Lift Embargo Demonstration Called Council Will Hold Elections Forum

Special Meeting On Eligibility Dispute Today

There will be a special meeting of the Student Council today at 4 p.m. in room 906 to rule on whether the names of Maynard Merell and Philip Wepfer, candidates for the presidency and secretary of the Student Council respectively, will appear on the ballot. The meeting will be held Tuesday, Feb. 23.

Disagreement has arisen as to whether the elig­ibility of the candidates satisfies the require­ments of a clause in the SC charter at Friday's meeting.

In an attempt to acquaint the student body with the SC can­didates and their platforms, an election night session will be held Thursday at 1 p.m. in the auditorium.

The candidates for council office will be permitted to speak or to have a representative speak for them at the forum.

There will be a meeting of all speakers in the Lexicon office Thursday at 3:30.

Candidate not appearing and unrepresented at the meeting will be given a place on the program, according to Irving Silverman, chairman of the Forum Committee.

Ad Soc to Hear Promotion Mgr.

Mr. Harry Singer, promotion manager of Simplicity's "Pre-1930," will be the featured speaker at the Ad Soc meeting at 7:30 in the back of the room.

Mr. Singer is the national and visualized demonstra­tor of this outstanding in advertising. Mr. Cohen and Prof. John J. Neuner, faculty advisor, both stressed the importance of the Accounting Society to the business world.

Dean Moore to Speak To Accounting Society

Dean Moore will address the Accounting Society on the topic "Motion Picture Accounting Profession" Thursday, at 1 p.m. in Room 1520.

At the opening meeting last Thursday, President Hyman B. Silverman, faculty advisor, both stressed the importance of the Accounting Society to the business world.

ICC Re-elections Thursday

A new committee of the administration of the Student Council has been elected, effective Thursday, Feb. 22.

The new committee includes: Raymond F. P. Emery, chairman; Louis Cohen, secretary; and David Schaefer, treasurer.

City Five Upset 50-41 by Jaspers

The meeting will be held at New York University, will make her third address at City College to the members of the Girls Club.

Villainy Versus Virtue

At Alumni Movie Revival

Return to the days when paw was courtin' ma'! Cheer the hero... his the villain... hold your breath as our little Nell dangles from the edge of a precipice! Will she be saved? Don't miss this chance to have a good time...

The answer will be found at the School of Business and Civic Administration of the City of New York Alumni Movie Revival on Saturday night, February 26, at 8:30 P.M. in the Pauline Edwards Theatre.

Tickets may be obtained for Lewis Scher in the English Library or at the gate.

Main Center Tutor Faces Dismissal; Hearing Tonight

By Eugene Rubin

The City College Administrative Committee of the Board of Higher Education will reconsider its action in denying reappointment to Mr. Arm, main center Government tutor, Tuesday at 7:30, in the ninth floor meeting room. Immediately thereafter the full Board will meet and pass on the report of the Administrative Committee.

Mr. Arm has served as reader, fellow, and tutor in the Department of Government, and Soci­ology, for over six years, and has completed three years of service since June 30. He has been seriously ill for two weeks and its appointment has been kept from him by his doctor's orders. However, after consultation with professors and faculty members, it was decided to present his case at tonight's hearing.

For Women Only

By Sam Engler

A "Lift the Embargo" student demonstration, endorsed by student leaders and faculty, will be held Thursday at 1 p.m. in the auditorium.

Among the organizations supporting this action are the American Student Demo­crats and the Student Council, the REPORT­ER, and the Ticker.

Dean Morton Gottschall leads the list of faculty and administra­tion supporters.—Others are: Prof. Alfred D. Compton, Prof. Harry A. Overstreet, Prof. Bern­hard, Prof. Hastings, Mr. Arthur Taft, and Prof. John K. Ackley, Recorder.

The speakers scheduled to appear at the meeting include N. S. Sheean, McAvoy, author and Spanish correspond­ent; Win­ston Sheean, journalist; Clifford T. McAvoy, deputy commissioner of the Department of Welfare; Prof. Osloralek, and Larry Cohen, former editor of the Ticker, who recently returned from service with the Abraham Lin­coln Brigade.

"The meeting was called," according to Terry Cooper, A.A.T. president, "for two reasons. First, with many contradictory dis­patches coming from Spain, we felt it was necessary to clarify the real situation. Secondly, to urge the lifting of the embargo now in effect against Loyalist Spain."

Move to Reduce College Budgets

A movement to slash all City College budgets and to dras­tically reduce the 1939-40 allowance of this school by at least $500,000, was advocated at a meeting held Tuesday by professors following this action are the Amer­ican Student Democrats and the Student Council, the REPORT­ER, and the Ticker.

Not so long ago, the 1942-43 season will have been completed by the Yale football team, and the Yale football team will have been relegated to its proper position in life.

The season was certainly not the only the Yale football team has ever been relegated to its proper position in life. But it was the only season in which the Yale football team has been relegated to its proper position in life.

Kay Kyser Salutes 'City'
At Strand Theatre, Feb. 28

Kay Kyser, musical quiz pro-former, who jigged, jived, and jazzed for the enthusiastic entertainment of over 2500 city jigglers at last Wednesday's "Swing Appreciation" forum, is saluting the CNYN School of Business Tuesday night at New York's Strand Theatre,
where he and his band are now appearing.

To voice his appreciation for the outing well may be received when he appeared at both the forum and Jamboree Night, as for having been awarded a degree of Bachelor of Sophisticated Swing by the Class of 1939, Mr. Kyser has arranged to have his Washington eye's performance called "City College Night." Brightly colored decorations and myriads of Lavender turners will cover every inch of the Strand and will grace the stage.

The judges of Kyser's popular question "Dance With," will be Prof. George M. Kayes, faculty advisor of the Class of 1939, and George Weinman, editor-in-chief of the TICKER.

Among the contestants, who will "battle it out" in the ques-tion's music, will be several City collegeans, selected by judges.
Winners of the contest will receive money prizes of $5, $3 and $2.

HP Council Elects Officers

Irvin L. Luckow was elected President of the House Plan Council, at a meeting held Monday.
Mr. Ferber is the re-elected Vice-President, and the positions of secretary and treasurer are held by Renee Lubin and Jerome Spiegel, respectively.

To acquire applications will be jiggers, Mr. Kyser's musical ques-tion's participants, who are expected to reach 1700.

Six new trustees will be appointed to the Social Lounges, to which no one is being admitted
without a U-book.
