Wernex earns Rotary Club recognition

By CHRISTOPHER HEIMERMAN

The Telegraph

This February, the Edwardsville Rotary Club honored Dixon High School student Chase Wernex with the Student of the Month Award. Nominated by Mrs. Terry Wernex, Chase was recognized in all of his endeavors in high school, including his academic, athletic and extra-curricular involvement. The Edwardsville Rotary recognizes a student each month.

In addition to Chase's academic work, he is heavily involved in extracurricular activities. He is a member of the Edwardsville Fenton Boys 4H and the Edwardsville FFA. He is also a member of the Edwardsville Tennis Team and has been in the High Honor Roll for every year of high school.

"Chase Wernex is an all-around student, who has a level of drive and motivation that is truly inspiring," said Mrs. Wernex. "Not only does he maintain a high level of academic achievement, but he is also very active in community service.

"Chase is very involved in the community," said the Rotary Club President. "He is an active member of the Edwardsville Fenton Boys 4H and the Edwardsville FFA. He is also a member of the Edwardsville Tennis Team and has been in the High Honor Roll for every year of high school.

Chase Wernex is a second-year class that focuses on health and fitness. The class helps build strength, confidence and flexibility. In preparation for life after high school, it is important to get into the habit of working out regularly.

"Chase is an excellent role model for other students," said the Rotary Club President. "He is a hard worker and always strives to do his best in everything he does. He is a great example of what young people can achieve when they set their minds to it."
