Special Meeting Called
Discuss BC Letter

Student Council at its meeting Friday passed a motion to hold a special meeting Friday in order to discuss the letter from the Brooklyn College administration that took place recently.

The motion was made by Janet S. Weisberg and was seconded by Lucille Feldman. The motion was adopted unanimously.

After the motion was adopted, the last meeting of the semester was called to order.

In the meeting that followed, the last meeting of the semester was called to order and the following business was transacted:

1. The last meeting of the semester was called to order.
2. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.
3. The motion was made to adopt the budget for the current fiscal year.
4. The motion was made to raise the dues for the coming year.
5. The motion was made to authorize the president to negotiate with the faculty on the issue of the new union contract.

The meeting adjourned at 3:00 p.m.

By Subscription Only

Brooklyn College President
Denies Press Censorship

"The cry of 'censorship' by the college of the student weekly newspaper is without merit. In its issue of April 29, preceding the drill, the editors gave generous page-one space to plans for the protest, used three editorials and one letter, but published nothing about the requirement of observing the national drill," noted Brooklyn College President Harry D. Gideonse in a four-page memorandum issued last Monday.

In the issue of May 6, the paper published a quite full report as well as an editorial. The fact that representatives of the paper sought to be excluded from prominence with national drill requirements and were denied, the exemption, and that the editor was forbidden to use photographs taken in violation of the earlier decision, does not prove 'censorship.' It proves that the administration men were treated alike.

An editorial in the May 20th issue of The Kingsman replied that the President has overlooked page five of that particular issue, where the drill was announced and students urged to come. It contained no instructions on the walls of all teaching and study areas.

It would be interesting for the administration to also note that two of the three editorials in question were composed by students.

We are certain that the President did not deliberately suppress this information. We are just as certainly the Kingsman has never deliberately suppressed the newspaper.

Dr. Gideonse could not be reached for comment. However, in no uncertain terms, THE TICKER was referred to Dean Goodhardt. The Dean felt that the student photographer had been treated fairly and noted that it was clear that he had disobeyed a college regulation.

(Continued on Page 2)

Shapiro Wins Top Post
In House Plan Election

Stan Shapiro was elected House Plan President by a large majority in a vote following the invalidation of the original selections. He defeated Zana Fedor by a vote of 91 to 52.

Although the original vote had been declared void due to irregularities in the election, outgoing President Stuart Sandman had told THE TICKER that he saw no reason for invalidating the entire election. Shapiro ran unopposed in the first vote.

In other results, Sue Yellin and Ken Kow were elected to the posts of vice-president and treasurer, respectively. Both were running unopposed. Yellin received 108 "yes" votes and 14 "no" votes, while Kow received 100 "yes" votes and 17 "no" votes.

Jerry Rockstein defeated Mike Kravitz in the race for corresponding secretary by a vote of 64 to 60. The first vote had resulted in a close contest, with Rockstein obtaining 58 votes to Kravitz's 50 votes.

In a three-cornered race for the position of recording secretary, Elliott Buxton was victorious over Sigel and Harvey Katz. The margin of victory was 4. The final tally, showing 59 votes for Buxton, 56 for Sigel and 27 for Katz.

The final day of examinations will be May 27.
This essay is about my experience as a student at Ticker. I have had great difficulties in attracting individuals. I have been told that I will obtain a student or faculty commitment for the following reasons:

1. I believe that, secrecy, especially pertaining to the nature of dissent, is essential. It is therefore that a complete evaluation of the school must be considered. An understanding of the school is necessary. It is possible that I have been here for four years. I believe this is the problem of monetary employment for some reason, the faculty and students are displeased with the news that I was not personally confronted by these things. In the times that I have been here, I have been present. It appears that a great deal of ideological co-workers such as Dave and Bob, who have not been present, have been here for other reasons. They have been present.

2. I believe that, secrecy, especially pertaining in relation to the nature of dissent, is essential. It is therefore that a complete evaluation of the school must be considered. An understanding of the school is necessary. It is possible that I have been here for four years. I believe this is the problem of monetary employment for some reason, the faculty and students are displeased with the news that I was not personally confronted by these things. In the times that I have been here, I have been present. It appears that a great deal of ideological co-workers such as Dave and Bob, who have not been present, have been here for other reasons. They have been present.

3. I believe that, secrecy, especially pertaining in relation to the nature of dissent, is essential. It is therefore that a complete evaluation of the school must be considered. An understanding of the school is necessary. It is possible that I have been here for four years. I believe this is the problem of monetary employment for some reason, the faculty and students are displeased with the news that I was not personally confronted by these things. In the times that I have been here, I have been present. It appears that a great deal of ideological co-workers such as Dave and Bob, who have not been present, have been here for other reasons. They have been present.

4. I believe that, secrecy, especially pertaining in relation to the nature of dissent, is essential. It is therefore that a complete evaluation of the school must be considered. An understanding of the school is necessary. It is possible that I have been here for four years. I believe this is the problem of monetary employment for some reason, the faculty and students are displeased with the news that I was not personally confronted by these things. In the times that I have been here, I have been present. It appears that a great deal of ideological co-workers such as Dave and Bob, who have not been present, have been here for other reasons. They have been present.
Beavers Defeat Kingsmen; Escape League Cellar Spot

Murray Steinfink, a sophomore right-hander, pitched the Beaver baseball team out of the Metropolitan Conference cellar Thursday, by pitching the route against the Brooklyn College Kingsmen for an 8-5 City College win.

The victory was Steinfink's second of the season, and the second for the Beaver team, which has dropped sixteen of eighteen games. This is the worst Beaver record in the school's history.

Two weeks ago, Steinfink held New York University to six hits and shut them out, 1-0 for the only City win.

The game wasn't the strongest Steinfink has pitched during the season, as he surrendered 12 hits to the Kingsmen batters. However, the Beaver fielders committed only two errors behind him, and the 12 runs were held down.

George Lopez, the Beaver shortstop, smacked a home-run over the right field fence in the seventh inning for the Redmen.

Frank Ciraulo, St. John's cleanup hitter, led Redmen batters with two doubles, good for three runs-batted-in.

Spot Cash for Discarded Books
(yes, even books discontinued at your college)

We pay top prices for books in current demand. Bring them in NOW before time depreciates their value.

BARNES & NOBLE, INC.
22nd STREET • 3 FF CITY COLLEGE