Our 6th War Loan Goal—$50,000

Activities Fee Means Heaven on 23 Street

Volunteers Must Help Mail Ticker

Mercury, undergraduate humor magazine of the Uptown Branch of the College, has been granted formal permission by the Department of Student Life to circulate and recruit a staff here at the Downtown Center.

This action came after the

City Co-eds For Boosters

The Boosters, a society composed of the most attractive co-eds at City College will consider applications for the upcoming home game tomorrow at 1:30 in the gym. The girls cheer and perform at all games and at social events; they organize social affairs at the school and boost the school. On the football field, or basketball court the co-eds put on a dashing show with marching, songs and cheers. In school, they are popular and their presence cheers up the back the days of big dances and parties. There is usually a special costume for the big basketball season City expects to have in the near future.

The maximum number of Boosters is twenty-five girls. For this reason, entrance into the club is preceded by an interview at which four year students only standing without any special qualifications. Girls who want to cheer will find a splendid opportunity to learn the art. Cheerleaders and rug cutters are especially needed on the squad.

Those who cannot come for applications tomorrow may write Miss Nancy Kanner, organizer of The Boosters.

City Seniors Honored in New Who's Who

Among the students elected to Who's Who in American Colleges, a nation-wide publication, were 5 seniors at the Commerce Center of City College. The students were: Mickey Rubenstein, Editor of The Lexicon, Emily Kroll, Editor of The Cityar, President of Student Council; Bessie Johnston, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee; Archbishop, Baccalaureate, Chairman of the Academic Council, Baccalaureate, Chairman of the Academic Council; and Rachel Croft, President of the Women's Student Assembly.

Attention Servicemen

All servicemen who are formerly members of the class of 1944 may enter the Who's Who in American Colleges, a nation-wide publication, by writing to who's who in American Colleges, a nation-wide publication, at 10 E. 42nd St., New York, N.Y. The letter should be sent in care of The Lexicon, Box 15, at the Main Center, or by seeing Mr. Humes.

No Deposits!

No '45 Prom!

In an effort to make the bond purchases in this year's Junior Prom possible at City College, the Civic Administration will become a bona-fide publication at the Downtown Center.

The Boosters, a society composed of the most attractive co-eds at City College will consider applications for the upcoming home game tomorrow at 1:30 in the gym. The girls cheer and perform at all games and at social events; they organize social affairs at the school and boost the school. On the football field, or basketball court the co-eds put on a dashing show with marching, songs and cheers. In school, they are popular and their presence cheers up the back the days of big dances and parties. There is usually a special costume for the big basketball season City expects to have in the near future.

The maximum number of Boosters is twenty-five girls. For this reason, entrance into the club is preceded by an interview at which four year students only standing without any special qualifications. Girls who want to cheer will find a splendid opportunity to learn the art. Cheerleaders and rug cutters are especially needed on the squad.

Those who cannot come for applications tomorrow may write Miss Nancy Kanner, organizer of The Boosters.

City Seniors Honored in New Who's Who

Among the students elected to Who's Who in American Colleges, a nation-wide publication, were 5 seniors at the Commerce Center of City College. The students were: Mickey Rubenstein, Editor of The Lexicon, Emily Kroll, Editor of The Cityar, President of Student Council; Bessie Johnston, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee; Archbishop, Baccalaureate, Chairman of the Academic Council; and Rachel Croft, President of the Women's Student Assembly.

Attention Servicemen

All servicemen who are formerly members of the class of 1944 may enter the Who's Who in American Colleges, a nation-wide publication, by writing to who's who in American Colleges, a nation-wide publication, at 10 E. 42nd St., New York, N.Y. The letter should be sent in care of The Lexicon, Box 15, at the Main Center, or by seeing Mr. Humes.
Food for Thought

Our hometown has a low of 87°F for the months of October. As a new enterprise without a sufficient surplus to cover local expenses, the Department of Agriculture is running a campaign to encourage the consumption of locally grown produce. However, the Department of Education has raised concerns about the potential negative impact of this campaign on the local economy. It is suggested that the Department of Agriculture consider alternative strategies to address the issue.

Certainly, the alternative is the solution upon which consists of providing the local farmers with a fair price for their produce. The Department of Agriculture needs to ensure that local farmers are compensated fairly for their work. It is also important to consider the needs of the local community, and ensure that the price paid by the local community is not excessive.

