Industrial Paper

Honors Dr. Saxe

Dr. Emmanuel Sax, professor of economics and designated Friday by "Industrial Marketing" as the recipient of a ten-year award for his work, was honored by Sydson B. Prof. Sax, formerly an editor of "The New York City Public" in the field of marketing, was presented with a plaque which was awarded a first prize in the school's national competition in the class, institutional, service and trade magazine fields. His article, "Eduction for Public Accountancy," was judged the best piece of original research on the basis of usefulness to the field served by the article. The article is now in print and is available for purchase.

Commission Considers Testimony

At Hearing for State University

By Paul Oden

Armed with much testimony, most of it in favor of the proposal, Governor Dewey's Commission studying the question of creating a State University will meet tomorrow to review and correlate the various arguments presented at its open hearing last week. The Commission, under the guidance of the Commerce Association, has been working on this project since January.

The Public Education Association proposed that the eleven state teachers' colleges and the four City Colleges be used as the basis for a state university system similar to that made famous by California. The proposal received much favorable comment.

Proponents of the program to create a state university system led by such notables as former Governor Herbert H. Lehman, Rev. Dr. Stephen S. Wise and Supreme Court Justice Meyer Steinbrink, advanced four main arguments: insufficient educational facilities for state schools; discrimination against minority groups; increased financial costs in private schools; and inadequate professional and graduate school facilities.

Speaking on behalf of the commerce centers, students, Irvin Beakind, Murray Weidenbaum, and Elkan said the University of California is a true example of the system they propose.

Football Rally Scheduled for Friday; City-Brooklyn Elevens Meet Saturday

By Marty Itzkowitz

This is the one they have been pointing at all season. Tradition makes it the key game of the year. City College's eleven with its best record since 1941, will be seeking its third victory of the current campaign at the expense of Brooklyn College at Ebbets Field Saturday night in the annual battle of the boroughs.

The stage is set for the traditional clash. Both City and Brooklyn dropped two of their three games this season, and both lost to Hofstra by 12-3. The improved Kingsmen are expected to be stronger than at any time this year, for, although their star end, Art Ellis has left the school, captain and quarterback Ed Bishop has returned to full time duty.

If ever there was a "ringer match" this is it. Both teams have won nine in their 19-game series, with one game ending which began in 1942. Twice, with Parker at the helm, the Beavers were victorious over Brooklyn. After the loss, City was five more in a row. Now it's Brooklyn who is sporting a six-game winning streak over City. The Kingsmen have averaged 16 points per game in the 18-year Beaver rivalry, while the Laveyards has averaged 12.

City College's 1947 gridiron squad which will face Brooklyn College in the key game of the season at Ebbets Field Saturday night.

Student Council Names
Eight Insignia Winners

In recognition of outstanding and diversified service to City College during their four year enrollment, three students were awarded major insignia and five minor by the Student Council.

Attend 'Beat Brooklyn' Rally

By Whady Glaser

Convinced that a Beat Brooklyn Rally this Friday night would put the Halloween jinx on the Kingsmen eleven, the Commerce Center Athletic Bureau is staging a jaunty in PET Friday at 6.

The rally, to which prominent guests have been invited, will be followed by a dance in Hansen Hall. Admission to the dance will be by Library or ID Card only.

Word has been received from Dean Thomas L. Norton and Marty Alphonse, P'15, president of the Commerce Bureau, that they will attend the rally.

"Marty Alphonse, former Tennis sports editor, organized the new and exciting rally which has been a big success so far. The" rally which will be held at the Commerce Bureau of Inter-collegiate Athletics."

Irv Bashled-Editor, Courier

Life isn't as serious to our editors. They contribute and have fun, as this story indicates, in all their work. They aren't much in for tough stuff in their work, except for a bit of studying, and that they have time for a bit of fooling around in.

Off the page-Off the press, we meet the former student who has been using his brains and brawn for the benefit of his country. Irv Bashled, a Brooklyn College student, has been using his brains and brawn for the benefit of his country. How would you like the Ticker as a teacher? All the students in the world could use the Ticker in their studies. The Ticker is an excellent source of information, and can help students to prepare for their studies. It can be used as a reference book, and can help students to understand the concepts covered in their classes.

In addition to its great value as a source of information, the Ticker is also a great source of inspiration. It can help students to understand the value of hard work, and can help them to see the rewards of their efforts.
