Beavers Smash Brooklyn

Score 35-11 Win Lewis Article

Lavender Reserves Show Power—Jaycee Tops Brooklyn—19-15

Unleashing the full power of a versatile attack, the Beaver hoosters smashed a hopefully calmed Brooklyn College team 35-11 in the Lavender gym last Saturday night.

Both the second-string and the first-string men showed a strong superiority over the bewildered Kingsmen, with a series of amazing scoring plays. Games were seven of the attacks with 12 points, two of which were gained by a superb long-shot from mid-court.

At the end of the second half, the score was only 13-4, as the first-stringers had seen little action. With Pledger, Cohen, and Schneiderman in the second half, the game swung wide open and had the Brooklyn boys on the defensive for the rest of the perfect passing and team-work.

With the score 19-4 in favor of the Beavers and Scherman in action, the second string went into the game and the boys completely vanquished a team that was collecting the whistle marking the end of a complete rout.

The last word of the Beavers in their non-defeat augurs well for the ascendancy of Scherman, but now faded City star.

In the preliminary game a gale of five minutes' wealth of power judges and J. W. Wood Brooklyn freshmen 15-12 Kaufman, Franklin and Adler each contributed four points to lead in the scoring.

News-Hawkers With Their Perennial Sideline Squawkers Raise Ye Old Proverbial Roof at Hotel New Yorker

By Stan Karman

Fifty Ticketantes and their friends gathered at the Hotel New Yorker on Friday evening to raise and give thanks for the bounty of Four Roses. Mr. Mosecron, the personal signers, and the pretzels and potato chips.

Under the guidance of Manny Horowitz, the "master-pepper-upper," the annual event took place in the hotel. The rough weather didn't deter the boys and girls as they sang, danced and enjoyed the fun.

The high-light of the evening was the entertainment given by Mosecron, Horowitz, and Mosecron, all erudite and learned members of our Economy Department teaching staff, who really went to town—a real New Yorker.

First the M.P.U. (we hope this reads like it sounds), introduced Mr. Mosecron who read a little poem dedicated to Matthewson. Then the unshown Mr. Weissman fulfilled his advance promise in Russia. The next shaven Mr. Weissman told the boys and gals the truth behind his adventures in Russia.

M.P.U. followed with an untitled and poorly-placed bit of propaganda. Then a very modest member of the news board entertained with a puri—hangover look.

Gridmen Elect Schimmenty and Bill Silverman

William Silverman, giant guard, and Walter Schimmenty, pile-driving fullback, were elected co-captains of the football team by a vote at the meeting of the football squad Tuesday. Both athletes are veterans of two gridiron campaigns. Silverman, a former Monroe High School star, is co-captain of the boxing team and heavyweight champion of the school. He was one of the mainstays of the Beaver line this past season, achieving prominence in the Manhattan game when he scored a touchdown on a blocked punt.

Schimmenty, who formerly attended Erasmus Hall High, played on the 1934 varsity and was one of the most consistent ground-gainers on the team. He and Silverman replaced Boy Ilowit, tackle, and Chris Michiel, quarterback, who will be graduated next June.

Irvie Greece ’38, succeeds Bernie Moscuotz as manager of the football team this year.

Manhattan and N.Y.U. each placed four men on the all-irregular football team selected by the football squad. However, Dick Riffle, sensational Albright, who played in every game, was chosen unanimously as the best all-around player by the Beavers.

Skyway Wheeler of Manhattan, Ed Trowbridge of Albright, and Bill Greenberg of Swidey were named as the balloters. Remaining selections were: New York High, Sharp, N.Y.C.; Albright, Sharp, N.Y.C.; and Shulka, Manhattan, tackles; Morechauzer, N.Y.C.; guard: Moser, Manhattan; center: Brian, N.Y.C.; quarterback: Eddie Cray; running back: Manhattan, halfback: Harrison, St. Joseph’s, fullback.
