To Present UN Aid

Martin W. Wilmington, a United Nations technical assistant, will speak here Thursday afternoon at "UN Technical Assistance and Specialized Agencies." The address, sponsored by the International Economics Society, will be held in the Student-Faculty Lounge at 12:25.

Mr. Wilmington is a specialist in economic problems and rehabilitation techniques. His talk will include comment on the International Monetary Fund, the World Bank and UNESCO, and will deal primarily with means of promoting world economic development.

The economist received his master's degree from the University of Geneva, and spent last summer touring the Near East. He is at present working for the World Bank.

Small Quotas Promise More Student Deferments

Dr. Arthur Taft, Selective Service adviser at the Baruch School, announced that because of the lesser number of volunteer inductees, the reduced Selective Service calls, and the reduced Selective Service calls, the group may be reclassified 1-A, 2-S, or 1-D (C) when they report for induction.

Mr. Taft stated, "Those not expressing the desire to serve, for a 2-S classification will then be considered for a 1-D deferment. This classification is mandatory until the end of the school year, for students enrolled for a full time program. Those who do not qualify for either the 1-S or 2-S classification must be placed in category 1-A. The reduced Selective Service calls mean that there are far fewer students who are required to register for the draft, and that those who are required to register are required to be registered for a shorter period of time."

Employees to Interview Graduates On-Campus

The Sales Management Society has initiated a new method of obtaining employment for graduating seniors. A series of on-campus interviews by representatives of interested firms has been arranged with the cooperation of the Placement Office. Students who apply for such an interview will be excused from classes that day.

Offer Grads Combinations

In Tribute

City College has become a focal point of attention, and it is not just in the minds of the people, but in the minds of those who admire it. The people of the world have acclaimed its magnificence, and we are little people who echo that sentiment. In our broadcast studios, a host in a little pocket is thanking Dr. Sull, an undergraduate, the Lecturer's Assistant, for his efforts.

Run For Office

With the student government election season upon us, a number of students are putting forth their names for office as a means of expressing their personal opinions and to be an indicator of the previous position of our extracurricular programs. Robert Russell's name is being thrown about, which are dependent upon all for publications. A brief statement of the Kirkendol is administered by Council, yet few people seem interested in his value as they have protested against the fee raises.

The purpose for which the Student (Student Council) should be evident, to any student who has been present on the campus. The Student Council is designed to be an organization to represent the students in matters of concern. Without, it would be impossible to express the students' opinions and to be heard on campus. The Student Council is not only a forum for the exchange of ideas, but also a means to act on them.

A Minor Miracle

We are told that the next election will be held. Professor Sidran has this to offer:

"The One Fee Blues"

Dear Editor:

We have been receiving complaints regarding a dollar raise because of the increase of the cost of living. For this reason, we have decided to raise the fee for admission to the college. However, this is not so.

The increase is due to the cost of maintaining the facilities, and we have been forced to raise the fee to accommodate this increase. We are constantly trying to improve our facilities and to give the students the best possible education. We hope that the students will understand this and support our efforts.

Electoral Voting Defended

In his letter to the editor, the writer says that the electoral system is not working. However, I would like to point out that the electoral system is working perfectly.

The writer claims that the electoral system is not working because of the illegal votes. However, this is not the case. The electoral system ensures that every vote counts.

Tuesday, April 15,
City Nine to Meet Brooklyn After Losing Three in Row

City College's baseball team will attempt to break a three-game losing streak when it opposes Brooklyn College tomorrow afternoon at Babe Ruth Field.

The Beaver baseball fortunes during the Easter vacation were almost as bad as the weather that dogged the Metropolitan area throughout that time.

The Lavender bowed to Fordham and New York University during the holidays. These two losses, plus a defeat by Princeton on April 4, dampened the optimistic outlook that had arisen after City had won its first two contests of the season. The Beaver inter­national mark is now 8-13-2. They are in the Metropolitan Conference standings, tied for fourth place in the section, with three team loops.

City got away from homestand Columbia, N.Y., as anمريض in opener at Raine Field, Brooklyn Stadium, by a score of 7-3. This enabled Princeton to top City College, 6-4, at the victory field on April 4. The Tigers, making an early start, pitched a fine job for six innings before the Beavers clutched him in the decisive seventh.

On April 7, Fordham's baseball powerhouse edged outCCNY, the third victim of a winning streak which currently stands at six games. Bill Crowie blanked the Beavers on seven hit and nine walks.

The Lavender and Princeton tied for the two first two meetings in the game and led throughout. Raine Kelley tallied four goals, while Milt Perlow, who scored four times against Adelphi, and Steve Namm, scored three times each.

The team's morale is extremely high as they move to continue their winning ways against Stevens Tech of Hoboken, N.J., Saturday at Lewisohn Stadium.

Unbeaten Stickmen Roost Alumni, Blank Adelphi

City College's unbeaten lacrosse team roared to third victory when it trounced an Alumni team studded with All-Americans, 13-6, at Lewisohn Stadium Saturday.

Previously, on April 9, the stickmen racked up Adelphi 9-0, scoring the first Beaver shutout in 15 years. Sophomore, a replacement for regular goalie Ronnie Rieder, who was injured in the Ohio State game, did what no other City netman could do since 1942, when George Baron blanked Rensselaer's mark.

Baron and three other All-Americans appeared in the Alumni contest. The varsity scored in the first two minutes of the game and led throughout. Raine Kelley tallied four goals, while Milt Perlow, who scored four times against Adelphi, and Steve Namm, counted three times each.

The team's morale is extremely high as they move to continue their winning ways against Stevens Tech of Hoboken, N.J., Saturday at Lewisohn Stadium.

Racers Boost Mark to 2

The City College track team is second in the nation this season.

On April 2, the Beavers went to Long Island for the second time this season.
