Gallagher Hits Youth Festival

To clarify a notice in the May 9 issue of Observation Post, an uptown newspaper, advertising a World Youth Festival in Moscow this summer, Dr. E. M. Gallagher issued a statement Friday evening suggesting the International Union of Students, the sponsoring organization, "an agency of Soviet purposes"

By Dr. Gallagher and the IUS, after initial elections by students from all over the world, "was speedily captured by the Communist apparatus and has subsequently performed primarily as a front for Communist propaganda and influence in the student world."

He called the Festival "a means of advancing Soviet aims" and that any person endorsing this event is lending support to the Communist apparatus.

"No national student organization of any country outside the Iron Curtain is a member of IUS. After the Hungarian revolt of last October and November, the last four countries outside the Soviet Union withdrew from membership in the IUS for the organization was "clearly exposed for what it has long been, an agency of Soviet purpose."
