Fees Committee Passes Budgets

A total disbursement of $7,081.51, representing a cut of approximately $900 over last semester's allocation, was approved Tuesday by the Faculty-Student Fees Committee, to be used for student activities this term. The decrease is in contrast to last semester's allocation of approximately $400.

A motion stating that "Only the senior class be authorized to publish promos out of the fees allocation" was passed by the Committee. Preceding this, it was decided that class allocations would be restricted to activities within the current semester.

In addition, the Committee voted to cut THE TICKER's circulation from 3000 to 2500. However, when confronted after the meeting, with the possibility of a drop in the advertising rate because of this, Dean Miriam C. Fairies sustained the ruling, pending further investigation.

THE TICKER, Student Council and Inter-Council Board were the only three organizations to receive grants. Monies allocated to cover the Inter-Club Card, which subsequently distributes the funds to the classes and clubs, for final publication up to and including the week of March 15. THE TICKER received $2372.45; Lounge, $150; and a cut from last term of $325.55.

Student Council's $2617.79 grant was for a proportional cut of $535.61 from last year's allocation. Out of this total, Inter-Club Card received $1125, and Lounge $1275, of which the Class of '54 will receive $125; Class '53, $100; Class '52, $75; and Class '51, $50. Student Council is also to receive $1 in the form of a miscellaneous item.

Lounge hosts and hostesses will be available to answer all questions concerning the rooms. An information desk will be opened for a similar purpose.

THE Lounge Committee has set up a tentative schedule of lounge programs for the semester, which will be posted shortly on the ninth floor. Lounge programs include Friday afternoon dances, which are currently being held in Lounge A. From 12:45, "Masquerade," a Chicago musical, will be presented by the Boosters and Alpha Phi Omega.

The Lounge Committee has set up a tentative schedule of lounge programs for the semester, which will be posted shortly on the ninth floor. Lounge programs include Friday afternoon dances, which are currently being held in Lounge A. From 12:45, "Masquerade," a Chicago musical, will be presented by the Boosters and Alpha Phi Omega.

The Lounge Committee will hold an open meeting in Lounge A, Wednesday at 2, to discuss any ideas that the students have for improving the lounges. Additional information may be obtained by contacting Sandy Kahn in 921.

The Faculty Committee on Student Activities has delayed action on the Shoestringers' Society's suspension, pending further investigation. The Shoestringers have been requested to tell the Committee why they believe the suspension should be lifted.

The Department of Student Life suspended the group because they lacked proper insurance for accidents that might occur on their extensive trips. Dr. Charles J. Eberhardt, chairman of the FCSA, explained that so action by that body could lift the suspension, but that the FCSA could refrain from removing the Shoestringers' charter.

At the same meeting, the FCSA reduced the number of times a publication must be issued during the semester, from five to three. This was an amendment to the regulations, passed last term, which calls for a minimum publication of five issues per semester. The action followed a complaint from Students for Democratic Action that the rules violated the basic democratic tenants of freedom of the press, and a recommendation by Student Council that the rules be reconsidered.

Hiliated has received special permission from the FCSA to publish their newspaper without using Student Activities Fees. This was granted because Hiliated is largely supported by B'nai Brith, an outside organization.

Booster's 'Lick a Lolly' Gains Merit Certificate

Booster's has received a March of Dimes certificate of appreciation for their infantile paralysis campaign, staged last semester. Under the direction of Elaine Bernby, the group collected $286.34. The group is expected to drive to "lick a lolly to lick polio." Ruth J. Ellis, director of school and college activities in Greater New York, presented the award.

Funds were collected by the organization for the National Infantile Paralysis Foundation, through lollypop sales and a grab jarboree.

A auction was held on the Mossesson Honor Forms Being Accepted in 921

Mossesson Award applications will be accepted until Wednesday, March 18, at 3 in 921. The semi-annual award is given to the senior majoring in advertising who fulfills certain scholastic requirements, and whose character and service to the School best exemplifies the spirit of the late David S. Mossesson.

Mr. Mossesson was an advertising executive who was very active in many student activities. Soon after his death, a committee was organized to grant an award to a deserving advertising major.

The applicant must have at least a B minus average in the advertising courses taken up to date and an overall average of C plus. In addition, all extra-curricular activities should be listed on the application.

A mass of Lavender rooters burned the three-minute rule in effigy last night, after NYU posted a comparatively tight contest into an 82-68 rout on the part of NYU in the rivals' traditional hoop windup at the Heights Memorial Gym.

An overflow throng of 1500 enthusiasts looked on as the encounter moved into the three-minute zone with the Violets on top by 70-68. It was still anybody's ballgame at that point, but NYU's husky two minutes, NYU posted in nine straight points from the free-throw line to seal out the affair.

City's Jerry Donathskill, playing one of the finest games of his career, registered 27 points to grab high scoring honors for the evening. The Violets' Ed Doherty, displaying a phenomenal jump shot, in the opening half, was runner-up with 22.

The Lavender thus ended its season with a commendable 10-6 mark, while the Violets put the finishing touches on one of their finest campaigns in years, closing with a 9-11 record. The triumph also marks the 40-year history of this traditional series.

