Casting Ends For F-S Show

Casting for musical and dramatic parts for the Faculty-Student show will be held this week in the FSB lounge from 3:30 to 6:30. The show will be held Saturday, November 29, in the Pauline Edwards Theatre.

Barrie Oppenheim, musical director, announced last week that there will be auditions for both students and faculty. The purpose of the show is to foster student-faculty relations.

Tickets for the production went on sale Monday and can be bought at the ticket booth set up on the ninth floor. Prices are set at 70 cents, 90 cents, and $1.50. Approval for Group reservations can be made by contacting Barry Diamond, business manager, at the Student Life Office, 321.

"The show can become one of the traditions at City," said Mr. Louis Levy, public speaking instructor who is producing the show.

Company Offers New Fellowships

Graduate fellowships are offered to 20 outstanding college students for the academic year 1948-49. The fellowship provides $750 per year for tuition, room, and board. Acceptance by the directors of the Fellowship Committee will be based upon the student's undergraduate record, recommendation of professors, and personal qualities.

Three areas are open for graduate work: humanities, preparation for teaching, and professional training. Only 75 applications will be accepted.

This year's fellowship winners will be selected by a national committee composed of two professors chosen by the directors of the Fellowship Committee, personal qualities, and leadership.

Among the topics to be discussed at the rally will be the investigation of the University of Wisconsin, the trial of Dr. Henry A. Also expected to appear is Professor Lyman Bradley of New York University. Prof. Bradley will discuss the history of the Red Hearings and the implications of the current investigation.

The rally is sponsored by the Joint Anti-Communist Student Union and is open to all students.

Brooks Rip City, 38-7, In Traditional Grid Clash

By Marty Szewcitz

Coach Harold Parker of the Beavers has never been tastier at the hands of his pupils, Lou Oshins. He had announced that he would rely upon City's line play to stop the Brooklyn attack in the annual intercollegiate clash.

The Beavers have a solid running game, but they have limited ability in the passing department.

The Bums, on the other hand, have a strong running game, but their passing ability is also limited.

The game was in doubt until the second quarter, when the Beavers finally scored a touchdown. The Bums replied with a field goal, but the Beavers scored a second touchdown and a second field goal to take the lead.

The Bums then scored two touchdowns in the third quarter, but the Beavers scored another touchdown to take the lead again.

In the final quarter, the Beavers scored two touchdowns and the Bums scored one to take the lead again.

The game ended with the score 38-7, Brooks winning in traditional grid fashion.

It was an exciting contest for the first half. As the game progressed, the Bums began to out-distance the Beavers and won by a score of 38-7.
Armistice Day, 1947

Thirty years ago next Thursday the Allies had set the date on which they had hoped to end the Great War for demostrators. As rapidly as possible they returned to Paris to begin the negotiations which matterial prosperity was the principal consideration.
The cuts which the nations were working for are everywhere. We had heard that an armistice was to be signed. It was not over, for it is a never-ending struggle.

We learned too late seven years ago as we struggled for the first time with the "total war" that we do not isolate ourselves from the problems of the world. We cannot stop at the borders of our own lands. Our history is part of the world's history, our

Noted Columnist to Speak On Balfour Day Program

As one of its outstanding programs of the semester, the Hilbert Foundation will present an IFBA "Balfour Day" program at the former Balfour building at 12:30. The guest speaker and columnist will speak on the "Interpretation of UnProceedings."

The program commemorates the 20th anniversary of the publication of a book by the writer, Lord Balfour. Issued in the aftermath of World War II in 1929, the book, "The Balfour Declaration and the Rise of Anti-Semitism," has been reprinted many times.

In February, 1933, the British issued their White Paper, "Germany and the Jews," which was followed by the Nuremberg Laws of 1935. The picture has been that of immigration by setting up a rigid quota system.

The meeting will be held in the old Balfour building and is open to all members of the college community.
