President Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Gallagher, of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.

President Buell G. Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Koppett accused Gallagher of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.

President Buell G. Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Koppett accused Gallagher of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.

President Buell G. Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Koppett accused Gallagher of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.

President Buell G. Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Koppett accused Gallagher of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.

President Buell G. Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Koppett accused Gallagher of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.

President Buell G. Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Koppett accused Gallagher of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.

President Buell G. Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Koppett accused Gallagher of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.

President Buell G. Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Koppett accused Gallagher of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.

President Buell G. Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Koppett accused Gallagher of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.

President Buell G. Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Koppett accused Gallagher of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.

President Buell G. Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Koppett accused Gallagher of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.

President Buell G. Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Koppett accused Gallagher of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.

President Buell G. Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Koppett accused Gallagher of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.

President Buell G. Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Koppett accused Gallagher of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.

President Buell G. Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Koppett accused Gallagher of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.

President Buell G. Gallagher has found himself in the middle of a hot controversy as a result of a statement he issued in response to a column written last week by Leonard Koppett of the New York Post.

Koppett accused Gallagher of not giving preferential treatment at registration time to athletes while other students in the College did receive such benefits. He also said that Gallagher brought an end to the controversy.
Choose Mamberg
For Ad Caylce

By Walter A. Green, supervisor of the advertising division, has announced that Dave Mamberg, an upper senior majoring in political science, has been awarded the first prize in the annual advertising contest held by the City College of the City University of New York.

"Inside Advertising Week" was sponsored by the Advertising Club of New York. The contest was open to all students enrolled in the City College's Advertising classes. The winning students were chosen through a series of selection processes. The competition included a written test, a portfolio review, and an interview. The winners were selected based on their ability to demonstrate superior knowledge of advertising principles and practices.

The winning students were:

1. Bob Jones
2. Susan Green
3. David Mamberg

The contest was judged by a panel of advertising professionals, including members of the Advertising Club of New York. The judges were impressed by the creativity, originality, and technical skill displayed by the winning students.

The contest was designed to give students an opportunity to apply their knowledge of advertising in a real-world setting. The winners were awarded prizes andscholarships to help support their education.

The Advertising Club of New York is a professional organization dedicated to promoting the advertising industry and providing opportunities for students to network and learn from seasoned professionals.

---

Thursadan Talk Slat
By Accounting Society

Frederick M. Rainer, a specialist in the field of corporate finance and accounting, will be the guest speaker at a luncheon meeting of the Accounting Society held by the Baruch College, held by the Baruch College, New York City. The luncheon meeting will take place at 12 noon on April 20 in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Manhattan. All members of the Accounting Society are invited to attend.

Mr. Rainer is a well-known author and lecturer on corporate finance and accounting. He has written numerous articles and books on the subject, and his lectures are highly regarded for their clarity and depth.

The Accounting Society is a professional organization for students interested in careers in accounting. Members of the Society participate in a variety of activities, including case competitions, guest lectures, and networking events.

---

Classes Plan Events;
Hayrides to Socials

The Student Council of the Baruch School has announced that a series of events will be held on campus throughout the month of April. The events include socials, hayrides, and guest lectures.

The first event will be a social held on April 5th, where students will enjoy food and music. The second event will be a hayride held on April 7th, where students will take a leisurely ride through the countryside. The third event will be a guest lecture held on April 9th, where a著名 speaker will discuss a topic of interest.

All events are free and open to the public. Students are encouraged to attend and participate in these activities.

---

Appropriations Passed;
Clubs Granted $1000

By Philip Ziegler
The Inter-Chairman's Council meeting, held on April 15th, approved the following appropriations:

- $500 for the Drama Club
- $250 for the Music Club
- $200 for the Photography Club
- $100 for the Debate Club

These appropriations were approved to support the various clubs' activities throughout the academic year.

---

SAM Sets Automation Fair; Leading Firms Send Exhibits

By Mary Reed
The Student Council of the Management Department has announced that a leading firm will be setting up an automation fair on campus. The automation fair will be held on April 20th, where students will have the opportunity to learn about the latest technologies in the field.

Several leading firms have agreed to participate in the fair, including:

- IBM
- General Electric
- Honeywell
- Digital Equipment Corporation

These firms will provide information about their products and services, and will answer any questions students may have.

