford, Heywood Brown, Roger Baldwin and others.

Heard, Coughlin to Appear

A comic element will be introduced at the strike with the appearance of students impersonating Coughlin, Hearst, and other notorious figures.

The resolutions to be introduced at the strike will stress the following:

- Blocking the board of higher education to recognize the American Student Union; urging the government to pass the American Youth Act, which provides for the establishment of the American Student Union as a national body; and demanding the resignation of the entire student body of the United States.

Student Anti-War Strikes Were Begun Two Years Ago

- Oxford Oath — "Not to support the government in war unless it is in answer to a call of the people."
- Students Reject Faculty Control

- Another strike was held last November 8, in commemoration of Labor Day, with an entire student body assembled in the auditorium to attend a faculty-controlled strike.