Baking and selling is not the solution. Poorer than usual quality and quantity of the local produce is the result of the Department of Agriculture's policies.

The apparent lack of support is justified.

As mentioned, lettuce is a problem. Two bushels of lettuce is a problem. The lettuce is going to the poor and not the rich. The lettuce is going to the poor and not the rich. The lettuce is going to the poor and not the rich.

Zero Participation

An uncomparable difference between the four states of the International Student Exchange Program, and the country. It is the case that, according to our students and newspapers, the International Student Exchange Program is currently at its peak, with more students and newspapers participating than ever before. The reasons for this participation are varied, and include the desire to learn more about the world, to meet new people, and to gain valuable experience.

It is a matter of fact that the participation in this program is significantly higher than in any previous year. The increase in participation is due to a variety of factors, including the increased interest in international affairs, the desire for cultural exchange, and the desire to gain valuable experience.

Perhaps there's some life left in us. We doubt it. Not if...
GI and Oh Gee

By Rona Cobin

The following bit of terse verse (with apologies to PM) was written on the Broadway Express at 8:30 in the morning, while speculating on the probability of the "German" face of the falling fan looking out the little old lady or on my size 6 A's.

GI wish this war was over.
And I'm sending my GI home.
From the winds of Stine's desert
And the sighs of St. Paul's dome.
I give my blood for GI causes,
And I'm taking care of my GI home.
But this war will out on awfully long.
Won't see no GI down Hitler's order.

Send the boys back where they came from.
Solve the weighty domestic problems.
Get this darn war through and done.

That, in poetry, is the essence of what Sgt. Sid Kopelman, 43, veteran of the North African campaign, the Italian Base, and France, says in his V-Mail, "Am in Fort Benning and just getting around.

Covered a lot of ground and places but can't shake that 'want-to-get-home' feeling." And I guess there are many more who would fervently echo Sid's feeling.

Also down in Fort Benning, Georgia, there's a trio of sturdy sons who jealously guard their Ticky and never let her go, even for the PX 24 substitute. T/4 Hal Feder, making the Ticker Office look familiar again last week, sent me a letter from Ben Blas and Hal, about: "From Pfc. Ralph Schafer somewhere in England comes the following tidbit, "Every day for the past few months stars and stripes have been printing a daily French lesson. Most of them are of the serious type such as "What is the time?" Where is the post office? Is this the right road?" Occasionally though, the French tradition wins out and something "trivial" comes in. "What beautiful eyes you have. You are very pretty. Will you walk in the moonlight with me?"

Sounds like Ocean Parkway in a foreign setting.

Sgt. Barry Seiblit, famed ex-patriot things humorist, in Ticker of joyous days, writes from the muds of Italy. "August's letter reached my little weather outpost in Italy after a long ocean voyage (which included the three continents and one island)." Have skimmed around quite a bit since my short stay in Providence, R. I.—seen most all of Italy, Sicily, North Africa, and now, south of France, "I'm not the expression 'Join the Navy and see the world'."

Since anyone recollecting the ninth Floor and the peace and quiet and the "what's up" and the "nothing" doesn't understand why I call it quits now. Besides, the Army came, saw, and conquered. My name lives on in a busy solidifying its position.

College Stew...

By Elly Lewit

Listen, my children and you shall hear Of the exciting events that are drawing near...

Bewildered Beavers

The Lower Freshman Class will present a great Winter Show on Friday, December 19 at 8:30 in the Pauline Edwards Theatre, followed by a dance in Hassen Hall. Tickets will be sold by the members of the Freshman Council in George Washington Library and in the Main Lounge for forty cents.

Alarmed Fraternity Lovers

The Young People's Opera of the New York College of Music will present a concert under the direction of Siegfried Landau on Tuesday, December 16 at 8:30 in PET. The high spot of the evening will be an anecdotage from Mozart's "Così Fan Tutte" by a vocal ensemble and orchestra. Tickets, priced at 35 cents for Cityites and 75 cents for outsiders, may be obtained from Professor George A. Wilson.

