Eleven Faces Brooklyn in Night Tilt

The Ticke

School of Business and College Administration - College of the City of New York

ol. X VIII - No. 5 - X-480 MONDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1946

By Subscription Only

Student Council Promoting Tri-Party Election Forum

By Donald Sachar

To impress upon the student body their obligation as citizens to vote in the forthcoming elections, Student Council will sponsor a political forum in the Pauline Edwards Theater Thursday at 12:30.

The forum is an effort on the part of SC to present to the entire student body the political issues at stake on a non-partisan basis. It is expected that the rally will further underwrite the forthcoming elections, and will act as a forceful way of increasing the number of student votes.
The Easy Way
The feeling grows stronger within us that the intellectual process is a function of the intellectual interests and demands of the community. It is not something that just happens to us, but something we are actively engaged in. The more we are engaged in it, the more we grow.

At this time, we find a general resistance to the social, economic, and political system. The advocacy of a bachelor's degree in any particular field of study may not lead to a career directly related to one's interests and goals.

We find that the type of work we do in the academic setting is not directly related to the type of work we do in the workplace. To do the same work in the same way and to be paid the same salary is a form of slavery.

This is not to say that we should reject formal education. On the contrary, we should encourage it and value it. But we should also recognize the limitations of formal education and the importance of self-learning.

Urfold Again

By Norman Urfold

The Girl Friend Gets a Guy

With the war being the war it was being a fact that every opportunity to acquire any sort of interest was not being used. The girl friends were living in a world of their own, separate from the world of the boys.

One Saturday morning, we found ourselves wandering through a city that was not our own. We were not aware of the fact that we were not alone.

We asked the first man we came to for a bowl of soup. He said he was busy and couldn't help us. We continued our search until we found a man who was willing to give us what we needed.

We ate our meal and then we found our way back to our own city. We were happy to be able to help ourselves. We were happy to be able to help others.

City Goes Highbrow At Waldorf Social

By Elliott Press

Our BA 123 classmates were selected to attend the Grand Ball of the City College. We were given tickets to the Waldorf Astoria and we were told to dress for the occasion.

We asked the first man we came to for a dress. He said he was busy and couldn't help us. We continued our search until we found a man who was willing to give us what we needed.

We dressed for the occasion and then we found our way back to our own city. We were happy to be able to help ourselves. We were happy to be able to help others.

IMB Hoop Clash Nears Climax; Trubowitz, Schmones Lead 'S

Max's Kitchen STEAKHOUSE Thrillers

By Herb Ueau

Although City's basketball team has not been able to secure a ticket to the World Series, it is still able to enjoy the benefits of playing in front of the New York City fans. The team has been hard pressed to make it to the games.

The students who seek the means of answering or working on assignments. Josie is the most wonderful thing that had happened. She tolerated our peculiarities, and laughed at our jokes. She was in brief, the perfect supplement for our dresses, hats, and sparkling diamonds.

The bowling tournament got under way Friday when Sy Lieberman, Lionel Malamed, and Shapiro are no strangers to City fans. Lionel loves swing . . . claims City

Mermen Prep For Campaign

Coach Jack Rider's charges are attempting to make this season's basketball season one of the most challenging. The first game is against La Salle College on December 14. It is the first game of the season.

The campaign has been under way for some time now. The team has been working hard to get ready for the season. The players have been putting in countless hours of practice.

The campaign has been under way for some time now. The team has been working hard to get ready for the season. The players have been putting in countless hours of practice.

Week 4 of 4

City Goes Highbrow At Waldorf Social

By Elliott Press

Our BA 123 classmates were selected to attend the Grand Ball of the City College. We were given tickets to the Waldorf Astoria and we were told to dress for the occasion.

We asked the first man we came to for a dress. He said he was busy and couldn't help us. We continued our search until we found a man who was willing to give us what we needed.

We dressed for the occasion and then we found our way back to our own city. We were happy to be able to help ourselves. We were happy to be able to help others.

IMB Hoop Clash Nears Climax; Trubowitz, Schmones Lead 'S

Max's Kitchen STEAKHOUSE Thrillers

By Herb Ueau

Although City's basketball team has not been able to secure a ticket to the World Series, it is still able to enjoy the benefits of playing in front of the New York City fans. The team has been hard pressed to make it to the games.

