College Parley Today; Cancel 12-4 Classes

By Eugene Heftman

"What are the responsibilities of the City College for developing values in thought and action?" is the topic under discussion today at the second All-College Conference.

For the remainder of the week, photographs will be taken of this year's Baruch School students and faculty, who will be suspended from 12 to 4 today, so that students and faculty members may share in the panel discussions. Everyone is invited to attend and to express his views.

For the remainder of the week, students will have the opportunity to select the ugliest male Baruchian from a ballot of entries that is the most gruesome in the world.

"Ugly" Baruchians Abundant in Final Week of Contest

Photos of this year's mutus horrors will be on display at the ninth floor booth where students will have an opportunity to vote for the candidate who evokes the most disgust in them. Those who wish to vote in the contest should place their ballots in the box with the candidate's picture. Proceeds of the drive, sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, will be turned over to the City College Community Chest.

Assemble and see a new Baruch School when the Fall semester opens in September, a special major insignium in appreciation of the University's School of Commerce, Accounts and Finance.

The appointment of Dr. Norton was an honor for the School, and the student body, but will now take on the distinction of being a farewell affair. The student body will present the guest of honor with an award on that occasion. Student Council last Friday, voted Dr. Norton a special major insignium in appreciation of his service over the past ten years.

Norton Statement

My decision to leave the Baruch School has been a difficult one to make. I have great affection for the School, its students and faculty, and I appreciate most sincerely the friendship and cooperation they have granted me.

However, after ten years as Dean, I feel it is time to allow a new man with new ideas to assume leadership. I believe a fresh approach to the problems and needs of the Baruch School will prove beneficial to its growth and development.

My successor will enjoy not only the satisfaction of seeing the new building rise but also the more significant pleasure of working with exceptionally fine men and women who have given their spirit and devotion as Dean to the Baruch School.

Dean Norton

Come the end of this semester, the Baruch School will have a new dean. Mr. Thomas Lowell Norton, Dartmouth College professor of international affairs, will take over the duties of the late Dean Edward P. Thomas. Mr. Norton, a man who has given devoted service to the school in a number of capacities, has decided to accept a position outside the College, thus bringing to a close Mr. Thomas' 10 years of service here.

Mr. Norton was born in New York City, the son of Mrs. Margaret T. Norton and the late Dr. Edward P. Thomas, Dean of the College. He was graduated from Duke University in 1927, and received his Ph.D. from Oxford University in 1930. His diplomatic career began in 1932, when he became a Foreign Service officer. He was serving in The Hague when the war broke out, and in 1940 he was transferred to the College, where he later became a member of the faculty. He is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and has been active in the affairs of the American Bar Association and the American Political Science Association. He is a member of the American Society for International Law and the American Philosophical Society. He is also a member of the New York Bar and the Washington Bar.

Mr. Norton's many contributions to the College, and his untiring efforts in behalf of the students, have made him a beloved figure on the campus. His knowledge of international affairs, his ability to communicate clearly and effectively, and his warm personality have won him the respect and admiration of all who know him. He is a man of great integrity, with a strong sense of justice, and an able administrator. His retirement from the College will be a great loss to the College, but his contributions will be long remembered and greatly appreciated.

Dean Thomas L. Norton

We have listened to Dean Norton many times over, for he has been a frequent speaker at the College. His lectures and talks have always been well-received, and have made a lasting impression on the students. His knowledge of international affairs, his ability to communicate clearly and effectively, and his warm personality have won him the respect and admiration of all who know him. His retirement from the College will be a great loss to the College, but his contributions will be long remembered and greatly appreciated.

Dean Resigning

Mr. Norton has decided to resign his position as Dean of the College, effective immediately. He has served with distinction in this capacity for many years, and his contributions to the College have been invaluable. He will continue to be associated with the College in some capacity, and will be available to provide advice and counsel as needed.

Lucia Resigns Fencing Position

Refuses Teaching Cut; Hits Prexy, Krakower; For 'Passing the Buck'

By Steve Mann

"I had hoped to spend the rest of my coaching career at City College. I wanted to use the fruits of my coaching years to establish City College as the center of fencing in the United States—that dream has disappeared," said fencing coach Edward Lucia in an exclusive interview with THE TICKER.

In a letter of resignation submitted to Dr. Hyman Krakower, Chairman of the Hygiene Department, Lucia stated that the Fall of 1954, when President Buell Gallagher's formula for an increased teaching load in the Hygiene Department went into effect, the Chairman of Hygiene cut my full teaching line to three-quarters of a line. In January of 1955, I was reduced to one-half normal teaching time.

"This drastic reduction has come great hardship to me and my family... I feel that the reduction from a full teaching line to a half teaching line is unjustified. I therefore tender my resignation as Lecturer, one-half time, and Coach of Fencing to take effect as of the end of the current term, June 30, 1955," Lucia told THE TICKER that he feels that both President Gallagher and Dr. Krakower are "passing the buck." "President Gallagher says it is the responsibility of the Hygiene Department to assign positions according to the number of lines in the Department," he continued.

"On the other hand, the chairman of the Hygiene Department blames the situation on President Gallagher's directive." In his letter of resignation Lucia discussed his record, at the College stating, "After two years of teaching hygiene and coaching varsity fencing, during which time my classroom instruction has been rated 'superior', the fencing team has become a power in intercollegiate competition. "The team has won individual and team titles, medals, trophies and plaques, in both Collegiate and Amateur Fencers League competition. This was accomplished despite a lack of adequate facilities and insufficient practice hours."

Last season the team had a 5-2 record losing only to Columbia and Yale. The epee and foil teams finished third in the Eastern Intercollegiate championships, while Beaver Aubrey Newman won the Individual Foils championships. Among Lucia's pupils is Al Axelrod, who placed second in the foils championships at the Pan-American Games, to Hal Goldsmith, another City grad.

This term, Lucia's salary, at a one-half line, was approximately increased teaching work in the Hygiene Department, went into effect, the Chairman of Hygiene cut my full teaching line to three-quarters of a line. In January of 1955, I was reduced to one-half normal teaching time.
