Susquehanna Invades City; Clarkson Tied

By Murray Glaser

with three games behind the first-place team, the unbeaten victory for the Beaver's Benny Friedman is pointed out this squad as a potential Saturday afternoon underdog at Washington at Lewisohn Stadium. There is little consolation in having a football team that but City routers still have plenty to cheer about. Holding Clarkson Tech to a scoreless tie last Saturday, the team was able to carry the yardage gained around his end by the Engineers' all day adding

The Beaver offense was stymied, passing attack cut. An eighteen-yard

Aronson to Von Franck passed for a game in three bursts, brought the ball to the Clark- stead yard line in the fourth quarter, and the line further as the Engineers stiffened their line. Stiffed on the bull rush, the youngest of the group,

The Reporter, addressing the Student Council at its meeting on Wednesday, September 20, 1944, by special request of Mr. David LeVan, announced that secretaries of the Association of American Colleges, that fully matriculated students in schools of Business, Education, and Engineering, are entitled to the same privilege of postponing their induction into mil

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>August 1943</th>
<th>16th Year of Publication</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>VOL. X No. 6</td>
<td>170th Issue</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Ed Magazine

Current trends in commercial teaching are fully elicited form a present volume of "Colleges and Universities," a report by Mr. LeVan. This periodical is dedicated to the study of the problem of the modern economy and has been promoted by a group of students.

Current Events Forum Set Up

The formation of a new society to provide a common meeting ground for all opinion on important events of the day was announced Frid.

Entirely non-partisan, and featuring the Curtis Tony, the new Current Events Forum plans an extensive program of talks, debates and round-table discussions with participation at many of them

Lexicon Offers Seniors Profit-Sharing Scheme

A reduction of $1 in the price of the 1944 Lexicon will be possible according to a new profit-sharing plan devised by Phil Rosenthal. The plan operates in this way: for a minimum quantity of four hundred copies of the yearbook, basic printing and binding is obtained at a cost of $1. However, if five hundred subscriptions can be secured, the savings on the next five hundred copies over the entire class, this saving will amount to $1 on each book.

Since the upper and lower halves of the senior class number 50 senior students, the task, according to Young, to obtain the needed subscriptions. To date, however, two-hundred and fifty have been in a very short time, according to Al Scheller of the four hundred members if a Lexicon is to be published at all. The plan is that no senior will be allowed to take part in the book's publication unless he is prepared to subscribe to the Lexicon. The plan is that no senior will be allowed to take part in the book's publication unless he is prepared to subscribe to the Lexicon.
NYU, Missouri Equally Guilty
In Discrimination Affair

By Nick Goldberg

One point seems to have been overlooked in the Leonard Notes case at NYU and the Missouri situation. NYU has a right to perform on the same ground as the students at the University of Missouri and vice versa. What Missouri officials informed NYU that they would have to avoid any activity that might be construed as an interference with the students at the University of Missouri, NYU has the right to do the same thing.

When Missouri officials informed NYU that they would have to avoid any activity that might be construed as interference with the students at the University of Missouri, NYU has the right to do the same thing.

None of these cases can be construed as a violation of the First Amendment. The only question is whether the activities of NYU students are to be curtailed on the grounds that they interfere with the activities of Missouri students.

The only question is whether the activities of NYU students are to be curtailed on the grounds that they interfere with the activities of Missouri students.

The only question is whether the activities of NYU students are to be curtailed on the grounds that they interfere with the activities of Missouri students.
Dean Greets New Council, Offers Suggestions

"Continued from page 1: erent and academic freedom. There is an appropriation of $15,000, $16,000, $17,000, and $18,000, respectively, to the Student Council—Sigma Alpha Freshman Guidance Committee.

Applications for representation on the Alumni Association from the University class of 1946 are to be submitted to the Student Council office this week. All members of the class with good standing will be notified by the Student Council after the applications have been processed.

The Student Council is also responsible for the selection of student representatives to the Student Government Association. This is an important role in the functioning of the Student Council. The Student Council meets weekly to discuss various issues and plans for the upcoming term.