Hart Committee Ends Knickerbocker Study

By Robert Gordon

The Hart Committee on Unity, headed by Councilman Walter R. Hart, has completed its investigation and is now preparing a charge of anti-Semitism against Professor William L. Knickerbocker and Maxim L. Boggs, who were appointed to the position of joint head of the Department of Moral Philosophy.

The Hart Committee received a report from the New York State Joint Distribution Committee, the UJA representative in this city, which it used as evidence in its investigation.

The investigation was conducted under the direction of Professor Ephraim Cross, and the final report was presented to the Committee on April 1.

The Hart Committee recommended that the Mayor of this city take action against the Knickerbocker-Boggs administration, and the Municipal Committee is scheduled to act early in April.

The annual Brittain Prize in Moral Philosophy will again be awarded to the student who submits the best written discussion or argument on ethics and moral philosophy. This term's theme is the following statement that appeared in a real estate deed:

UJA Aids War Victims

$8000 Pledged By City College

By Su Diamond

City College is pledged to raise $8000 as its part in the national UJA drive to be launched April 1. This is the first time a goal of this size has been set.

All of UJA's resources have been used to meet this goal, and the UJA drive is expected to surpass all previous efforts. Booklets containing donation blanks will be distributed on the streets, and students will be asked to solicit contributions.

Walter Blaisdell and Glenn Siegel, co-chairmen of the college's UJA drive, will be working on the war's aftermath. Through its Joint Distribution Committee, the UJA sends food, clothing and the much needed assistance that has been requested by the American Red Cross.

Clubs Plans Campaigns

Many organizations have already pledged contributions to the drive. Social Horizons is donating $13, the Alpha fraternity gave $50 in addition to booklist distribution and Student Council has promised to solicit $250. Boosters and ADS have pledged contributions, and the Student Council, as the UJA representative in this school, has promised to donate the entire proceeds from their annual carnival. Lambda Gamma Phi is running a dance on April 10 to raise money for the drive, and the Advertising and Publicity Society has appointed an advertising committee to handle the drive.

The Advertising and Publicity Society has appointed an advertising committee to handle the drive. The committee is composed of members of the Advertising and Publicity Society and the Students' Activities Committee.

Cafeteria Calamity—It Will Not Improve By Itself

Everyone seems to agree that the cafeteria is filthy, but no one does anything about it. In the past there have been attempts at improvement, but on the whole they failed. The students always went back to their bad manners. Posters were displayed requesting cleanliness, and the janitors were told to keep the place clean, but the result was only temporary. The students return again to their old habits and the cafeteria deteriorates.

In order to improve the situation, a cafeteria committee was formed. The committee was composed of representatives from the Student Council, the Dining Hall Committee, and the School Board. The committee held a series of meetings and discussed various methods of improving the cafeteria. They decided to implement a system of shifts for the workers, with the hope that this would encourage them to work harder.

The success of the plan depends upon the cooperation of both the faculty and the students. The students must be aware of the problem in order to make an effort to improve the situation. The faculty must also be aware of the problem and take action to solve it.

The Student Council Plant Committee is the body which is in charge of overseeing the cafeteria. Any student or faculty member who sees any problems should contact Mike Parker, chairman of that committee.

Out Of Our World

By Sandy Shockey

For years, the City College of the City of New York has had a reputation as a place where students are often in the dark about their academic and extracurricular activities. This year, however, the Student Council has taken matters into its own hands and has made a major effort to provide students with more information about what is happening on campus.

The Student Council has been successful in its efforts. Students now have a better understanding of the activities that are taking place on campus, and are more informed about the issues that affect them. The Student Council's work is an example of how students can take control of their own destinies and make a positive difference on their campus.

It's Your Opinion —

by Martin Frishberg

Two and a half years after the end of World War II, 50% of students polled by The Ticker said that they think the United States will be at war within 25 years even though it is remarkable, only 18% think that the United States will not be at war within the period and 30% checked the box marked "No opinion." These results are similar to those of a poll asking 10,000 school-age al, SC should take a stand for or against such a program. 16% No opinion.

Let us look at each of these questions in turn. It is interesting to note that two-thirds of those having opinions are in favor of UMT, interesting because the group who brought the issue before Student Council were attempting to get Council to go on record as being unalterably opposed to UMT. Another interesting facet of the UMT questions is revealed when those polled are divided into those who favor and those who do not.

The question whether Student Council should take a stand on UMT divides the student body into almost equal halves. Of those polled, 57% favor the idea of student military training if UMT passed. An almost equally large group are almost as strongly for it as against it. If UMT should pass, 57% being for it as against 43% opposed.

The question whether Student Council could take a stand on a proposal to establish a stand-on-UUMT and that it be for or against UMT. Student Council, recognizing its obligation to suit the student body, is taking a poll this week to guide it in its decision.

Meanwhile, however, The Ticker has taken its own poll on The question. The results are as follows:

Favor 60%
Against 40%

Do you favor or oppose giving every able-bodied young man some military training?

No opinion 10%

Do you think Student Council should take a stand for or against a program to give some military training to every able-bodied young man?

SC should take a stand 42%
SC should not take a stand 58%

1007 A. The Centennial Fund will proceed to note that two-thirds of those interested in UMT, roughly the same proportion, would be interested in UMT.
