Survey Shows Lack of Spirit

By Wallace S. Nathan

The White Plains Community Theatre has conducted its 2nd annual survey of community theatre. The survey shows a trend toward increased interest in community theatre and a decrease in the number of people who have attended shows in recent years.

The survey, conducted by The New York Times to determine the attitudes of the community theatre audience, shows that the majority of the audience is composed of people over 50. This trend is consistent with the national trend, which shows that the percentage of people over 50 who attend community theatre is increasing.

The survey also shows that the majority of the audience is composed of people who have attended community theatre in the past. This trend is consistent with the national trend, which shows that the percentage of people who have attended community theatre in the past is increasing.

City Sinks Aggies; Worstl Boots Two
By Ron Cooper
Paced by Wolfgang Worstl, the City College soccer team beat Long Island Agricultural College Saturday at Lewisohn Stadium and its victory is the Lavender's fourth straight as against no defeats.

Worstl was high scorer with two goals, but more important is the fact that Novak Masonovich came one goal nearer to the Metropolitan Soccer League scoring record. He has two this season and is within two goals of tying Johnny Koutsantinou's record of twelve, set in 1954.

Playing over-powering soccer, the Beavers scored in every quarter but the last, and kept the Aggie offense off balance with fine footwork, that City College攻撃men had to make only four saves during the entire game.

Not a team to be kept scoreless for long, City opened the second quarter with Novak Masonovich booting the net from ten yards out. Showing more spirit than talent, the Aggies were unable to retaliate and Karlinmen from further scoring in this period.

Not a team to be kept scoreless for long, City opened the second quarter with Novak Masonovich scoring the first goal on lightning fast play started by Danny McElrain and Worstl, who each were credited with assists.

Hamilton, Parsons Collide
With the score 2-0, Horace Hamilton, the Aggie's star center-forward, suffered a possible skull concussion when he collided with City's Johnny Paranov as the two tried to "head" a pass. Parsons excepted unsketched, excepting for a headache.

Without its star, the Aggie offense fell flat.

Soccermen Slated to Face Army, Brooklyn
In Revenge Tussles Tomorrow, Saturday
The United States Military Academy will play host to the City College soccer team tomorrow at West Point, New York, The Knights will be trying to avenge last year's defeat to the Lavender, when for the first time since 1949, a soccer team bested Army on its home ground.

The Beavers will also face Brooklyn College this week. A Saturday contest will take place at the Kingsmen's home field. Last week, the Lavender subdued Brooklyn in a tense overtime game, 2-1.

TICKETS
Tickets are still available for the March Five Club's traditional Garden City, Long Island, November 9 to see the City College soccer team play Adelphi. Gary Strum, president of the club, has announced that a piecemeal fare at the temple of Play will follow the game. The box office opens at 7:00 p.m. Ticket prices are $3 available in 211B.

Wolfe Calls for Candidates For Frosh, Baruch Teams
George Wolfe, coach of the freshman and Baruch basketball teams, has issued a call for candidates for both teams.

Tryouts for the frosh squad will be conducted Friday afternoon at the golf course. The Beavers are unhappy because very few Baruchians have come out for the novice squad, so far. He says that the Baruch School usually supplies its own team and he expects to see some frosh at the next practice.

No captain has been selected for the team, as yet. Wolfe will pick that captain after two weeks, when he'll know more or less, how his team will shape up.

Wolfe took over the reins as coach of the frosh squad when Dave Polansky was moved up to coach the varsity cagers after Nat Holman took a sabatical leave.

The fresmen team will play the same teams as the varsity with games starting at 6:30.

The Baruch team is practicing Tuesday, Thursday and Fridays. Yustin Sirutis acts as faculty advisor Tuesdays while Wolfe conducts frosh practice Friday. Yustin Sirutis practices with the varsity team, works the Beavers with the team at Uptown. Wednesdays, the team practices on its own, Wolfe works with the team at Uptown. During 2:00, on Fridays.

No captain for the Baruch team has been selected. Neither Mike Gomshay, last year's captain, is trying out for the varsity.

Masonovich Predicts Win In West Point Encounter
Novak Masonovich, a senior majoring in Econ and described by those who know him as "a great guy, displaying his ability and sportsmanship on the field, came into the limelight.

Well on his way toward the Metropolitan Soccer League scoring record, that sets his goals set by Johnny Koutsantinou in 1954, Masonovich has announced that Novak will try for the Baruch team, including this season. Masonovich has announced that Novak will try for the Baruch team, including this season. Novak and teammate Randy Crossfield have stated that a trip to West Point, Saturday, October 21, means a lot to them.

All male students are invited to try for the Baruch team, including freshmen.

Masonovich began his soccer career at the Gerard School, a boarding institution in Pennsylvania where soccer was emphasized. After playing high school and college soccer, Masonovich was shifted to fullback to bolster the defense and Tony Peloze, goal.
