In other words, this is a vicious cycle. The reputation in turn leads to a drop in the number of applications leading to a drop in funding in ranking. The lowered ranking leads to even fewer applications the following year and a crisis among students and their parents on where to decide on where to send their children.

The report also points out the fact that a college or university's bad reputation can run for decades. Only in the 1980s did the annals of higher education fill with sexual assaults. The victims are many and shocking. These incidents, of course, can never be erased. Murders are always investigated, but it's not surprising. Murders are always investigated, but it's not surprising. However, the Y is extremely fortunate and grateful that she will be able to help them find the answers they need. She says it's wonderful to know that they are now doing their best to honor the memory of Tiffany. She adds that it's wonderful to know that their senior year at Granite City High School was not in vain. They did well and have a bright future ahead of them. They are proud of what they accomplished, and they are grateful to have had such a wonderful experience. They are looking forward to their future and the opportunities that lie ahead of them.
