Guys And Gals Gang Gleefully To Jubilee

Dig out your Dixieland Brooklyn buttons, students, because the traditional rivalry between the colleges becomes very musical into music festivals. The Junior Prom Rally is featuring a concert with the Faculty and the orchestra, and the best (?) live representative of Brooklyn College, Van Alexander, musical man of the hour at Loew's State will be on hand.

To adorn the stage, says Eli Schoenberger, guiding spirit and M.C. of the rally, there will be many "available" models in the Orchestra's latest evening creations.

The Presentation, Jr., Hal Goss, our CCNY glamour boy, will use a little double talk on "Beat Me Daddy, Eight to the Bar," and the concert stage will echo the blues, while evoking the spirit of "Gals Gang." A terrific trio will collaborate on the efforts of the "group" to see the "weasels" around St. Nicholas Heights.

Students are urged to do so for a pre-season tilt last Saturday night.

The Rahy is being held to adorn the stage, says Eli Schoenberger, guiding spirit and M.C. of the rally, there will be many "available" models.

The second payment of one dollar is due on December 1st. All those seniors who have not paid are requested to do so immediately.

Basketball Starts Saturday

By Dick Goldburg

BACK IN 1923 basketball news centered around a slim, dark, well-remembered young man. Sam Holman by name who had just been appointed basketball coach at City College at twenty-three. He was the youngest college coach in the country besides being a leader among his profession in basketball.

Two years ago, he introduced into the coach when the C.C.T.F. team won the tough battle Yale, Columbia, Syracuse, and Savannah. Before the season's start, Holman the player who was the best scorer and a standout performer on the championship Checker field.

The early years by Sam Holman marked the original coach and his brilliant play helped make them the greatest court aggregates of the time. Meanwhile, City College basketball began to gain national prominence. Under the guiding hands of Holman, a team of national fame was at hand. The team's good spell at the beginnings have long been remembered. Holman, self-taught, was a head coach and head coach he remained until the championship season of 1926.

Saturday night, Sam Holman will inaugurate his twenty-sixth coaching season on the hard court before City College when the renowned Jacks face the Boylan in the annual game at the Checker field.

We were speaking to Coach Holman a few minutes ago and he asserted the belief that he is looking forward willingly to another season.
