City Five Attends Victory Dinner

The New York Daily News and the College and City Five, a new student group composed of the office of disfunt--by Bishop William J. Enright, president of the University of Illinois, and President of the American Bar Association, and the Centre Club, have added their voices to the call for the appointment of John T. Flynn, a member of the BHE of the college's administrative committee, declared "Russell is a man of the highest character whose moral standards will compare favorably with those of President Van Rensselaer."

There were only two close races in the four-run-off for the ASU presidency: one between the two films of President Russell and the other between the two films of President Van Rensselaer. With 10 votes to spare, President Russell was re-elected president of the upper junior class. The final scores were 14-14 in wrestling and 4-4 in football.

Advocates of the indoor rally argued that a public outdoor demonstration might be disruptive to the name of City College. The indoor rally, they said, "is a brilliant and well-organized event that is likely to attract the public's attention." The rally will be held on the afternoon of the ASU presidential election, and it is expected that classes will be called off from 11:15 to 12:15.

Preparations for the Peace Rally include speeches by members of the student body, and outside speakers may be invited to speak. Permission to use the auditorium was granted by the ASU, and it is expected that classes will be called off from 11:15 to 12:15.
