BHE Denies Alumni Request To Aid in Naming Chancellor

The Board of Higher Education refused last week an Alumni Association offer to formally advise in the selection of a chancellor of the municipal colleges. The Alumni bid was made in a letter to the BHE by Seymour Weissman, executive secretary of the Association. Acting on a resolution passed by the group, Weissman requested that the Alumni Association act as formal advisors to the Administrative Council, municipal colleges. It was hoped that the presidents of the municipal colleges, which is expected shortly to nominate a candidate for the chancellorship post. The purpose of the Alumni bid, most observers believe, is to prevent a possible "political nomination" by the administrative Council.

When the mayor recommended last year that the city set aside money for the establishment of the chancellorship post, the Alumni Association expressed fear that the position might become "a political football." The Association opposed the plan because "it does not provide adequate safeguards of the autonomy of the individual college presidents or protect the integrity and distinct character of each of the municipal colleges."

"We should have a voice in the selection of a chancellor," Weissman told THE TICKER, "but we do not think we will not approve."

Part-Time College

The survey on employment of Baruch School students (see page 6) presents statistical evidence of a situation which every student and faculty member in the College must face. Correlated curricula and extracurricular activities are in conflict. We realize that this is a problem of immediate urgency to all concerned, and we are hopeful that action will be taken soon. It is incredible that only about $370 of the $450 available to students is spent on teaching. There is a minimum of rapport between students and faculty, which is essential if learning is to be effective. The students are expected to write articles, papers and essays, and should be held responsible. We are hopeful that action will be taken soon. History Chairman Asserts Importance of Liberal Arts

Dr. Deutsch, the new chairman of the Baruch School's History Department, has asserted that the number of male students and the number of female students who are taking courses in history is not increasing at a sufficient rate. He has appealed to all students who are interested in history to take courses in the subject and to bring the number of students who are taking courses in history up to the required number. Dr. Deutsch has also appealed to all students who are not taking courses in history to take courses in the subject and to bring the number of students who are taking courses in history up to the required number. Dr. Frank C. Davidson, of the City College's Speech Department, spent five years in the United States and abroad. He was recently voted the outstanding panalist for the history of the Baruch School's curriculum. He has also been active in the development of the Pan-American Society, and has been instrumental in the development of the Pan-American Society's annual short story contest. All undergraduate students are eligible to participate in the contest. Your two articles on Industrial Relations will be published in the issue.
Conference Studies Mid-East Problems
By Adrian Meppen
Problems of the Middle East were the topics of discussion at the fifth Annual Conference on International Education held at Baruch College Saturday.
Professor Samuel Rockwell of the Education Department was chairman of the group which was sponsored by the Metropolitan Committee on International Education and the United Nations.
Professor Sidney P. Ullman, another member of the panel, is an authority on the Middle East.
The Middle East is one of the most unexplored areas of the world. In the past, knowledge of the region has been limited to the effects of one war or another and the interests of the coups of people who live there.
Conference Schedule
The conference ended at 4:30 at a reception in the Union of the New East Front, or "When America Must Know About the Middle East."
The event included a series of talks on the Middle East by Mr. Philip, a Bosnian-American, who spoke on "The Spanish-American War" and Mr. Richard, a French-American, who spoke on "The Balkan Wars." The event was sponsored by the Metropolitan Committee on International Education and the United Nations.

GRASS ELECTED LEXICON EDITOR

By Dave Green

Lexicon has elected Arthur S. Latif, chairman of the Department of English, to the position of assistant editor for the 1969 edition of the yearbook.

The election took place at the fifth annual Conference on International Education, held at Baruch College Saturday.

The conference was sponsored by the Metropolitan Committee on International Education and the United Nations.
City College of New York.Four In Fencing Contest

city College's fencing team finished its midseason season in a blaze of glory last weekend, as they finished fourth in the Eastern Intercollegiate Fencing tournament, held at the Concord Plaza Hotel.

The Beavers finished with 59 points, behind Columbia, New York University and Navy. However, the Lavender finished well ahead of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, which defeated the Beavers the previous week, 14-13.

The Lavender did best in the saber competition, with 17 points, followed by Columbia with 13 points. The team also finished second behind Columbia, the overall winner. Leading the squad in the saber were Andy Kemeny, who compiled a 9-2 record, and Baruchian Manny Fineberg, who finished with a 7-4 slate.

Coach Edward Lucia singled out Fineberg, for his standing record during the regular season. Lucia also felt that the loss of experienced Karlout, out with a bad leg, severely hurt the team.

He noted that a leading fencer on last year's team, Stan Hochberg, who with a bad leg, severely hurt the team.

Karlin Makes Bold Stroke; Moves Rookie to Top Spot

By Mary Levy

Tennis coach Harry Karlin has elevated newcomer Bernie Stiener to the number one position on the 1958 City College tennis team, in a bold maneuver.

Bronx native Stiener, without any previous college tennis experience, has pushed ahead of four lettermen. The move is warranted, however, as Bernie has displayed a high degree of skill on the courts.

The number two man and captain is Baruchian Roy Fleischman, the only two-letter man on the squad, completing the nucleus of experienced men on the team. The handball tournament will start April 17.

Stickmen to Open Year With Limited Reserves

With the opening of the lacrosse season still three weeks away, it is becoming apparent to coach Leon "Chief" Miller, that his team will once again be handicapped by a weak bench and a lack of experienced personnel.

Although there are from 25 to 30 men on the squad, Miller is only reasonably certain of five starters at this time.

They are co-captains, Vito Curri and Ronald Bose, both veterans, Dave Rosenberg, a sophomore, and Willie Rodriguez, and Mike Miles, both offensive performers. Another probable starter for the Millermen is defender Irv Gottlieb, up from last year's junior varsity.

Coach Miller, who is still searching for likely prospects for the squad, is doubly handicapped. Since the College does not get any students with lacrosse experience, he must draw on inexperienced men and make lacrosse players out of them.

The team's first finance is against the Alumnim March 29 at Lewisohn Stadium; its first regular season contest is against Harvard University the following Friday, at Lewisohn Stadium. The team is pleased with their top spots.

Commenting on the forthcoming season, the "Chief" stated that the team does not expect to compare favorably with any squad for the first 10 or 15 minutes of a game, but will then rally to win by a lack of reserves; he does, however, still expect fairly successful season.

Track Team Sets Lineup

The College's track team went into its 1958 season faced with a lack of manpower.

Gone from last year's undefeated squad are Lenny Olsen, top shot putter, Dave Gravos, a track and field man, and Randy Crosfield, both of whom developed into strong runners last season under the guidance of deGrolimo. Taylor, in a track and field man, placed first in half mile event in the Collegiate Track Conference.

Two newcomers to the team also show great promise. As a member of the track team, has been known to pull the most successful season returning to the squad are Ralph Tua and Randy Crosfield, both of whom developed into strong runners last season under the guidance of deGrolimo. Taylor, in a track and field man, placed first in half mile event in the Collegiate Track Conference.
