Stat Society Will Present Fair, Journal

The Statistics Association, with the help of the City College department of business administration, will present the Statistics Fair on Thursday, November 26.

The fair, the graphic works of the department will be set forth and described, with emphasis on the possibilities of a future in statistics and an effort to influence the student to start his specialization in statistics earlier in his college career.

"Our aim in presenting this fair is to publicize the economics-department's efforts to make the students aware of what the department has to offer," said President of the association.

The fair will be held on Thursday, November 26, from 2-4:30 in the Statistics Laboratory.

Beer Party For Seniors

Seniors can again look forward to a wonderful beer party to be held on Friday, December 10, one week prior to the senior prom, at the same typically German beer parlour on 3rd Avenue and 3rd Street as last term.

A steady flow of "the finest beer you ever tasted," beginning at 8:30 and running through the night, will bring potato-chips will be furnished in enormous quantities.

New York Central to class members with stub No. 1 of the class ticket will be accepted as the student's ticket.

The price ($2.00 for Seniors) from Tickets must be paid at the booth on the ninth floor by Friday, December 10.

Flower Sale

On Friday, Sigma Alpha Chi will sponsor a Flower Sale throughout the entire campus. The proceeds from the sale will be used to purchase a record library containing jazz records and phonographs with accompanying albums.

The sale will be run on the same basis as the preceding library. Presentation of your library card will give you the use of record albums.

Award Rockefeller Initial Finley Prize

The first annual John H. Finley Award for outstanding service to the City of New York will be made this year to the Rockefeller family at City College. The award will be presented on Thursday evening, December 2.

Co-Ed Wins Ad Honors

Marilyn Forbes, president of the Alpha Chi Omega, was chosen to present the award to the Advertising Committee of the InterClub Board as the student who exemplifies the spirit of the late David S. Monessen.

Junior Prom Balance Due

The deadline for payment of the Junior Prom balance on pledge bids for the Junior Prom will be held on Thursday evening, December 12, at 4N.

Ad-men Show Film Series On Thursday

Endeavoring to stimulate student interest in advertising, Alpha Delta Pi, Gamma Alpha Chi and the Advertising and Publicity Society will sponsor a series of films on Thursday, in 4N at 12:15.

SC Votes to Award Seven Insignium Keys

"Interesting and diversified service to the College" was awarded by Student Council to six students: Frank Neuwirth, Alvin Gitter, Alvin Moss, and Stan Siegel received major awards while Harriet Beckett, Marty Gitter, and Zelia Schwartzberg were the recipients of minor insignium.

Frank Neuwirth is one of the leaders of the American Veterans Committee and is also the chairman of the Public Affairs Committee of SC. Stan Siegel is president of the Intra-Mural Board and chairman of the Fresh-Soph Activities Committee of SC. Harriet Beckett was formerly president of the Class of '48 and Chanceller of Lambda Sigma Phi, Gamma Alpha Chi and Sigma Alpha Chi, and in charge of the World Student Service Fund.

Sigma Alpha Chi award was given to Alvin Gitter and as Mimeograph Advisor to a dozen organizations. Alpha Delta Pi was awarded to Alpha and Sigma Alpha Chi.

Curtain Goes Up Friday On Faculty-Student Show

Number three is the funniest of the three. The Third Faculty-Student Show, disguised behind the scenes of the City Students for weeks, will finally be presented on Friday in the Pauline Edwards Theatre.

Among the many skills will be an interpretation by the instructors of the Psychology Department on the different kinds of students that attend the college. Students: Blacks, Catholics, Smith, Moore and Dean, Keigman will portray their different characters.

The show is sponsored by the Student Council. Follows the sports section of The Ticket and will be advertised in the campus daily. At the show are tickets. With the promise that instructors also have their grips upon this humorous trip, the hum-"
Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

[Signature]

Nothing Sacred

By Hy Leder

Pressbox Patter

Basketball Outlook

Bright

By Aaron Shapiro

Grappers in Opening Tilt

On Saturday

By Joe Savery

The Man with the Pipe, whose picture is prominently displayed each issue on the cover of The Man with the Pipe, and his companion, the turntable, has become the symbol of The Man with the Pipe. Although the Man with the Pipe and his companion are not new, they have been given a new lease on life by the editorial staff and art department of The Man with the Pipe.

Pauline Edwards's Story: A Legend in Lavender

By Sylvia Pietz

In the past the Pauline Edwards Theatre has been gyrating and undulating in the various colleges, as the result of its students' activities...

Upholders Keep Faith in Polls

Public opinion polls have been divided according to results of a recent... By a vote of 3 to 1...

College-Ah, College-Ah, four years of your life! Is it really true, friends, that under your... By John P. Brown

Rothschild Shines As Booters Aim for Title

By Ben Metz

On the way of camped out, wincing through the... By Ben Metz

The Preparers opened the season with a hard... By Ben Metz