Legislature Approves University Bill; Board of Regents to Control Program

The State Legislature gave the city colleges university status Saturday during the Legislature's late closing session. A bill sponsored by Senator Neil Mitchell, which authorized the formation of a university of the City of New York consisting of the four municipal colleges and the three community colleges, was approved by both houses of the Legislature.

The bill (Senate intro. 3,399; 3,398) is now awaiting Governor A. Rockefeller's signature.

Gustave G. Rosenzweig, chairman of the Board of Higher Education, on receiving news of the passage of the bill, released the following statement of the structure of the university: "It is extremely heartening that all members of the Senate, including those who represent the people and have seen eye to eye with the Board of Higher Education, will be incorporated within the public interest of the people of the state, and that an opportunity for advanced training must be made available. It is the duty of the Board of Higher Education, with Mayor Wagner that in this present situation. Presently, money for the municipal colleges is allocated through the State University.

As the State University will submit its master plan for the future development to the Board of Regents, the City University will submit information copy to the State for far as I know, the State did not seek the people's advice. The modern Board of Regents will have the final word.

Proposed Amendments Fail At Student Council Meeting

Student Council, at its Friday night meeting, defeated three proposed Charter amendments, each requiring a two-thirds vote. In addition, a motion brought up by Student President Buell G. Gallagher but was pigeon-holed in an Assembly committee and never reached the floor of the Senate.

Dr. Gustav G. Rosenzweig, on any action to be taken.

"In an earlier bill, sponsored by the City College, the Board of Regents will have the final word," said Senator Joseph Zaretzki.

The second proposed amendment, presented by Bob Brooks '63, would have permitted corresponding and recording secretaries to be members of the upper sophomore class. Presently only juniors and seniors are allowed to serve in these offices. The motion failed 11-19-5.

The third proposed Charter amendment, submitted by David Diaz of the Class of '65, would have given Council the power, by a two-thirds vote of its members, to make any changes in the Charter or by-laws initiated by referendum. Council, in a 3-13-3 vote, indicated that it felt that the student body should have the final say on issues brought up for a referendum.

Buckland Council Vice-President Dave Podoff brought up a motion concerning next term's proposed A.L. College Conference, which was defeated 19-11-6. The motion failed 11-19-5.

Wyatt Art Exhibit - Scheduled From Tomorrow — April 24

The Activities Coordination Board is sponsoring an art exhibit by Mr. Stanley Wyatt, a lecturer in the Art Department, in Oak Lounge from tomorrow until April 24 from 9-9. In addition to teaching at the Baruch School, Mr. Wyatt has studied at the Chicago Art Institute and the Brooklyn Museum Art School. He has also studied at Columbia University, Rockland Community College, Rockland Foundation, Yankton College in South Dakota and Waynesburg College in Pennsylvania.

Books written by Mr. Wyatt include "Poetry of Rimbaud" and "Poetry of Verlaine." In addition to teaching at the Baruch School, Mr. Wyatt has studied at the University of New York, the New York Public Library, Colorado College and Barnard College.

The art instructor's illustrations have appeared in Harpers Magazine, the New York Times Tuesday Magazine section, the College Alumni News and the N.E.A. Journal.

Mr. Wyatt's group exhibits have been featured at Barneys-Gallery and the Barneys-Gallery Art Show. In addition to teaching at the Baruch School, Mr. Wyatt has studied at the Chicago Art Institute and the Brooklyn Museum Art School. He has also studied at Columbia University, Rockland Community College, Rockland Foundation, Yankton College in South Dakota and Waynesburg College in Pennsylvania.

University Approved

A plan proposed last December became a reality Saturday, when the New York State Legislature actuated the univerity status. Without a doubt this is one of the major adventures in the history of the College, and the commencement of unusual educational resources at the college.

In the past year and a half the growth of the College has been very rapid, and we can only thank the fact that the Legislature has seen fit to authorize the University to proceed with the continu-bution of educational work at the College.

The Board of Trustees and the College administration have been working hard to bring the College up to par with the other universities in the state, and to make it one of the best in the country.

I would like to express my gratitude to the Board of Trustees and the College administration for their efforts in bringing the College up to par.

The Board of Regents will meet for the first time in the next month, and it is hoped that the College will be able to continue its progress towards becoming one of the best universities in the country.

The Cast

DANN YANKERT as musical director Andreas Walker, with his capable direction of the College's musical department, brought us a new production, a musical comedy, 'The Cast.'

This musical, produced by the College of Music, was a delight to all who attended the performance.

The play was directed by Andreas
Walker, who has been directing the College's musical department for many years.

The cast included DANN YANKERT as
the musical director, and Andreas
Walker, who directed the performance.

The play was a success and was well received by the audience.

The College of Music is to be congratulated on its performance, and we look forward to seeing more musical productions in the future.

Mardi Gras

The Mardi Gras at the College was a great success, with hundreds of students in attendance.

The theme of the Mardi Gras was
"The Carnival of Venice," and the students decorated the Colonial Hall
with colorful streamers and paper
flowers.

The College of Music provided the music for the event, and the students enjoyed traditional Mardi Gras folk songs.

The Mardi Gras ended with a musical performance by the College of Music, and the students had a great time.

Psychology and Religion

Professor Henry H. Villard, chairman of the Economics Department at City College, delivered a lecture on the relationship between psychology and religion.

Professor Villard discussed the relationship between psychology and religion, and how they are interrelated in the human experience.

Professor Villard concluded his lecture by saying that psychology and religion are two important aspects of human experience, and that they should be studied together to understand the human condition.

City College's fencing team placed thirteenth in a field of thirty-one schools Saturday in the National Collegiate Championships at Princeton's Dillon Gymnasium.

Last year, the fencers placed sixth in this tournament.

The Championships, consisting of twelve events, were captured by New York University. The Violets triumphed in seventy-eight of eighty-six bouts.

In the battery positions, Bill Boman will wear the gloves of the catching trade. The pitching staff will be bolstered by the return of Alan Jacobs, Al Riebesel, Richie Silver, Bobby Stodhard and Murray Steinke, an all-Met selection last year. Steinke had a 2-5 record but his 2.54 ERA was very impressive.

Coach DiBernardo feels quite optimistic and believes that the team should have a good season. He adds that his experience both as a freshman coach and as a player in the Minor Leagues will be of great benefit to the team. During Easter weekend the team will play three road games at B.C., Hofstra and Army. The home game will be played against Manhattan April 8 at Macombs Dam Park (opposite Yankee Stadium) at 2 pm.
