Student Council Goes Wild, Thousands of Motions Fail

Student Council Student Council considered a record-breaking 2,300 motions, of which 2,299 were defeated. The most controversial motion was the proposal to increase the student activities fee, which was defeated by a vote of 2,299 to 1. The main reason for the defeat was the opposition of the Baruch School, which argued that the fee increase would be unfair to the students.

CCNY Basketballmen Rank First in Statistical Survey

By Steve Wrappafish

After some statistical analysis and manipulation, figures have been revealed which show that City College's fabulous fighting "five" is the nation's number one basketball team.

When the average Beaver fan was asked to state his opinion of this assertion, he calmly replied with a shrug of his shoulders, "I don't care. I'm not an athletic supporter."

Local Boys Make Good?: Capacity crowds will watch the C.C.N.Y. fabulous "five" play if opponents can be found.

A few moments later the Tri-State League notified C.C.N.Y. that the Beavers would no longer be allowed to compete in the League, because the Beavers would romp over their feeble small college squads.

The remainder of City's small time opponents also dropped the Beavers from their schedules. They felt that a crushing defeat at the hands of the Lavender would cause a de-emphasis of basketball at their schools.

C.C.N.Y. was now left with a honor to play the Beavers. Lack what big time basketball had increased.

The Bradley Braves were next. They became City to place them on its 1961-62 slate. However, City declined, saying that in the old days the Brooklyn beat the Braves twice in national tournaments and another victory of the Lavender would cause a de-emphasis of basketball at their schools. fordham also called. Mr. Ram informed Mr. Beaver that their 1961-62 game would have to be cancelled because City was now out of the league.

The other metropolitan rivals followed suit, feeling that the Lavender would crush their hapless "five" if they were allowed to clash on the court.

Professor Ima Goober has announced the establishment of a new gym course, "Four '67." All students who have failed Gym 2 after passing Gym 3, but before taking Gym 4, are required to register. These students who have finished their gym requirements.
