City Receives Honor Plaque

By Ed Bendik

A bronze plaque, honoring the memory of 310 City College students who lost their lives in World War II, was unveiled Sunday in the Great Hall of the Main Building.

The memorial was covered in the presence of families of the deceased servicemen as part of the College’s observance of Pearl Harbor Day.

Mrs. Robert P. Patterson, wife of the late Secretary of War, unveiled the plaque, which was presented to the College by the wife of the late Robert P. Patterson, who was the father of six servicemen.

Motion Passed by Council For Junior Class Exchange

A motion to institute an Undergraduate National Exchange Plan between City College and prominent universities of higher education throughout the country has been passed by the Council.

Letters to the Editor

Students need a more flexible schedule in the afternoon in place of two hours for extra-curricular activities. Letting the Tuesday referendums happen would mean that some of its "services" would be cut down. This, in our opinion, is no solution. We feel that the city is the one who should be paying for things after school. If something were to happen if the City decided that they couldn't afford to pay the salary of Mr. Harry Maim, the central treasurer.

If you want the best possible service in the central treasurer's office, it would not mean that it could not function. It would only mean that it could not function at the efficiency to which we are accustomed.

During the period of several years without the student assistants' payroll, the student body will have the opportunity to study the office and its services. We feel that the city should pay for all extra-curricular activities, and that the students should not have to bear the expense of this office.

The second referendum on the ballot requests that you use the medium of your democratic vote to indicate your approval of the extra-curricular activities. I feel that the students should be allowed to have their own personal gain or for the good of all of the student organizations. I feel that we should have a chance to vote on the matter.

The requested increase amounts to little more than one cent per school day. This should not be such a great burden, for the student body every time money is needed, the sooner the central treasurer.

If you study the office and its services throughout the year, I feel that you will find the financial burdens being removed from our shoulders.

Adelphi Five Rallies To Trip City, 69-64

By Stan Fleck

In a tense, relatively well-played struggle, a tall, poised Adelphi quintet handed the City cageers its initial defeat of the season as the Garden City squad won, 69-64, Saturday night at the Main Gym.

Displaying a vast improvement over last week's poor Hunter performance, the Lavender to cope with a pair of 63 sophomores, Don Payne and Jim Fordham, MIT Slated To Face Beaver Five

In what is expected to be one of its toughest games of the season, the CCNY five will meet a strong Fordham contingent Wednesday, December 17, at the latter's gym, following a tune-up fray against the Beavers' schedule.

The Fordham tilt, originally slated for February 18 at the Main Gym, was rescheduled last week and will be televised over channel 5 for the admission is fifteen cents with a student library card. The MIT game will be aired over WMGM with Marty Rickman and Johny Moote handling the telecasting chores.

If comparative scores are any indication of future happenings, then the Pollakynsky figure to be in for a rather rough night against Fordham. The Rams soundly trounced a tough Adelphi five, while City was nipped by the same Garden City quintet Saturday night. Fordham also defeated the loss of Fred Cofer and Bill Carlson via graduation and an injury to J. P. Patsis, originally slated to handle the pivot honors. For this season, Coach John Bach's squad is gradually building up a reputation as one of the strongest squads in the area.

Ed Parchinski, the first junior to ever captain a Fordham basketball team, is regarded as the team's top performer.

Frosh Cagers Down Commerce Team, 54-46

The City College freshman basketball team registered its second straight victory of the season by topping a willing but undermanned Commerce Five, 54-46, in the opening game of Saturday night's twin-bill at the Main Gym.

Featuring a twosome of Irwin Weissman, with outside sets, and James O'Shea, with inside jump shots, the Baby Beavers were ahead in the game from the opening whistle, when they tallied nine points in a row before Eli Cohen hit with an outside set for the first Commerce goal. The score at the end of the first quarter was 11-5, in favor of the frosh.

With two minutes left in the third period and the Commerce team behind by eighteen points, a tap by Richie Surnamek, a side set by Bob Repp, and a drive in layup by Surnamek saw the third quarter come to a close with the Froshmen ahead by 46-28. All hopes for the Businessmen were gone when Portnoy and Repp left the game on personal's with five minutes remaining.

Weissman and O'Shea were the game’s high scorers with fifteen and thirteen points, respectively. Chuck Siegel was high man for the Commerce team with seven points.

The loss at the hands of the froshmen team made it the second defeat in a row for the Business Beavers, who were downed by NYU Washington Square, 62-59, Thursday afternoon.

Belles Beat Eleven To All-Metropolitan Eleven

Four members of the City College tennis team have been elected to the 1932 All-Met squad, following the annual balloting of the Metropolitan Intercollegiate Coaches Association. These honors include right hander Harold Holm, third baseman Bill Schieble, left hander John Parker, and outfielder Harry Williams.
