- Convocation 12:00-1:00
- 1 o'clock hour 12:15-12:45
- 2 o'clock hour 1:00-1:30
- 3 o'clock hour 1:30-2:00

HP Led By Dr. Sargent

House Plan—the largest student organization at CCNY—is under the leadership of Dr. W. E. Sargent, as has been announced recently. Dr. Sargent is the only house plan leader ever before at 25 East 22 Street. He was appointed to the position as a result of the President's_Resolution from the College Relations Department. Believing firmly in fulfilling the desires of the student body, the recently appointed director will sit in the capacity of adviser, planning a wider range of student activities with emphasis on student body leadership.

As the latest addition, the Chess Room, newly-painted and furnished, promises to be the meeting place of all chess enthusiasts. Located on the fourth floor of the building, it is equipped with new chess and game sets, special chess tables, and shaker-lining walls. A large registration is expected at House Plan, as already evidenced.

Applications Open For Journalists

Worried if your high school English teacher? Can you express yourself with a flourish of the pen? If so, you are urged to consider the possibilities of joining the staff of The Sticker, the only faculty-sponsored newspaper published by City College students. The Sticker is an ideal forum for the expression of ideas and opinions, and a valuable means of communication for the student body.

We hereby welcome you and advise you to contact Martin Bonner, The Ticker office, 911, from 4-7 on Tuesday or Friday, if you wish to become a member of The Ticker staff.

Norton Calls City Finest Business School In USA

Expressing his pleasure at becoming the new dean of what he termed the "finest school of business and commercial administration in the world," Dr. Thomas L. Norton declared in his recent interview with The Ticker that he would "wholeheartedly support a well-rounded program of extracurricular activities." He added that he was in sympathy with the idea of providing students with a sound educational background, as well as an opportunity to develop their talents in other fields.

To The Freshmen:

On behalf of the Faculty and the student body, I welcome you to the School of Business and Civic Administration of the City College. You have taken your first steps along the road to success, and the opportunity to pursue your goals is at your disposal. The success of our School depends upon the dedication and hard work of each individual student. It is my hope that all of you will take advantage of the rich opportunities available to you and make the most of this exciting experience.

I know that you will make the most of these opportunities, both in and out of the classroom. It is my belief that the College's extracurricular activities, so that you may graduate with the skills you need to succeed in both your academic and career endeavors.

Wishing you all the success you richly deserve.

Student Activity Fee Replaces U-Cards

For the first time in the history of the Student Council, the fee paid by students in support of student needs is instead of the voluntary U-card purchases of the past. The Student Council voted last semester to institute this student activity fee. It was approved by President R. E. Wright to further financial aid to the student body. The fee was increased to $1.50, reflecting the increasing demand for financial aid.

Hillel Greets New Students

By Ron Goldstone

Falling in line with the new administration of The Ticker, new student newspaper published by the Jewish Institute of Religion, the Hillel Foundation welcomed its first 100 students. The organization was formed to provide a forum for the expression of Jewish ideas and to promote Jewish activities.

The Hillel Foundation is open to all students regardless of religion, color, or nationality. It offers a wide range of activities, including the annual "Open-House Week" which starts on September 27 with the first meeting of the Social Service Committee.

It has been the Tucker's custom at the beginning of each semester for the student body who returned to college, to welcome the returning freshmen classes, to welcome the students, who were back in school, to welcome the new students, who had arrived during the summer. The Tucker's, a small but efficient department store, has been in operation for many years and has gained a reputation for excellence in service and quality of merchandise. The Tucker's is located on the corner of Main Street and Market Street, directly across from the City College Administration Building.

The Tucker's is known for its wide variety of goods, ranging from clothing and accessories to household items and electronics. The store is well-stocked with the latest fashions for both men and women, as well as a selection of books and gifts. The Tucker's also offers a variety of services, including custom tailoring, gift wrapping, and engraving.

The Tucker's is owned and operated by a family who have been in the business for generations. They take pride in their reputation for fairness and honesty, and are dedicated to providing excellent service to their customers. The Tucker's is committed to supporting the local community, and frequently sponsors local events and fundraisers.

The Tucker's is a beloved institution in the city, and is highly regarded for its commitment to quality, service, and community. It is a true testament to the values of hard work, integrity, and dedication that have been its hallmark for many years.