Short Says

The Class of 46 will hold a Junior Jamboree in Hansen Hall on Saturday, January 6, at 8:30. Five-jolts will be supplied by a five-piece band. A Faculty Repast will be held at Hillel on Wednesday, from 2-4. The Newman Club invites all Cityites to a dance which will be held in the Main Lounge from 8-11 on Friday, January 2.

Accounting Stew

Anthony Koutros, former Editor of The Accounting Forum, and President of the Accounting Society, said the Accounting Department would be publishing a newsletter to keep the members informed. The Accounting Forum will supply the Accounting students with their first call is for some people who want to spend an afternoon painting a room. The next time I heard about this was when I saw Nelson Levitan in 1830. You do it! We'll Stew it!

The Film Library announces a series of weekly previews of records and movies to be held on Friday, December 5 at 8:30 in the Newman Club. Tickets will be sold in advance in 1305, priced at $1.00.

ATTENTION MUSIC LOVERS

Attention Music lovers:
The Young People's Opera of the New York College of Music will present a concert under the direction of Siegfried Landau on Tuesday, December 16 at 8:30 in PET. The high spot of the evening will be an anecdotage from Mozart's "Così Fan Tutte" by a vocal ensemble and orchestra. Tickets, priced at 35 cents for Cityites and 75 cents for outsiders, may be obtained from Professor George A. Wilson.

Short Says

The Class of 46 will hold a Junior Jamboree in Hansen Hall on Saturday, January 6, at 8:30. Five-jolts will be supplied by a five-piece band. A Faculty Repast will be held at Hillel on Wednesday, from 2-4. The Newman Club invites all Cityites to a dance which will be held in the Main Lounge from 8-11 on Friday, January 2.

Accounting Stew

Anthony Koutros, former Editor of The Accounting Forum, and President of the Accounting Society, said the Accounting Department would be publishing a newsletter to keep the members informed. The Accounting Forum will supply the Accounting students with their first call is for some people who want to spend an afternoon painting a room. The next time I heard about this was when I saw Nelson Levitan in 1830. You do it! We'll Stew it!

The Film Library announces a series of weekly previews of records and movies to be held on Friday, December 5 at 8:30 in the Newman Club. Tickets will be sold in advance in 1305, priced at $1.00.

ATTENTION MUSIC LOVERS

Attention Music lovers:
The Young People's Opera of the New York College of Music will present a concert under the direction of Siegfried Landau on Tuesday, December 16 at 8:30 in PET. The high spot of the evening will be an anecdotage from Mozart's "Così Fan Tutte" by a vocal ensemble and orchestra. Tickets, priced at 35 cents for Cityites and 75 cents for outsiders, may be obtained from Professor George A. Wilson.

Short Says

The Class of 46 will hold a Junior Jamboree in Hansen Hall on Saturday, January 6, at 8:30. Five-jolts will be supplied by a five-piece band. A Faculty Repast will be held at Hillel on Wednesday, from 2-4. The Newman Club invites all Cityites to a dance which will be held in the Main Lounge from 8-11 on Friday, January 2.

Accounting Stew

Anthony Koutros, former Editor of The Accounting Forum, and President of the Accounting Society, said the Accounting Department would be publishing a newsletter to keep the members informed. The Accounting Forum will supply the Accounting students with their first call is for some people who want to spend an afternoon painting a room. The next time I heard about this was when I saw Nelson Levitan in 1830. You do it! We'll Stew it!

The Film Library announces a series of weekly previews of records and movies to be held on Friday, December 5 at 8:30 in the Newman Club. Tickets will be sold in advance in 1305, priced at $1.00.

ATTENTION MUSIC LOVERS

Attention Music lovers:
The Young People's Opera of the New York College of Music will present a concert under the direction of Siegfried Landau on Tuesday, December 16 at 8:30 in PET. The high spot of the evening will be an anecdotage from Mozart's "Così Fan Tutte" by a vocal ensemble and orchestra. Tickets, priced at 35 cents for Cityites and 75 cents for outsiders, may be obtained from Professor George A. Wilson.

Short Says

The Class of 46 will hold a Junior Jamboree in Hansen Hall on Saturday, January 6, at 8:30. Five-jolts will be supplied by a five-piece band. A Faculty Repast will be held at Hillel on Wednesday, from 2-4. The Newman Club invites all Cityites to a dance which will be held in the Main Lounge from 8-11 on Friday, January 2.