Grant College Large Bequest

The Baruch School has received $300,000 from the residuary estate of Morton Wollman to create the "Morton Wollman Foundation," it was announced by President Gallagher. According to the terms of the agreement, the money will be invested in various undertakings, and the interest obtained from these investments will be used for the following purposes:

- "To establish and maintain a chair or professorship...." for the teaching of business and commerce.
- To establish and maintain a department for research work with reference to commerce and business.
- To give prizes to persons for achievements in the field of commerce or to enable worthy students to study commerce and business at the Baruch School.
- To found and maintain a scholarship program to enable worthy students to study commerce and business at the Baruch School.

Mr. Wollman, who died on July 11, 1924, stipulated in his will that a "Residuary Fund" be established, and that all income from the fund should be devoted to the advancement of the science of commerce and business. The Board, however, authorized its chairman to ask city authorities to place funds in the fund for the purpose of achieving the aims of the will.

Holman, Team Starred At Annual 'NYU' Rally

By Steve Mann

It's sports time again at Pauline Edwards Theatre, Thursday, when City College basketball fans and fanatics stage the annual Beat NYU Rally.

Bud Palmer, ace WPIX sportscaster, will MC the Rally, introducing Nat Holman, who leads the basketball team to the gathered throng. Palmer sparked Princeton University and the New York Knicks. Holman with jump shots before he turned from the basketball lanes to the airwaves.

Now a traditional affair at the Baruch School, the Bev NYU Rally has introduced such basketball notables as Max Sklifosky and Carl Braun to cheering Baruchians. Bert Lee, Jr., and Marty Glickman, WPIX--time WMGM broadcasters, have previously led the rally.

The rally, in addition to providing entertainment, has generated tremendous enthusiasm. In fact, one observer, sportscaster Bert Lee, Jr., has cited City College spirit, especially that of the 45 Club, as "the best in the metropolitan area.

The traditional event came between the Violets and the Beavers will take place at the Fordham gym Wednesday evening, February 22. The Cherry Tree Day festival.

The Supreme Court's decision on school desegregation has been a topic of much debate. The decision, which allows for the implementation of court-ordered desegregation plans, has been widely criticized by those who believe it is a violation of the Constitution. However, many believe that the decision is necessary to ensure the fair treatment of all students and to promote equality in education.

In other news, the National Student Association (NSA) has announced the selection of a new president. The NSA is a national organization that advocates for the rights of students and works to promote education and social justice. The new president will be responsible for leading the organization and advocating for student issues on the national stage.

Student Council Committees

Increasingly, student council committees are being established at colleges and universities to provide students with a voice in decision-making processes. These committees allow students to participate in the governance of their institutions and ensure that student concerns are addressed.

Dear Editor,

I am writing to express my concern about the lack of attention being paid to the issue of student safety on campus. As a student, I feel that it is important to have a safe and secure environment to learn and grow. I believe that the student council should be more proactive in addressing this issue.

Sincerely,

Brooklyn Blasts City, 92-70; CCNY Slated To Face Rams

There is no joy at City College—the once mighty Beavers have lost again.

The Brooklyn College basketball team, once a perennial floor mat for the powerful Beavers, established its current supremacy, Friday evening over the City cagers by handing them their eleventh loss of the season, 92-70. The Beavers suffered additional humiliation last Tuesday night when Hunter topped them, 72-70, at the Hawks' gym.

In the Friday night encounter against the Kingsmen, Coach Nat Holman, who has used a different starting lineup in the last several games, to no avail, started with Sid Levy at center, Ralph Schefflan and George Jensen as forwards, and Joe Barrasso and Stan Friedman as guards. This combination worked out well for about 11 minutes of the first half. Then things began to happen.

Levy, who picked up three personal fouls in the first few minutes, was benched and saw limited action for the rest of the evening. With the score, 25-24, in favor of Brooklyn, and eight minutes to go in the first half, the Kingsmen went off on a 15-point tear while City picked up only six.

By halftime, the Brooklynites commanded a 49-38 advantage and, with slight effort, coasted to their 22-point victory margin.

The Hunter game saw Coach Nat Holman's lineup changes prove effective for three quarters of the game. Big Bob Silver's injury with six minutes gone in the second half, a mix-up at the scorers table in regard to Hunter timeouts, and some deadly shooting by Ira Schwartz, who scored 18-15 points, led the Hawks to a six point lead with just four minutes remaining.

Hunter jumped off to a quick 15-6 lead, but a twelve point rally, sparked by Silver, Ralph Schefflan, and Richie Garber, gave City an 18-15 lead. The lead was cut to three points by Ira Schwartz, who scored 31 points, a Hunter record, put the Hawks ahead at half-time by 33-26.

But to no avail: Richie Garber of City College scored on a jump-shot in the first half of the City-Hunter game last Tuesday night at the Hunter gym. The Beavers lost, 72-70.

Rose Hill will be the scene of a first-rate skirmish Thursday, when the Beaver basketeers attempt to thwart a Fordham Ram uprising. The Rams are 6-11 on the season, but they are coming along strongly.

Last year's game was won by the Rose Hill Mob, 78-59, when Ed Conlin scored 23 to pace the Maroon and Gray. Fordham is hot! They recently upset La Salle, 84-68, and there is a possibility that they might receive an invite from the NIT, despite their poor record. Fordham still has to play Seton Hall and Duquesne, both of which have accepted bids from the Garden tourney.

Fordham's team is built around three starting scorers with Jimmy Lyons and Bob Reese, captain of the squad, rounding out the starting five. The sophomores are Bill McDaid and John Haynes, and highly-touted Jim Cunningham. Haynes, however, has been sitting on the sidelines for the last few games and his place has been taken in the starting lineup by Ed Bugnieta.

Cunningham had been one of the most talked about performers in the city, but hasn't quite fulfilled his promise, although he is a dangerous scoring threat at 6-5. Coach Johnny Bozart stated, "In the last five or six games Bob Reese has been a leader on the floor, not just the fellow who meets the officials. He's been leading our defense, passing nicely, scoring and keeping the club steady.
