1300 Hear Ted Speak At Awards Assembly

By Irvin Shacks

In an "ivy" atmosphere laden with dignity and inspiration, over three hundred students and faculty members packed the aula of the Mallory Assembly on December 21 to witness the presentation of honor service awards and to hear Owen Ted, chairman of the Board of Higher Education.

Mrs. Ruth C. Wright, dean of women, was awarded honorary membership in Sigma Alpha for "being the faculty member who has done the greatest service to the school in the past term." A permanent Sigma Alpha plaque was presented to the school.

Elaborating on the text, "Peace in Europe," Mr. Ted said, "There is no longer a sectarian holiday. It is a symbol of the affirmation of man that he would like to be a good neighbor."

History has recorded many story books, including Christianity. Nevertheless, each "lost cause" has contributed to the betterment of the general good of the world. The celebration of one of the greatest of "lost causes"—Peace on Earth—has just taken place. Mr. Ted informed his audience that he had already been invited, had expressed his willingness and eagerness to attend, but unfortunately had to go to Washington.

Before introducing Mr. Ted, Acting Dean Mayers spoke briefly about the efforts being made to improve the School of Business Education. Noting the individual student, Professor Mayers observed, "The success is the responsibility of the individual student, Prof. Mayers observed, "The success is the responsibility of the individual student, Prof. Mayers observed, "The success is the responsibility of the individual student." Lavender Five Bows To Santa Clara, 52-30

By Dick Goldby

City College, Inaba, Santa Clara, cata. They just couldn't beat the Broncs. In the third straight defeat for the Lavender and their second in the mid-town arena.

The Broncs, bruised to the bone, declined. They were wronged. They missed. They had shorts under the basket and even from within, the foul line they were missing.

Their half-backing was sloppy and they were throwing comments into no one in particular—every student for their set-shooting. They were conditioned and in any of the remaining 3 out of 35 shots each half. Twelve for them.

Nat Holman refurbished his starting line-up, starting Adendorf, Sam Taylor,公平. Hendrickson, and Schwad. But it proved too much for the Broncs. The Broncs immediately took a 5-1 first period and never relinquished it. Hendrickson was a star of the game.

The Broncs came in at point, but they were beaten by the Santa Clara team. Coach Douglass kept trying new combinations all evening but the Lavender was the only one with the fire.

Adendorf scored three times, they changed their offense for this game, employing the "free-throw" instead of the "five moving pivots which they used in the past. But the Holman team got sweaters out of the box.
