Mary Edna Barnes, On College Faculty

Mary Edna Barnes, a member of the faculty of Brooklyn College since 1932, died yesterday in Columbus, Kan., according to word received here today. Miss Barnes had been on sick leave since Sept. 1.

Miss Barnes, a native of Kentucky, was graduated from the University of Cincinnati and received her master’s degree from Columbia. She was studying for a doctorate at New York University.

Last Summer Miss Barnes was administrative assistant at the Morrisville farm-labor project of Brooklyn College and taught rural sociology. She lived at 1439 Ocean Ave. She is survived by her mother and a sister. Burial will be in Kansas.