CORD WINS HIGHEST SC OFFICE
MANN COPS VICE-PRESIDENCY

Only Third of Vote
Cast Election Ballot

Robert L. Cord will assume the presidency of SC Council at the beginning of the fall semester. After last Wednesday's School-Wide elections, Cord proposed, his election being a mere formality. The race was won by one of the three executives.

The scarcity of candidates is responsible for the poor turnout of the polls. Approximately 32 percent of the eligible electorate, or 580 people, turned out for the election. This total was split among six student bodies and a faculty body to the voting poll.

In the only important contest for an executive position, Steve Maize will be president of the student body over Admistration-Barsch School of Business.

Seven Classes Elect New Council Members

The Lower Senior class elected Harold Halpern secretary. He ran unopposed on a slate which saw all other class offices vacated. A full list of officers were chosen by the Upper Juniors who gave the presidency to Florence Neumann, vice-president; Barbara Blank, president; and Stephen Seldhi, secretary; and Shirley Seldhi president, the other offices being filled by the only candidates: Lawrence Bloom, treasurer; and Stephen Seldhi, hackney, treasurer.

The Upper 27, the Lower Sophomore class, elected Barbara Daub presi­dent and Dorita Martinez vice­president, the other offices being vacant. The lower half of the class elected a complete slate of unopposed candidates: Lawrence Bloch, president; Bernard Breen­span, vice-president; Barbara Leventer, secretary; and Fred Dank, treasurer.

Alphon Robin won the presidency of the Lower Sophomore class and Harry Schaten took the vice­presidency. Both ran unopposed in a class in which all other offices had no candidates.

Senior Yearbook Available
To Graduates in Lexicon Office

Lexicon '55 is now available to graduating seniors in the Lexicon office, 227. All students entitled to a copy of the book are requested as possible.

In addition, seniors are urged to make payments for cap and gown rental immediately. These payments may also be made in the Lexicon office daily from 2-2.

The annual Senior Show will be held on Saturday evening, June 11th, in PET. The admission price will be three dollars per person and seniors may purchase a combination pass which entitles them to attend the show and the Nu­merical Dance on Wednesday evening, June 8th, for only five dollars. A second combination pass includes the rental of a cap and gown with admission to the two social events for nine dollars.

Prices for the individual events are listed in the Lexicon office, and on the Senior bulletin board on the ninth floor.

Wallach, Weiner Win
Cooperman Treasurer

Choosing of candidates to fill the positions of recording and corresponding secretary was marked by only one contest. Bob Cooperman upset Wally Nabor for the treasurer's post by 58 votes, 409 to 351.

Paul Wallach was the unopposed candidate for the office of corresponding secretary. His opponent Jerry Rabinow had been declared scholasticall­y eligible. Though he did not campaign actively, Wallach per­sisted in the campaign for the students and their activities, and a student poll.

Audrey Weiner ran under the corresponding secretary's qualifications platform. She has been a member of the Student Council in the past.

Hunger Pains

Student Council has done it again. Last Friday night's meeting adjourned after a full vote of no confidence in the President over the infamous 'Situation Wanted' column. The column, which in the last week has been the bane of every student's existence, has been a constant source of frustration and annoyance. As a result, the President has announced that all future columns will be completely eliminated, starting immediately.

"We have heard the voices of the students, and we have listened," President Johnson said. "We have seen the need for change, and we have acted." Johnson went on to say that the elimination of the column would allow for "more meaningful" and "more constructive" activities to be presented to the students.

Immediately after the meeting, the Council adjourned, and President Johnson announced that he would be meeting with the President of the Student Union to discuss the matter further.

Our Track Whizzes

Immediately after it had participated in the championship meet, Barnard M. Baruch Track Team headed for the Metropolitan Interscholastic and Field Conference at the Armory. Although they all knew it was going to be an uphill battle, everyone pushed their best and gave their all. The results were not what they had hoped, but the team took it all in stride and came away with some pride.

"It was a tough day," said Coach Bruce. "But we gave it our all, and that's all that matters. We'll come back stronger next year.

The team finished in 15th place, but everyone was proud of their effort. The following are the top performers of the day:

Stickmen Bow to Cadets; Final Mark Stands at 6-2

In its last lacrosse game of the season, City College was defeated by the Army 'B' team, 6-3, at West Point, Saturday. Despite this loss, Coach Leon "Chief" Miller's stickmen compiled their best mark in recent years, winning six out of eight games.

The Beavers were the chief culprits in a listless, sloppy contest. They had been averaging 10 goals per game but, Saturday, blew almost every scoring chance they had, nullifying their occasional fast breaks with inept passing. The 75 degree temperature was a major factor in the general incompetence. However, the superbly conditioned cadets were better equipped to withstand it and eventually ran the Lavender into the ground.

City really wanted to win this one but its only burst of energy came at the beginning of the game. The Beavers outplayed the cadets during that time and, at 7:28, Fred Hannaham gave them a 1-0 lead when he converted a pass from Co-Captain Ralph Kelly.

Army carried the attack to the visitors after that. The Black Knights tied the score at 2:12 of the second period on Dick Myers' goal and went ahead to stay two minutes later when Jim Hamilton fired in a rebound during a flurry in front of the City goal. Cadets Justin Lapedes and Ken Parker scored before the half was over to give Army a 4-1 edge at the 35 minute mark.

City outplayed the cadets in the second half, Co-Captain Milty Parlow culminating a fast break at 5:18 of the third quarter to cut the deficit to two goals. But the West Pointers held fast and won the game. City conceded 12 goals, seven in the second half.

City Athletes Cop Awards

Asbury Seeman, Eastern Inter-collegiate foil champion; Merryn Shorr holder of the all time City College hoop scoring record and Louis Berson, captain elect of the basketball team were among the many recipients of athletic awards presented at the Tenth Annual All-Sports night sponsored by the Alumni Varsity Association held at the Main gym last Thursday evening. Baruch students, Herb Jacobson (basketball), Tilden Halpern and Gerald Streicher (boxing) also received awards. The "45" Club presented Joseph Galletta, leading hurler of the baseball team their award for best exemplifying the spirit of sportsmanship in athletics.

Final Met Standing

In the Beavers' second game of the season against St. Johns, Wednesday at Babe Ruth Stadium, the Redmen racked up City for the second time this season, 12-7. Earlier in the year St. John's University took the loss for the Beavers, Galletta ended the year with a 5-3 record.

On May 16, Coach John Place three Galletta against St. John's, only one day's rest. The Beavers reached 7-10 overall record, ending the season with a disappointing 7-10 overall record. The Beavers dropped a close game to the Lavender 4-3, at Van Cortlandt Stadium. The Jaspers tallied twice in the last half of the ninth to pull out the victory. John McCarron was the winning pitcher for Manhattan, and Joe Galletta took the loss for the Beavers. Galletta ended the year with a 5-3 record.

Friday, at West Point, the Beavers bowed to the Cadets, 6-4. Army tallied five times in the seventh to break a 4-4 tie.

The City College baseball team ended its season Sunday with a disappointing 7-10 overall record. The Beavers compiled a 5-7 mark in the Metropolitan Conference in fifth place, four games behind the Conference winners St. John's University.
