Five hundred parents of Brooklyn Farm Labor Unit to Be Guests Also at Party in Morrisville

The parents and students will be welcomed by President Harry D. Gideonse, and will hear brief talks by Dr. Malcolm B.
Galbraith, director of the Techni-college, Mr. F. J. Farnum, principal of Morrisville, and Prof. Ralph C.
Benedict, who was director of the college. The report submitted this week to President Gideonse, professor Benedict and other faculty members, achievements of the farm labor project. "Not only were thousands of brothers and sisters returned to the farm, but the experimentally basis upon which far-ter extension of similar food production to all sections of the region may be planned." It also demonstrates the value of adult education of otherwise seasonally idle educational institutions and sets a pos-
