Barnes-Less Beaver Cagers To Face Duchmen, Ihaca

The CCNY cagers more closely to the end of their schedule this week as Illinois College and at Penn. Holiday inside the Main Gym on Thursday and Saturday, respectively, to clinch a week of heroic activity for the busy Beavers.

When one considers the three previous seasons would have several winning games for the Polkareman as only three games, all against local teams—St. Francis, Brooklyn College, and New York University. The Beavers have topped both teams in both contests. This week they take the chance to win the third game, the decisive contest between the teams.

New Beaver

For Saturday night's game, the Beaver five will have returned from their road trip to the south. They will be welcome to the team by a New Yorker, Lou Bronzo, a transfer from Queens College. Bronzo played one year and a half of varsity ball for Queens, leading the Knights in scoring with a 14.5 average per game. He is a tall, rangy center, with a 6-11 frame and a 220-pound weight.

The Beavers will be out to avenge last year's New Year's Eve loss to the Queensmen, 27-19, in which the Queens men were able to build a sizable lead and hold on until the final buzzer. The Beavers will be looking for a similar performance this year, as they have been playing well lately.

Matmen Cop 2nd Win, Rip B'klyn Poly, 21-5

With Dominic Nizam, Jack Goodwin and Steve Lewis leading the way, the City College wrestling team swept to a 21-5 triumph over the Polytechnic, Friday evening. The victory, the second against an equal number of defeats, brought the team's record to 9-7 this season.

In Friday's encounter, the 122-pounder, by bringing his opponent to the mat and pinning him for three seconds, gave the team an early lead of 3-0. This lead was increased to 6-0 when the 133-pounder, after a fall, scored 3 points for the Beavers.

Mariners Defeat

That same gap left by the departure of Howie Buss, Dlott has been a lot more effective at the center spot. He has been able to fill the bill. Kowalski, on the other hand, boasts one of the best set men in the Metropolitan area.

Norton was more than happy to get the :=... win, especially considering the fact that the Jaspers had scored 40 points in the game to Date. However, a foul by Ed Cunliffe on the 1-110 board and a pair of free throws by Redman, who has been steady in his shooting, ended the game for the Jaspers, although I strongly suspect Puapa would lose his heart to a tie.

The next game on the schedule is against Manhattan on Saturday. The Jaspers have been struggling in the last few games, but they will be determined to improve their record in the City College series.

Jaspers Hand Cagers Crushing 88-46 Loss

Amid a devastating Manhattan shooting bombardment, City College’s five-game winning streak was abruptly leveled Saturday night when a searing Jasper quintet inflected the Beavers the worst defeat in their 45-year hoop history by a score of 88-46 in the opening half completely outdistanced the hapless Beavers.

-Howie Buss, playing his farewell game for the Lavender after a productive ten-game varsity career, was the first player to exhibit some semblance of accuracy, registering 22 points to lead all scorers in the fray. The modest, well-trained School of Business graduate received a standing ovation from the crowd he left a City game for the last time a few seconds from the finish.

As for the contest itself, it never existed once past the six-minute mark. After the first quarter, when Manhattan had led 15-12, the Jaspers went on a 16-0 burst during the second quarter, the creation of which had the Lavender downing 19 points of their own in the opening half.

Among his mates on the victorious squad were Bob Rose, John Baker, and Bill Lloj, who contributed 20, 17, and 10 points, respectively.

Beaver Fencers Bow To Trio of Ivy Foes

Intermission was busy but unfruitful for the City College fencing team, as the men of Montague fenced three Ivy League foes—Princeton, Columbia and Yale—and found themselves on the short end of the score each time.

Saturday, the Lavender fencers were downed by the Princeton Tigers, 14-8, at Princeton, N.J. The only bright note to be found in the performance of the Lavender fencers was the fine work of the saber squad which captured all six of its bouts.

Rohan Still, on both the foil and sabre, and Len Suzin each captured two bouts in the saber competition. It is interesting to note that still finer performance was accomplished despite the absence of ace saber-Shelly Meyers.

In the epee competition, the Beavers were downed, 6-3, with Murray Reich winning two of the bouts. The victory was garnered by Harvey Miller at the expense of the Tiger’s Bill Van Pream.

The men of Montague met with complete disaster in the foil, for they were blanked, 6-0. A Princeton squad consisting of Jim Seiden, Joe Weil, Hal Nordhols, and Jack Mitchell went against the City group.

The match held last Wednesday evening at Columbia, the Beaver fencers faced the Lion squad to the tune of 39-5. The Beavers were downed by the powerful Lions 8-1 in the saber, 7-2 in foil, and 4-1 in the epee. The only Beaver able to win any bouts were fellowmen Jean Weiss and Herb Patchowski, the latter being the lone City fencer that lost a bout.

The loss held the Beaver fencing squad in front to stay. The Sabre Squads went against the Harvard Hacksaw in Cambridge and then on to Yale in New Haven. The Sabre Squads were badly defeated in both events.

Dutch' Treat for Financial '5

Ex-Pro Star New Commerce Coach

In a move designed to provide immediate aid for the winless Commerce Cagers, Jack "Dutch" Garfinkel, former college and professional baseball star, has been selected to replace Dr. Ira Zasloff, who has left a City game for the last time a few seconds from the finish.

In his first two seasons under Lapchick, Garfinkel teamed with Al "Dusty" DelStefano, current St. John’s coach, Bill Haggerty and Bill Lloyd to compile highly impressive records of 15-3 and 17-4. In his senior year, the squad’s mark was a commendable 11-6.

Following a four-year hitch in the Army, Garfinkel rejoined his baseball teammates in the professional ranks, winding up his career with the Boston Celts and later with the New York Knickerbocker mentor.

In 1941, his senior year, he captured the Baseballian squad and received the Haggerty Award, emblematic of the Metropolitan area’s outstanding basketball player, at the conclusion of the campaign.
