Seven Baruchians Elected to Collegiate 'Who's Who'

Eleven Baruch School students will be listed in the edition of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities," now indexed in the College Department of Student Life. The five upper seniors named are Bob Becker, Dalitch, Paula Goodman, Frank Behrens, and Saul Sofsky, and the lower seniors listed are Jerome Grossman, Harvey Isaacs, Donald Jacobson, and Steve Sorkin. The six lower seniors are: Frank Behrens, Saul Sofsky, Jerome Grossman, Harvey Isaacs, Donald Jacobson, and Steve Sorkin.

CCNY Report Surveys Migration of Industries

By Morton J. Horwitz

A City College report issued last week asserted that public and private agencies in New York have not been successful enough to "sell" the city as an industrial center and prevent the migration of factories from New York. The report, based on a three-year survey of location problems, was issued as the first of a series of seventeen reports on metropolitan problems by the College's New York Area Research Council. The research was headed by Professor Oscar I. Janowitz, head of the Division of Graduate Studies in the College of Liberal Arts and Science, and is printed. Major location problems, according to the report, are: space, labor, the availability of government programs, and the ability to provide a "well-rounded lifestyle" for employees.

Mercury" Labeled Vulgar By Publications Committee

The Advisory Committee on College Publications, a board established to regulate the "Mercury," has condemned the last four issues of the humor magazine as "full and unfettered, in the extreme, interspersed with vulgarity to common decency and good taste, and frequently pornographic."

The Committee also recommended that the College's authorities "consider the possibility of appealing to them to afford opportunity to any persons who may wish to continue the standards and performance of the Mercury to do so." The Committee believes that the burden of proof rests with those who wish to continue the Mercury, which appears only to bring discredit on the College and to the staff of the publication.

Dr. Buel G. Gallagher, president of City College, stated that he is "substantially in agreement with the opinion of the Advisory Committee."

Frank Behrens and Saul Sofsky, student editors of the Mercury, are preparing a prepared statement, objecting to the "ill-considered use of such sweeping terms and expressions as 'decency and good taste' and pornography and obscenity.

Name Becker Chairman of ICB; Medoff Gets Second Top Post

Bob Becker, a lower senior majoring in Accounting, was elected chairman of the Interfraternity Council, and Bernard Medoff, vice-chairman; and Georige DeLuca, secretary; and Steve Sorkin, treasurer. Becker served this semester as ICB's vice-chairman. Recently elected to the "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities," Becker has been active in Alpha Phi Omega, as business manager of the TICKER, and on the Student Council. He is also a member of Beta Gamma Sigma, national honor society for business students and Sigma Alpha, undergraduate honor or service society.

Salk Polio Shots Program

Students who have submitted the proper application cards to the medical office will take the third injection of Salk polio vaccine during the week of January 21.

Schedule Polio Shots Program

Students who have submitted the proper application cards to the medical office will take their first injection of Salk polio vaccine during the week of February 22 and October 14, respectively.

The first annual Winter Carnival at the Baruch School will take place from January 20 to 22 at the Red Barn, South Egremont, Massachusetts. The cost $2.50 per person includes meals, transportation, rooms, and accommodations.

Winter Carnival Set for Intersession

Winter Carnival Set for Intersession

The Carnival will receive bottles of champagne, trophies, and full refunds of their money. A talent show will be held with winners getting prizes of $25. Snow sleigh riding, snow sculpturing, skating, and tobogganing will be on the program. The Carnival will run from January 20 to 22 at the Red Barn, South Egremont, Massachusetts. The cost $2.50 per person includes meals, transportation, rooms, and accommodations.

Activities

A dollar of the cost required can be paid in advance, this year, at the fifth floor booth, where snow sleigh riding, snow sculpturing, skating, and tobogganing will be on the program.

Rosenberg

Rosenberg has interviewed accommodation, reservations early. Ice skating and tobogganing will be available free of charge, while skis and boots will be provided for an extra charge. Skiing instruction will be given at the ski tow, two kilometers of beers, and outstanding bands for the dances.

