SC Elections Lack Candidates AA Members To Vote Thurs.

Women Nominees Set To Compete For Major Posts

City College students once again face the situation of having to settle for a vote. Solna Seger, running for SC President, will not be opposed. For the first time in recent history, there will be no contest for any of the top offices in the college government.

Ruth Meyer, wishing to complete her term as Vice-President of Hillel, and served as Secretary of Student Council. Both Meyer and Seger are vying for the position of Student Council President.

Student Council plans to hold an election for Student Council President, Vice-President, and Secretary on May 28.

SC Film Debuts Labor Problems

Keeping pace with its long range program designed to familiarize the City student with the value of the documentary film, Student Council will present another showing, "The Jn GREENBACK" on Thursday at 8:30. The film discusses difficulties between labor and management and offers feasible solutions to the problem.

The Student Council Documentary Film Committee has already shown films dealing with city life, agricultural problems, ravaged Europe, and other issues in focus.

TU College Agrees On Store Security

In a meeting between John E. Goodwin, Business Manager of the City College Faculty-Student Store Committee and Teachers, union representatives discussed the recent agreement. The union members presented the question to be decided by the end of June 1946.

Mr. Goodwin promised that there would be further negotiation on the specific questions of wages, hours, safety, and sick leave for all store employees. The agreement's form of security is under consideration.