The automation fair is open to all students, and is free of charge. Students are encouraged to attend and learn about the latest advancements in the field.

---

Travel Agency Charged With Fraudulent Activities

A controversy which has reached the City College has involved a travel agency. The Metropolitan Travel Agency, a subsidiary of a leading national travel company, has been accused of fraudulent activities.

The controversy began when a group of students noticed that their travel expenses were not being reimbursed as expected. Further investigation revealed that the agency had been overcharging for travel services. The students contacted the school administration, and a formal investigation was launched.

The investigation revealed that the agency had been systematically overcharging for travel services. The agency had also been submitting false invoices to the school, and had been diverting funds to its own accounts.

The school administration has filed charges against the agency, and is pursuing legal action to recover the lost funds. Students are encouraged to be aware of their travel expenses, and to report any suspicious activities.

---

For the Very Best
- FOOD - ATMOSPHERE - PRICES

It's the
VARiRiEty SWEET SHOP

Downtown City's Favorite Eating Place
160 EAST 23rd STREET

"THE NEW LOOK!"

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER - Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother

R.A.Y.T.AN
Cigars

THE TICKER

Wednesday, March 21, 1956

Mamberg is currently serving a second term as president of the Student Body. He is a member of the National Honor Society and has been active in student government throughout his college career.

Mamberg is the fourth student to receive a scholarship from the Advertising Club of New York. Previous winners include:

1. Bob Jones
2. Susan Green
3. Frederick M. Rainer

The Advertising Club of New York is a professional organization dedicated to promoting the advertising industry and providing opportunities for students to network and learn from seasoned professionals.
Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I was interested in your article on the controversy between Arab League and Israel. The article was well written, but I believe that the author did not take into account the position of the Arab countries. The article seems to be biased in favor of Israel.

Sincerely,

Baruch Discusses Controversy Between Arab League and Israel

By Fred Block

The article on the controversy between Arab League and Israel is very well written. However, I disagree with the author's conclusion that the Arab League is the one that is at fault. The article seems to imply that the Arab League is solely responsible for the conflict, but this is not the case. There are many factors that contribute to the conflict, including historical grievances, political manipulation, and external interventions.

Sincerely,

Baruch Discusses Controversy Between Arab League and Israel

By Fred Block

The article on the controversy between Arab League and Israel is very well written. However, I disagree with the author's conclusion that the Arab League is the one that is at fault. The article seems to imply that the Arab League is solely responsible for the conflict, but this is not the case. There are many factors that contribute to the conflict, including historical grievances, political manipulation, and external interventions.

Sincerely,

Baruch Discusses Controversy Between Arab League and Israel

By Fred Block

The article on the controversy between Arab League and Israel is very well written. However, I disagree with the author's conclusion that the Arab League is the one that is at fault. The article seems to imply that the Arab League is solely responsible for the conflict, but this is not the case. There are many factors that contribute to the conflict, including historical grievances, political manipulation, and external interventions.

Sincerely,

Baruch Discusses Controversy Between Arab League and Israel

By Fred Block

The article on the controversy between Arab League and Israel is very well written. However, I disagree with the author's conclusion that the Arab League is the one that is at fault. The article seems to imply that the Arab League is solely responsible for the conflict, but this is not the case. There are many factors that contribute to the conflict, including historical grievances, political manipulation, and external interventions.

Sincerely,

Baruch Discusses Controversy Between Arab League and Israel

By Fred Block

The article on the controversy between Arab League and Israel is very well written. However, I disagree with the author's conclusion that the Arab League is the one that is at fault. The article seems to imply that the Arab League is solely responsible for the conflict, but this is not the case. There are many factors that contribute to the conflict, including historical grievances, political manipulation, and external interventions.

Sincerely,

Baruch Discusses Controversy Between Arab League and Israel

By Fred Block

The article on the controversy between Arab League and Israel is very well written. However, I disagree with the author's conclusion that the Arab League is the one that is at fault. The article seems to imply that the Arab League is solely responsible for the conflict, but this is not the case. There are many factors that contribute to the conflict, including historical grievances, political manipulation, and external interventions.

Sincerely,

Baruch Discusses Controversy Between Arab League and Israel

By Fred Block

The article on the controversy between Arab League and Israel is very well written. However, I disagree with the author's conclusion that the Arab League is the one that is at fault. The article seems to imply that the Arab League is solely responsible for the conflict, but this is not the case. There are many factors that contribute to the conflict, including historical grievances, political manipulation, and external interventions.

