Violators to Fight Legality of 903

Richard Austin and Hyman Gold, registrar assistants, discussed last week by the Board of Higher Education for Violating Section 903 of the City Charter, which called the decision to the courts.

The legality of Section 903 as applied to college employees will soon be reviewed by the Brooklyn Appellate Court. If the Board’s decision is upheld by the court, Mr. Austin and Mr. Gold plan to carry their case to the State Court of Appeals and eventually to the Supreme Court.

Section 903 calls for dismissal of city employees who refuse to answer questions at an official inquiry. The Committee of the BHE maintains that City College employees come under Board rules since they receive pay from the city, Mr. Austin and Mr. Gold contend that Section 903 does not apply to them because they are salaried by New York State.

The registrar’s office clerks are charged with refusing to answer questions asked by the Senate Internal Security subcommittee last month concerning their alleged membership in the Communist Party, at that time they invoked the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution in their defense.

At the BHE hearings, Mr. Gold challenged the Board members to produce "one shred of evidence that will implicate me in any act of disloyalty to the College.”

Decision Made To Stay Action On SC’s Rights

By Richard Kerner

The suspension of Upton Student Council’s publicity rights by the Department of Student Life was lifted late Friday afternoon when President Buell G. Gallagher, Dean James Peace and SC leaders agreed to hold all previous action in abeyance until the SFCSA could discuss the situation.

The temporary loss of publicity rights was, according to SC, apparently due to reprisals resulting from a calculated, well-organized refusal by SC to file the formal club registration form with the Department of Student Life.

Assistant Dean of Student Life, Alton Lewis, who exacted the publicity, sanctions, claimed that

Levin Cops 125 lb. Title In Met Jr. Wrestling; Lloyd Eliminated Early

By Albert Glinsburg
Several surprising performances, both pleasant and unpleasant, highlighted City College's fifth place finish in the Junior Metro Manhattan AAU Closed Meet held Friday and Saturday. Actually, the Beavers were closer than their fifth spot would indicate, since they scored total in the second best in the Long Island Bellies' winning mark of 21 points.

Coach Joe Esfara was more pleased with the performance of Steve Levin, wrestling in the AAE division. Levin was able to sweep through his six matches without defeat, thus giving City first place in this weight division. Although it was to be the only position the Levander grapplers were to earn, they also gave a poor performance in other weight classes.

Bocc O'Angelo, who had been a disappointment throughout the season in dual matches, competed superbly. Six opponents in a row fell before the 147-pounder, until he, too, was vanquished.

The freshman grapplers also distinguished themselves in their bouts. They were Ira Zigmund, 150th; Al Taylor, who was awe-striking first baseman-outfielder.

Starting on the mound for the Beavers will be pitcher-at-the-back Dick Eichorn, who turned in several consecutive league victories last year—possibly as well as southpaw Larry Keller. The catching chores will be handled by Frank Badali and Dick Farkas.

Ace righthander Warren Neubauer, who will probably be the opening batter-champ with a .419 mark and Marty Sataline, of basketball fame, is the hitting first baseman-outfielder.

Many of the stars of last year's club have returned, including Miskin, who will be the opening batter-champ with a .419 mark and Marty Sataline, of basketball fame, is the hitting first baseman-outfielder.

The road is not an easy one for the Beavers. The Redmen are playing for a new coach, Al "Dusty" DeStefano, who took over the biggest campaign as St. John's hooch mentor in 1970A. The price for the bus trip, which will commence at 9:30 tonight, is $2.50. In addition to the West Point fans, 25-24,

The Flamingo Park Sliders met disaster at the hands of Schleps, Inc., the Wilson Sophs, 25-24, in a 15th Floor, 220 W. 42, N.Y. 36

The encounter will feature a number of former Lavender stars, including All-America George Barlow; Sy Kalman, Eddie Sternman, and Teddy Schnolli.

Although the Beavers will probably be marginal in the opening intercollegiate dual meet at Saturday, April 4, City will be seeking to avenge a lopsided 22-0 defeat suffered at the hands of the Garden City eleven last year.
