Fall Convocation Set For Monday in PET

The annual Fall Convocation will take place next Monday, October 4 in the Pauline Edwards Theatre. Beginning at 10:30, the program will continue until 11:40 and feature the presentation of an award to Bernard M. Baruch and an address by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, wife of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, who will speak on "Youth and the United Nations." The convocation will be preceded by the national anthem and "The Bar," a professional publication containing articles submitted by prominent figures in the legal profession and by students. The weekly meetings will feature talks by well-known men of the law. Presentation of an award will be made to the best student of the year at the National Democratic Convention in Chicago, 1960.

Legal Enthusiasts To Revive Society

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, now president of the American Association for the UN, had served as United States representative to the Nations for Democratic Action at the United Nations, May 1953. She is the author of "Youth and the United Nations." Mrs. Roosevelt has written "Youth and the United Nations," and her latest book, "Awake and Learning East," was published. She is a former Assistant Secretary of State for International Administration and was appointed in 1946 to the Chairmanship of the Commission on Human Rights of the UN's Economic and Social Council.

College Conducts Drive To Open Student Union

The City College Fund is conducting a drive to obtain revenue for the completion and opening of the Student Union Building on the Manhattanville Campus. When the Student Union is opened, support of the Up-town Home Plans will cease, and Lamport House will gain additional funds. This announcement was made at a press conference in President Gallagher's office Wednesday.

Sigma Alpha to Prepare Group, Activity Pamphlet

This semester, Sigma Alpha is preparing a booklet for the purpose of familiarizing the various organizations and activities at the Baruch School. It will contain the history, purposes, functions and current plans of all the organizations in the School.

Sigmas are urged to contribute a full report of their activities by October 4 in order to receive proper coverage. Questionnaires have been placed in the mail boxes of all groups. The booklet will be a sixty-four page illustrated, mimeographed edition containing information on all of the traditions of the Baruch School as well as complete coverage of all School activities.

Rules for Fraternity recruitment are a dead letter to this season. Most of the upper juniors and upper juniors, who have skipped, and who have not filled them, have been looking for a Sigma Alpha candidate who would be willing to meet them at their group's office, 911C, immediately if they have not received it through the mail.

Booters To Encounter Pratt in Initial Match

With a warm-up fray against the Alumni already under its belt, the Beaver soccer team will start its season for a second straight Met Championship Saturday afternoon when it meets the Pratt Institute eleven at the Brooklyn school’s home field. The Pratt tilt should not prove too much of a contest since the Beavers took the measure of the Engineers by a 7-5 score last year.

The seven goals scored by the Lavender last season were the most ever tallied by a City representative in the College’s brief soccer history.

The 1954 Beavers should be an interesting mixture of veterans and newcomers. Leading the list of nepotists is a quartet of tongue-twisters, Rudy Gelsme, Jorah Maxwell, Pierre Mayer and Wolfgang Westl.

Other newcomers given an excellent chance to make the starting line-up are Bob LaMestre, Pierre Riviere and Vape Jordan, a transfer from Hunter.

Coach Harry Karlin, who replaced Werner “Paul” Lewisohn Stadium for its first year. The schedule definitely favors the Beavers this year despite the fact that six of their nine games are on enemy fields. There are only three or four really tough games on the slate and most of these are at the end of the season, so that the team should be at peak form for the key encounters.

The last two games of the campaign are particularly decisive, the opposition being provided by West Point and Brooklyn. The Egyptians are usually one of the top teams in the Lavender’s chief contenders for the Metropolitan crown.

Success of IMB Slate To Depend on ‘58ers

With one of the largest freshman classes in the history of the College figuring prominently in its plans, the Intra-Mural Board is hoping to conduct one of its most successful programs in several semesters. However, Bert Kasterman, the Board’s newly installed Men’s Chairman, is a bit disappointed with the freshman for-ay, the activities that have been held so far, pointing out that “there is a need for increased student participation.”

Highlighting the opening of the Fresh-Soph battles will be a six-man baseball game to be held Thursday at 12 in Nassau Hall. The battles will swing into high gear on Thursday, October 14 at noon when the traditional Carnival of Events will be conducted in the gym. A Fresh-Soph Co-Ed Double, ping pong matches and a bowling meet are being planned for later in the season.

Sand, Ex-Holman Aide, Still a Records Officer; Wants To Teach Again

Once one of the most important athletic figures at the College, Bobby Sand is now quietly holding down a post as a Records Officer in the Business Manager’s office. Although assigned to this position by President Gallagher upon his reinstatement to the College faculty, the amiable former freshman basketball coach has made it plain that he would like to resume teaching.

In addition to his byzantine departmental post, Sand has taught in the Economics department prior to his suspension by the Board of Higher Education. Barred from an athletic post at the College, Sand is nevertheless continuing his outside sports pursuits. He is presently employed by the Rochester Royals of the National Basketball Association as a scout. Though affiliated with the Royals, Sand affirmed that he was instrumental in Jerry Domenick’s draft by Milwaukee.

He steered Domenick to the Hawks due to the fact that the Royals have an overabundance of back-courtmen.

Got a Lucky Droodle in your noodle? Make up a Lucky Droodle and send it in and MAKE $25

Want to pick up $25? Make up a Lucky Droodle and send it in. It’s easy.

If you want to find out just how easy it is, ask Roger Price, creator of Droodles.

“Very! Price says. Better yet, do a Droodle yourself, like the ones shown here.

Droodle anything you like. And send in as many as you want. If we select yours, we’ll pay $25 for the right to use it, together with your name, in our advertising. We’re going to print plenty—and lots that we don’t print will earn $25 awards.

Draw your Droodles any size, on any piece of paper, and send them with your descriptive titles to Lucky Droodle, P. O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y. Be sure your name, address, college and class are included.

While you’re droodling, light up a Lucky—the cigarette that tastes better because it’s made of fine tobacco... and “It’s Toasted” to taste better.