Ski Area Nearby

For an hour before each dinner meal, a "Happy Hour" will be held, with guests getting cups filled with Sran, snow sleighing, skating, and tobogganing. This will be made possible through the use of a snow machine at a nearby ski area. Buses will leave from the School at 5 p.m. for the party, morning, January 20.
Brooklyn Law School

New Term Commences February 6, 1957

for USED and NEW TEXTBOOKS

from the Office of the Director of Admissions

EVENING

Approved by

Brian li School

Barnes & Noble

23rd St. opp. CGNY

"Walk up and Save"

Bar Inn Leaders Society
Sets Interim Session Party

Brooklyn Law School

The Ticker

Congratulations

Herb Nager

Rochelle Harris

Engagement

Bar Inn Leaders Society
Sets Interim Session Party

BROOKLYN LAW SCHOOL

THE TICKET

INTERSESSION VACATION AT STUDENT PRICES

47 Full Days

10 Fun Filled Nights

AM

10 Fun Filled Nights

PM

$151.80

$131.80

BROOKLYN LAW SCHOOL

375 PEARL ST., BROOKLYN 1, N. Y.

Telephone: MA-3700

BROOKLYN LAW SCHOOL

375 PEARL ST., BROOKLYN 1, N. Y.

Telephone: MA-3700
To the Editor:

I trust that the Editor of THE TICKER realizes the importance of adhering to the deadline for the submission of the various organizations on the Board on the deadline for the submission of the various organizations on the Board.

I was disturbed to learn that the Editor of THE TICKER has not adhered to the deadline for the submission of the various organizations on the Board.

Sincerely,
[Signature]

P.S. I hope that the Editor of THE TICKER will take my concerns into consideration.
Graduates of City Invade Television

A survey of the television field reveals that City College has produced the largest batch of newsmen of any similar institution. The large number of graduates is the result of a number of factors:

1. The College's two-year program of Journalism has been highly successful.
2. The College's placement service has been very effective in finding jobs for its graduates.
3. The College's Journalism Department has a good reputation among the television industry.

The graduating class of 1957 included a number of prominent television personalities, including...

The Ticker Cooperates

Three Scary Songs

Jerry Groenberg

Steve Mann

Wally Nathan

On Winning Major Audition Awards

And being elected to "Who's Who"

THE TICKEBERGURRAPHY

OF THE CITY COLLEGE STUDENTS

NATHAN'S

DELICATESSEN AND RESTAURANT

MODERATE PRICES

100 EAST 23rd ST., N.Y.

Open till 12 P.M.

For the Very Best in

FOOD

- AT HOME OR OFFICE -

PRICES

IT'S THE VARSITY

SWEET SHOP

DOMINION CITY

FROZEN CUSTARD

100 EAST 23rd STREET

"THE NEW LOOK"

THE TICKER

MURCHY...

Time Table

Student Government

Main Office: Room 2-36

Mondays at 11:30 in Main Office

Music Hall, Thursdays, 1:45 Union

Wednesday, January 3, 1957

Stew's Views

Twenty-nine.

Not Quite

By Stewart Hambrook

If you get an idea for a play and it sounds promising to you, be sure to write it down. Even if it's not a great idea, it can be improved. The more you modify the idea, the better it becomes. Always keep your eyes open for new ideas and never give up on one until you've tried everything possible to make it work. You never know what might come out of your head when you least expect it.

Barnes & Noble, Inc.

23rd Street, Opp. CCNY—Albany the Drug Store

We pay top prices for books by current demand. Bring them in NOW before they depreciate their value.

NIEMROS STRUGGLING NOW

To Second Half of Season

Under its new coach, Sergeant Bernard Kelly, the City College College is taking on a new look as it prepares for the basketball season. The team recently won its first game of the season against the University of North Carolina, and is now preparing for several upcoming matches.

THE TICKER
City Must Be ‘Up’ For Dickinson Tilt

Coach Dave Polansky's Dickinson basketball team will meet Fairleigh Dickinson University Friday night in Wingate Hall, Up. The starting five from last year's team will have to prove themselves from the first shot. The Dragons averaged 70-73, and the Red Devils will have to be “up” for the game.

Before the holiday vacation, the Lavender met two teams from the vocational colleges, Adelphi and Brooklyn. These games were supposed to be tests. The Beavers crossed both sides and started looking forward to a bright future. They had beaten Queens and Hunter Colleges and knew that a victory over Brooklyn College would be comparatively easy. But Brooklyn was ready for the Beavers. They were wanting for the City game and defeated the Lavender quite handily, 80-73.

The Beavers, in four games, beat Brooklyn College would be comparatively easy, since Hunter had scored 80, 82, and 83 points against the Kingsmen. Brooklyn's star operators would be lost for the City clash, Hank Smit, 6-5 center, and Dave Budin, 6-1, forward.

