Student Interest in School Affairs Shown By Record Election Slate

Breaking the war-fostered tradition of slim ballots, a record-smashing number of candidates will vie for positions on Student Council and class councils in the schoolwide election which will be held tomorrow.

An unusual feature of the election is the appearance of campus slates with complete platforms.

FAC Bars Shleton Squads From Future Athletic Frays

In a dramatic move the City College Faculty Athletic Committee passed a resolution barring future encounters with any team coached by Everett Shelton. The big squad unanimously passed this resolution after consulting Nat Holman.

The Committee's statement reads as follows:

"Resolved that the faculty athletic committee in view of evidence to it of action by Everett Shelton, coach of WFUMC's basketball team, involving scheduling of games between WFUMC and City College, that the Committee has therefore to sunset the faculty athletic committee with any team with which Everett Shelton has been associated for the purpose of insuring the University's athletic future."

AVC Boosts Holman

A resolution supporting Nat Holman in his castigation of Mr. Blank, Wyoming mentor, for discriminatory remarks against the CCNY Adm. was passed unanimously by AVC at its meeting Thursday.

Barbara Schwartz, president of the CCNY downtown chapter of the AVC, stressed the importance of attending the last open meeting of the semester Thursday at 12:30 in 12N. Future plans of the American Veterans Committee in City will be discussed.

X, the Unknown

With the spirit of the gay holiday ringing in his ears, some good-natured Citytite lent Pearl Perlmutter his fountain pen on December 23. Drawn by a host of revelers, this kind soul completely forgot his gesture leaving Miss Perlmutter with one pen minus owner.

When Mr. X recovers from his New Year’s festivities, the number in Astoria is 5-4883.

Adaptation presents

Mr. Kalman B. Druck, Director of Research and Development of the Carl Byor and Associates Advertising Agency, will address the Advertising and Publicity Society Thursday at 12:15 in 1420.