The students who seek the means of answering or working on assignments. Josie is the most wonderful thing that had happened. She tolerated our peculiarities, and laughed at our jokes. She was in brief, the perfect supplement for our dresses, hats, and sparkling diamonds.

The bowling tournament got under way Friday when Sy Lieberman, Lionel Malamed, and Shapiro are no strangers to City fans. Lionel loves swing . . . claims City

Mermen Prep For Campaign

Coach Jack Rider's charges are attempting to make this season's basketball season one of the most challenging. The first game is against La Salle College on December 14. It is the first game of the season.

The campaign has been under way for some time now. The team has been working hard to get ready for the season. The players have been putting in countless hours of practice.

The campaign has been under way for some time now. The team has been working hard to get ready for the season. The players have been putting in countless hours of practice.

Week 4 of 4

City Goes Highbrow At Waldorf Social

By Elliott Press

Our BA 123 classmates were selected to attend the Grand Ball of the City College. We were given tickets to the Waldorf Astoria and we were told to dress for the occasion.

We asked the first man we came to for a dress. He said he was busy and couldn't help us. We continued our search until we found a man who was willing to give us what we needed.

We dressed for the occasion and then we found our way back to our own city. We were happy to be able to help ourselves. We were happy to be able to help others.

IMB Hoop Clash Nears Climax; Trubowitz, Schmones Lead 'S

Max's Kitchen STEAKHOUSE Thrillers

By Herb Ueau

Although City's basketball team has not been able to secure a ticket to the World Series, it is still able to enjoy the benefits of playing in front of the New York City fans. The team has been hard pressed to make it to the games.

The students who seek the means of answering or working on assignments. Josie is the most wonderful thing that had happened. She tolerated our peculiarities, and laughed at our jokes. She was in brief, the perfect supplement for our dresses, hats, and sparkling diamonds.

The bowling tournament got under way Friday when Sy Lieberman, Lionel Malamed, and Shapiro are no strangers to City fans. Lionel loves swing . . . claims City
More than 1,500 students attended the school-wide rally to abolish discrimination in New York colleges which was held outdoors on Thursday on the City College campus in-town. The meeting was jointly sponsored by the ten largest student organizations at the school.

Main speaker at the rally was Dr. Alexander Pekelis, of the American Jewish Congress, who called for the passage of anti-discrimination legislation which is to be introduced at the next session of the State Legislature.

Other speakers included Charles Collins, vice-president of the National Negro Congress; Mrs. Vivian litter, star of the Broadway production "On Whiteman's Terms" and president of the Hillel Society at City College; Paul Brown, president of the college's Veterans Association; and Arthur Goodman, president of Student Council.

Public Pressure Sought

The speakers urged that more public pressure be brought to bear for the introduction and passage of anti-discrimination legislation. The Associate Alumni of City College at the same time presented a resolution approving the investigation of discrimination against graduates of city schools and colleges. by the City Council Committee on Bias.

Alumni Committee

A committee was formed to study the amount of discrimination in New York State schools during the past two decades. This study will be used to aid the Committee in their plan to eliminate all discrimination practices on existing foundations in New York State schools.

Vet Counsel Office Established in 1927

By Helene Garawitz

Following the suggestions made by the Plant Operations Committee of the School of Business, Dean Thomas L. Norton, the college is entering into action a new ninth floor to provide the necessary room for a Vet Guidance Counselling office.

Workshop Digs 'Lower Depths'

The Theatre Workshop of the 'Lower Depths' at the Puck Campus received a special award for its production. 'Lower Depths' will be performed at the end of the season by Maxine R. (Main Center) has chosen for its season's first production, Maxine R. and Maxine R., and will be an official part of the college's Centennial Celebration.

The Workshop guided by Dr. William C. Hanks, has been open to any interested student who wishes to take part in the production. The class is limited to five members and all of the students interested in the theatre are welcome to participate.

Any Commerce Department student who would like to know more of the play is invited to see a copy of the Managing Editor, that he will be interested in the future and that he will be interested in the future.

Club To Fight School Inertia

A drive to stimulate student interest in political affairs is being planned by the non-partisan FDR Club. Believing that many students do not understand the problems of our government, the club is planning to hold a political consciousness campaign.

Because of the nature of this club there will be no membership drive. However, those who wish to be active in the promotion of the group's aims for a more informed and aggressive student body are requested to see Pricelli B. Zuckerman or Evelyn Fuchs.