Forty more pledges must be sold by Friday if the Sophomore Prom is to be held. This decision was made at a meeting between the class council officers and Central Treasurer Hank Levy.

Face Brooklyn Saturday
In Deciding League Game

By Larry Pollock

The biggest game of the year for the City College soccer team will be played Saturday morning at 11 when the Beaver booters clash head-on with league-leading Brooklyn College in the final Conference championship. This contest promises some of the most exciting soccer of the season, three wins, no losses and one tie, while the Kingsmen are undefeated and untied in four games of intra-city competition. With this, the final Conference game played Wednesday at Lewisham Stadium.

Regular Beaver goalie Harry Landis was lined up with a leg injury, necessitating the substitution of center fielder Bill Saltis in the net. The New Yorkers had forged ahead at 6:30 of the first half when Lewisville's Steve D'Alessandro converted after controlling his own rebound. His first shot appeared to have been deflected by Saltis but the ball trickled from the goalie-tender's grip and the alert Phillips caught on the nets with his well-placed boot.

Whatever it was, the City coach Werner Rothchild told his team during the half-time recess, it had the desired effect of tak­ ing the air away from the visitors.

At 4:10 of the third stanza, Gil Chervaller took the ball on a clean break away from right Jeff Freedman but again goalie Steen prevailed.

With Lucien Daouphars conti­ nuing his fine form, New York won the final quarter was also "all City" and it remained for Holm converted the goal at the 11:23 mark.

Daouphars, incendiately, has been burning the federal Smith since the season and appears a sure-fire candidate for All-Met honors.

Beaver Booters Rally
To Tie Rutgers at 1-1

On the short end of a 1-0 score since early in the second quarter, high scorer Tommy Holm rallied his team to a 1-1 deadlock with a rugged Rutgers eleven in a non-Conference game played Wednesday at Lewisham Stadium.

IBMB Basketball Tournament Moves to Quarter-Finals

The remaining six quarter-final berths in the IMB basketball tournament were filled as second-round eliminations came to a conclusion Thursday in Hansen Hall. The teams that灵ed to record the round of eight by squeezing past Equities, Post 18, 18-11, in an overtime contest. The decisive basket was scored by Bob Wilsom, center of the quintet, while Mel Nielson led the victors in scoring with twelve markers. In another, closely-contested fray, Post 54 defeated Leisters, 52-41. At the half, the eventual winners were ahead by a slim 11-10 margin.

Post 54 placed two quintets in the quarter-finals, as a strong Post 51A team, led by "Jimmy" Lewis' eight-point production, overpowered the Tucker Stickers to the tune of 104. Wilson 55, the team that upset the Post 54 A squad last year, also qualified by clipping Genex 74-51.

The final two contests of the afternoon were uneventful affairs, in which the Dutchmen topped Hard 36 by 39-21, with Joe Lerner and Tommy Delahey each tallying 11 points, and the Globecrackers outscored the Combines, 71-12.

Competition will continue to­ morrow afternoon in Hansen Hall with all eight remaining teams playing action. Quarter-final pairings include Wilson 55 vs. the Dutchmen; Post 34A vs. the Globecrackers; Post 54B vs. Fly and Moe's Shmoo vs. the Flamingo Park Fingers.

Meanwhile, plans have been completed for a Co-ed bowling tournament, to be held a week from Friday, November 21, at Graemeley bowling lanes beginning at 3:00. All interested "trays" and "lads" are invited. Either sexes or men and women individually can sign up in G10A.

Injuries to Key Veterans
Darkens Grapplers' Hopes

Injuries to two key veteran wrestlers have dampened Coach Joe Sapor's post outlook for the City College wrestling team.

Co-captain Connie Norman, in the 147 lb. class, and Norman 82, a 153-pounder, will be sidelined for several weeks with elbow injuries. It is doubtful whether the two will be ready for the season's opener against Fordham Tuesday next.

Despite the gloomy turn of events, Coach Joe Sapor feels that the present edition of the Beaver matmen "are coming along favorably in comparison with teams of other years." The veteran matman is featured at the turn-of-freshman aspirations for the team, whom it is count­ ing upon to serve as a League team for the forese...