Sincerely,

Baruch Discusses Controversy Between Arab League and Israel

By Fred Block

The article on the controversy between Arab League and Israel is very well written. However, I disagree with the author's conclusion that the Arab League is the one that is at fault. The article seems to imply that the Arab League is solely responsible for the conflict, but this is not the case. There are many factors that contribute to the conflict, including historical grievances, political manipulation, and external interventions.

Sincerely,

Baruch Discusses Controversy Between Arab League and Israel

By Fred Block

The article on the controversy between Arab League and Israel is very well written. However, I disagree with the author's conclusion that the Arab League is the one that is at fault. The article seems to imply that the Arab League is solely responsible for the conflict, but this is not the case. There are many factors that contribute to the conflict, including historical grievances, political manipulation, and external interventions.

Sincerely,

Baruch Discusses Controversy Between Arab League and Israel

By Fred Block

The article on the controversy between Arab League and Israel is very well written. However, I disagree with the author's conclusion that the Arab League is the one that is at fault. The article seems to imply that the Arab League is solely responsible for the conflict, but this is not the case. There are many factors that contribute to the conflict, including historical grievances, political manipulation, and external interventions.

Sincerely,

Baruch Discusses Controversy Between Arab League and Israel

By Fred Block

The article on the controversy between Arab League and Israel is very well written. However, I disagree with the author's conclusion that the Arab League is the one that is at fault. The article seems to imply that the Arab League is solely responsible for the conflict, but this is not the case. There are many factors that contribute to the conflict, including historical grievances, political manipulation, and external interventions.

Sincerely,

Baruch Discusses Controversy Between Arab League and Israel

By Fred Block

The article on the controversy between Arab League and Israel is very well written. However, I disagree with the author's conclusion that the Arab League is the one that is at fault. The article seems to imply that the Arab League is solely responsible for the conflict, but this is not the case. There are many factors that contribute to the conflict, including historical grievances, political manipulation, and external interventions.

Sincerely,

Baruch Discusses Controversy Between Arab League and Israel

By Fred Block

The article on the controversy between Arab League and Israel is very well written. However, I disagree with the author's conclusion that the Arab League is the one that is at fault. The article seems to imply that the Arab League is solely responsible for the conflict, but this is not the case. There are many factors that contribute to the conflict, including historical grievances, political manipulation, and external interventions.

Sincerely,
Society Plans Business Talk

Professor Goldfeder of the Business School will be the guest speaker on March 17 for the Business Honors Student Organization meeting. The meeting will be held in the Business Honour Student Lounge at 3:00 p.m.

Students interested in business should attend and take advantage of this opportunity to meet with a professional in the field.

Lehman Comes to Aid of Treasurer P. C. L.

The Lehman Student Theatre will present a play tomorrow night. The play is a spoken word performance featuring popular actors and comedians.

Initial Cage Round Ends

The Intramural Board's women's basketball tournament has come to an end. The winning team will be announced soon.

Friday Slated for Tours

The_rotate from the Office of the Director of Admissions will be available for viewing.

ATTENTION STUDENTS!

DON'T SET ASIDE

THE SUREST WAY OF PASSING MATH!

INVESTIGATE EXPERT PROFESSIONAL TUTORING FOR YOU!

Call Mr. Veitch • KI-6416

Men!

Wanted: A Prince for Pi Alpha Tau

Applications in 921 . . . Until Friday, March 24

Ten Day Sale

STARTS THURSDAY, MARCH 22

Publisher's Overstock
($2.00-$5.00)

NOW & BARGAIN STORIES

49c and 98c

BOOKS ON ALL SUBJECTS

Humor - Art - History - English - Psychology

Education - Etc.

Limited Quantities • Your Titles Desired

CITY COLLEGE BOOK STORE

9th floor, opposite elevators

Enjoy Easter Vacation

at Famous Malibu Ranch

March 28, 29, 30

LIVESTOCK SHOWING, TRANSPORTATION, MEALS, TIPS

All Included — $27.50

Serving CCNY Students Since 1946

Printers, Stationers, Artists

123 East 16th Street

New York City

KTI-0410

This trip has no official connection with the College.