Despite the large margin of FCSA Delays Decision On Shoestringers Club
At an age when most aspiring young hopefuls were getting their first innings of adult life, Pauline Edwards Theatre, at the end of last semester, was graduated from City College with a bachelor's degree in political science, with special emphasis in political science.

In the political science major, he had relatively little contact with the College of Social Science and the political science faculty.

However, the great work done by the small group of students and faculty members who were involved in the political science major was a source of inspiration for him. He understood the system they themselves set up.

At the comparatively new political science major, he got the chance to gain promotions in the College once again. "I believe the political science major is the best thing that has happened to this College in the last 10 years," he said.

The political science major was the result of a number of student leaders in the SAA, and in contradiction to the very rules which they helped introduce, tried to pass the buck.

Mayor Grumet, former President of the University, who had been an important figure in the College, had not had much contact with the College in recent years.

"Mayor Grumet was a personal loss to all. Student leaders of the SAA, fearing a run-around, and ratification until the General Faculty Committee on Student Activities, the SAA was to represent students with the approval, per se, of the General Faculty Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics, but was refused permission. It was a personal loss to all."

"Mayor Grumet, former President of the University, who had been an important figure in the College, had not had much contact with the College in recent years."

"Mayor Grumet was a personal loss to all. Student leaders of the SAA, fearing a run-around, and ratification until the General Faculty Committee on Student Activities, the SAA was to represent students with the approval, per se, of the General Faculty Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics, but was refused permission. It was a personal loss to all."

"Mayor Grumet, former President of the University, who had been an important figure in the College, had not had much contact with the College in recent years."

"Mayor Grumet was a personal loss to all. Student leaders of the SAA, fearing a run-around, and ratification until the General Faculty Committee on Student Activities, the SAA was to represent students with the approval, per se, of the General Faculty Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics, but was refused permission. It was a personal loss to all."

"Mayor Grumet, former President of the University, who had been an important figure in the College, had not had much contact with the College in recent years."

"Mayor Grumet was a personal loss to all. Student leaders of the SAA, fearing a run-around, and ratification until the General Faculty Committee on Student Activities, the SAA was to represent students with the approval, per se, of the General Faculty Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics, but was refused permission. It was a personal loss to all."
The Beaver swimmers, who are the Eastern Intercollegiate champions for the second season in a row, won the 1200-yard free-style relay, the 220-yard backstroke and the 440-yard freestyle. Coach Bruce has decided to enter the 10,000-yard race in the Eastern Intercollegiate championships, which will be held in New York City next week. The race will take place on the 28th of May, and the swimmers will be defending their title from last year when they took six of the nine individual events in the annual Metropolitan swimming championships at NYU's John Quigley Memorial Pool tomorrow night.

Prospects Dim for Trackmen; Prospects Dim for Trackmen; Prospects Dim for Trackmen;

The most capable men remainders, with the exception of the Lavender five, are back to back in the 220-yard race. Recently, Schloemer set a new record in the 200-yard freestyle with a time of 220 seconds. His leading competitors, including Jay Glat, Norm Moskowitz, and Bob Burgel, are expected to take part in the Eastern Intercollegiate championships. The race will take place on the 28th of May, and the swimmers will be defending their title from last year when they took six of the nine individual events in the annual Metropolitan swimming championships at NYU's John Quigley Memorial Pool tomorrow night.

Boxers to Syracuse

The Boxers will take the road to Syracuse to participate in the Eastern Intercollegiate championship boxing meet at Syracuse. Coach Dougall will be awaiting the return of the squad the next evening after making the trip along with Coach Yustin Stiksma. The event will last through Saturday night.

Rooters Hear Gallagher Praise Team at Rally

More than 700 loyal Beaver rooters turned out to rock the walls of Pitt Stadium in support of the Lavender five, who have been defeated in their last two appearances. The Lavender five, led by Captain Roger Cooper, will attempt to establish a new CCNY record.

Weightlifters In Form Frolic

The first official Eastern Intercollegiate weightlifting championships will take place tomorrow at City College. The event will be held in conjunction with several colleges competing for top honors.

Intramural Hoop Tourney Gets Under Way Today

The Intramural Board's semi-annual basketball tournament will open today at 12:15 in Hannen Hall with six opening round games on tap. Action will begin with a quartet of junior teams vying for quarter-final berths. The City Juniors will take on the Downtown Stutters on one court, while Post '54 A tackles the Wilson Juniors on the other.

NYU Downs City...

(Carried over from page 1) The second period had closed on the lattest portion of the contest. After the Beavers led briefly, 2-1, on Monday, Junior Greg Jorgensen was found to be the key to the game. He had the ball and a tap by Shortt closed the court and the margin to 10-2 advantage. From thereon, the City men had to scramble to stay in the game. Thanks to Shortt, who kept the Lavender within dis- tance, the Beavers led 42-37 at the half.

On the other hand, the Violets got hot and tallied nine straight points to take a 10-2 advantage. From thereon, the City men had to scramble to stay in the game. Thanks to Shortt, who kept the Lavender within dis- tance, the Beavers led 42-37 at the half.