But Brooklyn was ready for the Beavers. They were wanting for the City game and defeated the Lavender quite handily, 80-73. The Beavers are holding practice on a six months stretch.

The Beavers copped both tilts that a victory over Schefflan and Joe Bennardo at Brooklyn College this year. American University was its last victim, 91-86.

For the City game and defeated the Lavender quite handily, 80-73. The Beavers are holding practice on a six months stretch.

The Beavers copped both tilts that a victory over Schefflan and Joe Bennardo at Brooklyn College this year. American University was its last victim, 91-86.

Prior to joining the varsity basketball team, Dr. Robert Headerson, in his new role, will focus on improving the team's defensive strategies and enhancing overall performance. His contributions are expected to be instrumental in achieving the team's goals.

Robert Headerson

Student-Faculty Hassle Set For Gymnasium Tomorrow

Any basketballs you hear banging off the walls of THE TICKER office or the Intramural Board office are only practice shots being taken by the various students preparing for the Student-Faculty game tomorrow in Hansen Hall at 1:30.

The students will be short on height this year. Tallest players are Harvey Isaac, 6-1, and Shelly Brand, 6-0. Others on the squad are Jerry Greenberg, Stew Kampelmacher, Richie Kwassert, Steve Mann, Lou Rose and Sam Schiff. Kwassert and Mann are the co-captains.

For the faculty, Sam Theodore, Jerry Blood Klot, Dr. Hurry-up Henderson, Yustom Slap 'em Down' Strutis, and Andrew 'Lollie-Pop' Lavender, have accepted invitations, so far. Marv Rose and Syd Levy, both of the varsity basketball team, will also play.

The faculty has won the last six encounters. Last year's score was 62-46. Jerry Klot was awarded a trophy for his outstanding ability and spirit. The year before the faculty defeated the students 56-67. Klot was the difference in the game, too, scoring fifteen points.

Steve Mann says "This year will be different. We know Klot likes to play 'hanger' so we're going to station one of our men on him, and keep him busy throughout the game."

"If that doesn't work," Kwassert says, "we'll put two men on Klot. The back of the rest of the team. They're no good anyway."

The faculty says "We'll show those students we haven't been taking Geritol for nothing. We're gonna win."

The students reply to this charge: "Pure rumor, pure rumor, that's all."

CCNY Wrestler

Entin Knows Judo, Speaks Japanese

Speak Japanese? Leon Entin does. "Lewy, judo I am," Entin says. Who is Entin? You say you've never heard of him? It's quite possible that you've never even seen his name before, but you probably will be hearing a lot about him from now on.

Leon Entin, the only Baruch School student on the wrestling team, grapples in the heavyweight division. Standing 6-1\(\frac{1}{4}\) and weighing 198 pounds, Entin is probably one of the strongest men in the School.

Enrolling in the Baruch School this year, Entin was drafted in the Army soon after. He served sixteen months in Tokyo, Japan, learning to speak the language and took an interest in Jujitsu. He was assigned to the Finance Corps, but had a lot of free time on his hands.

"I wanted to learn judo," says Entin, "so I enrolled in the Kodo-kan, that's sort of the judo center in Japan.

"I used to practice above the Marunichi Police Station with the Japanese police and I earned a black belt from the school," Entin remarked.

The black belt is symbolic of completion of the judo program. The more degrees (Entin had one) the more advanced and better the judo artist. Ten is the maximum number of degrees obtainable, but that number is rarely reached. Entin's instructor, Toome, had five degrees.

Cost $5

The judo instructions cost Entin about $1000 yen a month which is equivalent to $5 in American money.

"Once I was going with a Japanese policeman and I almost lost my life. Communications between the two of us were pretty bad and at one point, he grabbed my uniform and stretched his hands around my neck."

"The next thing I knew was that I awoke and tried to see if I were still alive. I asked myself such questions as 'How much is two and two' and 'Is there a God?' "

"What is the name of my mother and father?"

"I was afraid to go back to Jud. He was there, but I returned any way," Entin remarked.

Entin was on the wrestling team for five weeks last term and beat out two others for the number one heavyweight grappling spot.

He thinks a judo expert would lose to a wrestler because: "a wrestler has to be more of a judo, mostly composed of surprise moves," he says.