Austin Case Delayed Pending Other Appeal

The outcome of the case of Dr. Warren B. Austin, suspended City College English Professor, is being delayed pending litigation of another appeal by the Board of Higher Education, it was announced in a report made public Sunday by the State Board of Education.

The report was made in connection with an annual request for steps to be taken to implement the Feinberg Law which prohibits the employment of communists in academic positions.

Dr. Austin was suspended by a three-man trial committee of the BHE for "conduct unbecoming a member of the staff," and for making "false and untrue statements" in regard to his membership in the Communist Party at Hunter College. Dr. Austin's attorney, at the time the committee presented its decision, he would take an appeal to the United States Supreme Court if it were necessary.

At present a decision is being awaited by Dr. James E. Allen, the State Commissioner of Education.

Dr. Austin's case is awaiting the outcome of an appeal made by the BHE in the case of Professor Charles W. Hughes of Hunter College. Professor Hughes was dismissed after he admitted past membership in the Communist Party. He refused to identify members of an alleged Communist cell at Hunter.

The Faculty Committee on Student Activities has proposed Student Center if money for the center is appropriated by the New York City Board of Estimate. This reverses a previous action by House Council, the student governing body of Lamport House.

However, the Board of Directors also decided that Lamport House would not be sold to implement the proposed Center is definite.

The Board of Directors of House Plan have voted in effect to move to the proposed Student Center if money for the Center is appropriated by the New York City Board of Estimate. This reverses a previous action by House Council, the student governing body of Lamport House.

The move came after the City College Bookstore protested APO's action, claiming that the operation of charity drives at the Baruch School service fraternity had distributed the covers over the purchase of books in its Used Book Exchange. The fraternity also distributes separation.

The second part of last year's plan, to allow only five drives per term, has been successful, according to GC President Larry Schiff. This does not include such internal drives as the Boosters' pledge projects to raise money for pencil sharpeners, or Sigma Alpha's semi-annual Flower Sale.

The one major area of confusion, according to Schiff, regards the Council's limits of jurisdiction.

"The proposed procedure," said Schiff in a letter to FCAS, "was desirable in terms of providing a meaningfulness to the College's charity collections."

The new system will allow the Charity Drive Committee to accept written bids during the first two weeks of each semester from organizations to run drives selected by Council in the previous semester.

FCSA Tells APO to Stop Distribution of Free Covers

The Faculty Committee on Student Activities has ordered Alpha Phi Omega fraternity to stop distributing free book-covers at the beginning of each term.

The move came after the City College Bookstore protested APO's action, claiming that it hurt the Store's business.

The report also said one staff member had resigned while the investigation. Eleven others whose cases had come before the Board since last year's report were either cleared or their cases closed for insufficient evidence.

Seminar

Professor Bernard Bellash of the History Department is planning to hold a seminar next semester on Modern Politics with an historical background. The seminar will cover both the American scene and the challenge to the Soviet Union.

All students interested in participating in this seminar must contact Professor Bellash in 121A. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 9-10 or Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday from 12:15 in 1013-14.

Wage Forlin Set by SAM

The Society for the Advancement of Management will present a forum on "Job Evaluation and Wage Analysis" Thursday, 12:15 in 103-14.

The participants will include Professor Maurice H. Poisson, the Economics Department, Professor Mortimer Feinberg of the Psychology Department and Harry Koob of the Business Administration Department.

Professor Feinberg received his B.S. from City College in 1944, his M.A. from the University of Minnesota in 1945, and his doctorate from New York University. He has presented studies on study habits before Eyebrow Assembly the past few terms.

Mr. Koob received a B.A. from Columbia in 1953 and his M.B.A. from New York University. He has presented studies on study habits before Eyebrow Assembly the past few terms.

Two-Year Trial: New Charity Drives Plan to Start

The operation of charity drives at the Baruch School, a point of contention on Student Council, has been temporarily suspended by a Faculty Committee on Student Activities action last Tuesday.

The new procedure, to be followed for a two-year period, permits only educational charity drives for intervarsity causes to be the subject of organizational charity drives.

Select Charities

An attempt was made a year ago to bring all drives at the School under the jurisdiction of Student Council. At that time, a plan was accepted that would permit the Charity Drive Committee to select the charities to be collected for in the following semester.

However, this plan was never put into effect and instead, Larry Schiff

Larry Schiff drives were allowed to select their own charities.

In the interim, the Committee has been collecting information on charities, mostly those of an educational nature, and does offer suggestions to government having particular programs.

Dean, Emanuel Saxe

FCSA Tells APO to Stop Distribution of Free Covers

The Faculty Committee on Student Activities has ordered Alpha Phi Omega fraternity to stop distributing free book-covers at the beginning of each term.

The move came after the City College Bookstore protested APO's action, claiming that it hurt the Store's business.

At the beginning of this term, the Baruch School service fraternity had distributed the covers with the purchase of books in its Used Book Exchange. The fraternity also distributes separation.

The report also said one staff member had resigned while the investigation. Eleven others whose cases had come before the Board since last year's report were either cleared or their cases closed for insufficient evidence.

Two-Year Trial: New Charity Drives Plan to Start

The operation of charity drives at the Baruch School, a point of contention on Student Council, has been temporarily suspended by a Faculty Committee on Student Activities action last Tuesday.

The new procedure, to be followed for a two-year period, permits only educational charity drives for intervarsity causes to be the subject of organizational charity drives.

Select Charities

An attempt was made a year ago to bring all drives at the School under the jurisdiction of Student Council. At that time, a plan was accepted that would permit the Charity Drive Committee to select the charities to be collected for in the following semester.

However, this plan was never put into effect and instead, Larry Schiff

Larry Schiff drives were allowed to select their own charities.

In the interim, the Committee has been collecting information on charities, mostly those of an educational nature, and does offer suggestions to government having particular programs.

The second part of last year's plan, to allow only five drives per term, has been successful, according to GC President Larry Schiff. This does not include such internal drives as the Boosters' pledge projects to raise money for pencil sharpeners, or Sigma Alpha's semi-annual Flower Sale.

The one major area of confusion, according to Schiff, regards the Council's limits of jurisdiction.

"The proposed procedure," said Schiff in a letter to FCAS, "was desirable in terms of providing a meaningfulness to the College's charity collections."

The new system will allow the Charity Drive Committee to accept written bids during the first two weeks of each semester from organizations to run drives selected by Council in the previous semester.

In order to give complete and accurate coverage of the opening basketball game at Columbia University tomorrow, THE TICKER will meet Thursday.
Letters to the Editor

To the Editor of THE TICKE R:

In your recent issue you did a splendid job in covering the recent decision of the Baruch School Panel of Americans Plans to hold their meeting on the campus of the Baruch School. We feel that you did a fine job in presenting the arguments of both sides and in reporting on the various activities taking place at the Baruch School. We feel that your article was a fair and balanced account of the events taking place at the Baruch School.

We feel that our position was not adequately represented in your article. We feel that the arguments presented for the Baruch School Panel of Americans Plans were not given sufficient weight.

Sincerely yours,

[Signature]
Coach Nat Holman is returning to his coaching post after a two-year leave, in which he spread his knowledge of basketball in the Orient. During his absence, the Beavers were coached by Dave Polansky. Last season's team did not provide much excitement for the Beaver rooters;