But then Doherty started hitting for NYU, and before half of the second period had closed, the Violets found themselves down by 2-1, on Monday, Junior Greg Jorgensen was found to be the key to the game. He had the ball and a tap by Shortt closed the court and the margin to 10-2 advantage. From thereon, the City men had to scramble to stay in the game. Thanks to Shortt, who kept the Lavender within dis- tance, the Beavers led 42-37 at the half.

New York Knickerbockers was an
ted to better their third place finish of last year by coming in second and seeking to better their third place finish of last year. The most capable men remainders, with the exception of the Lavender five, are back to back in the 220-yard race. Recently, Schloemer set a new record in the 200-yard freestyle with a time of 220 seconds. His leading competitors, including Jay Glat, Norm Moskowitz, and Bob Burgel, are expected to take part in the Eastern Intercollegiate championships. The race will take place on the 28th of May, and the swimmers will be defending their title from last year when they took six of the nine individual events in the annual Metropolitan swimming championships at NYU's John Quigley Memorial Pool tomorrow night.

Prospects Dim for Trackmen; Prospects Dim for Trackmen; Prospects Dim for Trackmen;

The most capable men remainders, with the exception of the Lavender five, are back to back in the 220-yard race. Recently, Schloemer set a new record in the 200-yard freestyle with a time of 220 seconds. His leading competitors, including Jay Glat, Norm Moskowitz, and Bob Burgel, are expected to take part in the Eastern Intercollegiate championships. The race will take place on the 28th of May, and the swimmers will be defending their title from last year when they took six of the nine individual events in the annual Metropolitan swimming championships at NYU's John Quigley Memorial Pool tomorrow night.

Boxers to Syracuse

The Boxers will take the road to Syracuse to participate in the Eastern Intercollegiate championship boxing meet at Syracuse. Coach Dougall will be awaiting the return of the squad the next evening after making the trip along with Coach Yustin Stiksma. The event will last through Saturday night.

Rooters Hear Gallagher Praise Team at Rally

More than 700 loyal Beaver rooters turned out to rock the walls of Pitt Stadium in support of the Lavender five, who have been defeated in their last two appearances. The Lavender five, led by Captain Roger Cooper, will attempt to establish a new CCNY record.

Weightlifters In Form Frolic

The first official Eastern Intercollegiate weightlifting championships will take place tomorrow at City College. The event will be held in conjunction with several colleges competing for top honors.

Intramural Hoop Tourney Gets Under Way Today

The Intramural Board's semi-annual basketball tournament will open today at 12:15 in Hannen Hall with six opening round games on tap. Action will begin with a quartet of junior teams vying for quarter-final berths. The City Juniors will take on the Downtown Stutters on one court, while Post '54 A tackles the Wilson Juniors on the other.

NYU Downs City...

(Carried over from page 1) The second period had closed on the lattest portion of the contest. After the Beavers led briefly, 2-1, on Monday, Junior Greg Jorgensen was found to be the key to the game. He had the ball and a tap by Shortt closed the court and the margin to 10-2 advantage. From thereon, the City men had to scramble to stay in the game. Thanks to Shortt, who kept the Lavender within dis- tance, the Beavers led 42-37 at the half.

On the other hand, the Violets got hot and tallied nine straight points to take a 10-2 advantage. From thereon, the City men had to scramble to stay in the game. Thanks to Shortt, who kept the Lavender within dis- tance, the Beavers led 42-37 at the half.

But then Doherty started hitting for NYU, and before half of the second period had closed, the Violets found themselves down by 2-1, on Monday, Junior Greg Jorgensen was found to be the key to the game. He had the ball and a tap by Shortt closed the court and the margin to 10-2 advantage. From thereon, the City men had to scramble to stay in the game. Thanks to Shortt, who kept the Lavender within dis- tance, the Beavers led 42-37 at the half.

New York Knickerbockers was an
ted to better their third place finish of last year by coming in second and seeking to better their third place finish of last year. The most capable men remainders, with the exception of the Lavender five, are back to back in the 220-yard race. Recently, Schloemer set a new record in the 200-yard freestyle with a time of 220 seconds. His leading competitors, including Jay Glat, Norm Moskowitz, and Bob Burgel, are expected to take part in the Eastern Intercollegiate championships. The race will take place on the 28th of May, and the swimmers will be defending their title from last year when they took six of the nine individual events in the annual Metropolitan swimming championships at NYU's John Quigley Memorial Pool tomorrow night.

Prospects Dim for Trackmen; Prospects Dim for Trackmen; Prospects Dim for Trackmen;

The most capable men remainders, with the exception of the Lavender five, are back to back in the 220-yard race. Recently, Schloemer set a new record in the 200-yard freestyle with a time of 220 seconds. His leading competitors, including Jay Glat, Norm Moskowitz, and Bob Burgel, are expected to take part in the Eastern Intercollegiate championships. The race will take place on the 28th of May, and the swimmers will be defending their title from last year when they took six of the nine individual events in the annual Metropolitan swimming championships at NYU's John Quigley Memorial Pool tomorrow night.