For an Impartial Commission of Inquiry!

For an Impartial Commission of Inquiry!

For the millions of workers and honest liberals all over the world bewildered, confused and disheartened by the succession of trials in Moscow, this is the one demand that holds forth some hope of clarification and release from the doubts and querulous misgivings that have possessed us all.

Let a group of prominent figures, drawn from liberal and labor ranks, of unimpeachable integrity, weigh all the evidence, hear the testimony of those witnesses who have not yet been heard, and come to a conclusion that the whole world will be able to comprehend.

Leon Trotsky, the chief defendant in these trials, has repeatedly offered to appear before such a commission, to lay before it the documentary record of his whole political career. Only in this way will he get the day in court to which he is entitled.

In support of this demand committees have come into existence in Europe, similar in composition and purpose to the American Committee for the Defense of Leon Trotsky. The demand for a commission has been issued independently or supported by such organizations as the Socialist Party U.S.A., Independent Labor Party of Great Britain, the C.N.T. and others.

In England the Committee for the Defense of Leon Trotsky includes H. N. Bassistor, J. F. Horranin, of the Socialist Worker, Rowland Hilt, chairman of the Bradford Trades Council, and others.

In France the Committee of Inquiry into the Moscow Trial and For the Defense of Freedom of Opinion in the Revolution has issued a commission appeal signed by Andre Breton, Jules Romand, J. J. Pompeau, L. D. Kolln, Louis M. Hacker, J. E. Prie, J. F. Horranin, of the Socialist Worker, and others.

In Australia, the Seine Socialist Youth of France, The Bund and the Central Trades Union Committee of Poland, the Socialist Workers Party of Germany and others.

In England the Committee for the Defense of Leon Trotsky includes H. N. Bransford, J. F. Horranin, of the Socialist Worker, Rowland Hilt, chairman of the Bradford Trades Council, and others.

A Committee of nearly 100 leading intellectuals and labor figures has formed in Czechoslovakia. Other committees exist in Canada, Australia, Denmark.

The American Committee, of which only a partial list appears at the top of this bulletin, is taking active steps to turn the formation of the proposed Committee.

These committees call uniterly upon all liberals, progressives and labor militants to support the formation of this commission, morally and materially.

CAPITAL NEWSMEN DEFEND ROMM

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—Twelve leading Washington correspon-dents called on Soviet Ambassador Troyanovsky today and told him they could not believe in the guilt of their former colleague, Vladimir Romm, of Izvestia, who is supposed to have acted as intermediary between Leon Trotsky and Karl Radek, and upon whose testimony the whole "case" against Leon Trotsky depended.

Romm "confessed," but the Washington newspapermen re-fused to believe the confession. "In view of our experience with him," they told Troyanovsky, "it will be extremely difficult for us to believe that he is guilty of any deliberate act of dis-loyalty to the Soviet government."

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 26—It is unnecessary to state that since 1928 I have had no relations whatever with Radek and Piatakov, who have periodically added me to their list of "enemies." I have never visited me in Oslo and I have never been to Oslo except in company with the Knudsen family and my own secretaries. I have never heard of Vladimir Romm, who is supposed to have played the part of intermediary between myself and Radek. I have abundant documentary evidence to prove the impossibility of any meetings or communications between myself and the men who are now accused in Moscow.

I shall bring forth this evidence in a book I am at present writing on the crimes committed by the G.P.U. It is difficult to put my case to the public at a moment's notice but there are two or three fundamental questions which neither State Prosecutor Vizinsky nor his distinguished defender, D. N. Pritt, will be able to evade.

First, how can one accept the fact that all the men who carried through the revolution, with one exception, Stalin, have become terrorists, enemies of socialism, agents of the Gestapo, ready to dismember the U.S.S.R.?

Second, how can one accept the fact that these "criminals," who for nearly ten years have been committing terrible crimes can suddenly repent and after having demanded death for others, suddenly demand it for themselves?

Third, how is one to explain that Zinoviev, Kamenev, and other leaders of this alleged 'Trotskyist' group, knew nothing about this group's plan to dismember the U.S.S.R. for the benefit of Hitler and the Mikado, while Radek, whom none of us ever took seriously, suddenly reveals himself at the head of a world dominion?

If there is any conspiracy, it is the conspiracy of the G.P.U. If there is any leader, his name is Stalin. Stalin's totalitarian dictatorship has come into ever more sudden conflict with the economic and cultural development of the country. He is the embodiment of the bureaucracy. The spirit of daring which he soaped in the school of the revolution is now applied only to maintain his own omnipotence and his own privileges by methods that are fantastic in criminal ingenuity.

This last trial shows that a terrible political crisis is approaching in Russia.

I am ready to denounce Stalin before any impartial and authoritative international commission. I make this appeal to all political friends and to all that section of the press which is honest and independent and I know full well that the Manchester Guardian will be one of the first to serve the truth and humanity.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 26—The charges in the present Moscow trials are far from new—that of exploiting interna-tional relations in order to suppress internal enemies. Stalin has invented nothing new. He is merely repeating several previous cases in an exaggerated form.

It is alleged, for instance, that in 1935 I wrote through Vladimir Romm (ex-correspondent of Izvestia in Washington) of whom I have never heard, to Radek, with whom I have had no relations since 1925, that it was necessary to restore the capitalist system in the Soviet Union.

But this is exactly what is now being done by the new aristocracy of which Stalin is the head. Stalin is therefore merely trying to attribute to me through the person of Radek the very policy which I publicly accuse him of putting into practice.

For a fuller statement of this see my last book, "The Revolution Betrayed," already published in France, and which will soon appear in English.

Then it is also alleged that I insisted in secret letters which cannot be seen, that German and Japanese capital should be admitted to Russia. In actual fact, I urged in the press at the
