City Loses To Strong Aggie Five

By Jerry Breisky

This will be the last time the University of Oklahoma will stand as an opponent to the University of Texas. A Texas victory in the game will make Oklahoma the best team in the nation.

The Aggies are a team known for their offensive strength. This year's Aggies have been a team that has scored many touchdowns. The Texas team, on the other hand, has been ranked among the best in the country for their defense.

The game will be held on Saturday, December 30, in Austin. The winner will be decided by the score of the game.

S.C. Limits Applications

Restricting applicants to positions in more than two committees, the Student Council announced, Friday, that applications for posts on all standing committees for next term are now being accepted. Applicants must be in the hands of any committee to qualify.

Board Acts To Abolish Special Fees

By Albert Marpells

Partial abolition of fees at the School of Business was accomplished Monday night when the Board of Higher Education voted to make the fees now being charged in specialisation courses the ruling to be effective next term.

The courses affected are:

- Accounting: 225, 226, 261
- Economics: 211, 230, 235
- Business Administration: 201, 205, 206, 207, 212, 248, 157, 158

Education: 355, and all courses credited to a degree in Commercial Education now being offered in the Evening Session.

The Board's resolution read: that the said Board of Higher Education authorized the specialisation courses. The resolution was carried and that fees now being charged in specialisation courses are hereby considered the ruling to be effective next term.

At Jr. Prom

The largest Junior Prom turnout in the history of the College will go down in history next week when more than 500 people flock to the Sky Garden of the Hotel St. Moritz on Christmas Night.

The Junior Prom, "Louisiana Purchase," will serve as the Junior Prom's last dance, and the dance will be supervised by Mr. Schonberger and Jack Shor, Prom chairman.

Final payments on bids must be made by Friday. The committee will meet in room 307a and determine the Junior Prom program. The committee will meet in room 307a and determine the Junior Prom program.

Sophos To Strut Christmas Night

The Sophos, ultra-bright, ultra-beautiful, school's outstanding Sophomore class, will again bring all its glory to the Hotel Astor Christmas Night, December 28. That well-known smart set bachelor-towner, Al Kahn, will lead the Sophomore set. All Sophos and Sophomores will turn out in full force. And since a Sophomore is still a Sophomore stocking, that brand new Panama Hat—ultimately respected by every Sophomore—Phylis Brooks, Brooks, will grace the Sophomore girl they'd like to be lost with on a desert island. She's the Sophos queen, the Sophomores' favorite hangout. So meet me at the Astor—the only thing you can lose your social worth with. And they'll be returned in January.

Jan. 8 Deadline for Dates

All organizations interested in using the gymnasium, auditorium, or Student Lounge for any social function other than the above-mentioned deadlines for dates should be discussed with the Student Council. Applications must be in writing and contain the name, address, and type of function, along with the number of dates for consideration. These dates may be left in the Student Council mail box.
Faculty Wives Sponsor Tea To Welcome Dean Feldman

More than 300 faculty members attended a Faculty Reception and Tea, Friday afternoon in the School of Business. Dr. Herman Poggenbur, the new dean, was especially honored.

Sponsors of the local chapter of the American Association of University Professors in cooperation with the Faculty Wives Club held in the Dean's office, which was partly decorated with two Christmas trees, bright lights, and a festive theme.

Whack's Impressions

By Harry Perna

Before the home game in the College.

Reminder of the game's date I had the other day. She had to have the rest of her speech. She hadn't touched her dress in the last three weeks, and was crossing her bridge over the street.

"It seemed to me as if part of her was there."

"Well, I suppose so, but she had spilled over from the bus. We went into the girls' and made the night man and woman with her on her in her.

An Ode To The Brave

The march of December 13, 1946, shall go down in history as a triumph of the纱s and the Iona. From the blue and green of the East River to the sea-green of Times Square, no man was safe from the march. "The brave and the true" were witnesses to the spectacle.

14 Upset In Intramurals

For the first time this year, the 41 team didn't sweep the Intramurals. In the wrestling meet held Friday afternoon in the gym, the 14th and the 15th were the victors.

Led by Murray Dembo, who swept the seniors, 42 was the victor in the first event. In the wrestling, 42 had both seniors and juniors in the field. Larry Grun, won the 15th. A newer was awarded the 14th place.
