Gallagher have resubmitted the request for funds for site acquisition and planning for a new Baruch School to the City's Budget Bureau. The $500,000 request had been deleted from the BHE budget by the City Planning Commission last week.

State Aid II

We feel that the action by the City Planning Commission in deferring the C_b_22 for a new Baruch School building is very directly related to the city college crisis in New York City. We urge the Baruch Student Government to continue their protest against this move, which they claim is a demonstration of the State's indifference to the problems of higher education in New York City.

We feel that the main issue should be whether the city government is prepared to allocate the necessary funds for the building of a new Baruch School. The city government has ignored the problem for too long. We believe that the Baruch Student Government should continue their efforts to raise awareness about the need for new facilities.

We also believe that the city government should consider the issue of State aid for higher education. The problem of State aid is far too important to be neglected. We urge the city government to take action and address the issue of State aid.

The situation at Baruch School is symptomatic of an inner disquiet among the student body. This is a result of the lack of communication between the students and the administration. We should all be aware of the importance of communication in order to address the needs of the student body.

Let us all work towards a better future for our community. We urge the city government to allocate the necessary funds for the building of a new Baruch School and to address the issue of State aid for higher education. Let us all work together to create a better future for our community.
City Record-breakers Play Temple Team on Saturday

By Richard Cohen and Bob Signer

City's national co-championship soccer team will travel to Philadelphia, Saturday, to meet Temple University. The Owls had a 2-7 record last season and lost to City, 8-0. However, this year they have several promising players and have started off the season with a 2-1 win over Bucknell.

Coach Pete Leavens, returning for his 30th year as varsity coach, cited his fullback, Jimmy Crompton, and his goalie, Sam Wilson, as the outstanding defensive players in the first game. He also said that he expected his team to improve as the season progresses.

The Owls suffered a big loss when their All-American goalie, Bob Manning graduated last year.

Coach Reilly did not want to make any predictions for his team. "I hope to break into the 15-0 mark of 10, set against Queens last week, and Heinz Minnepol, with five tallies, broke the individual scoring record of four goals in a single game.

Actually, the score doesn’t reflect the way the City ‘11 played. The game was won for the two quarters he played. The Loyal League turned in a perfect game for the two quarters they played.

They showed no opposition in the way of a defense and put up a poor offense.
