President Gallagher to Resign Post To Head California College System

BHE Committee to Choose Successor to Top Position

Dr. Buell G. Gallagher, president of City College for nine years, announced last Friday that he will resign his position in order to become the first president of California State College System.

He will commence his new duties as head of the group of colleges which will become the world's largest college system.

President Gallagher emphasized that "... There is a tremendous job to be done in a new 'world's largest college system.' They offered me the job and I felt that I should take it. I leave this position with great appreciation for nine years of warm friendship and hard work."

The twenty-one trustee of the new California education system appointed Dr. Gallagher unanimously.

Four-Page Questionnaire Issued

Dr. Buell G. Gallagher, president of City College for nine years, announced last Friday that he will resign his position in order to become the first president of California State College System.

He will commence his new duties as head of the group of colleges which will become the world's largest college system.

President Gallagher emphasized that "... There is a tremendous job to be done in a new 'world's largest college system.' They offered me the job and I felt that I should take it. I leave this position with great appreciation for nine years of warm friendship and hard work."

The twenty-one trustee of the new California education system appointed Dr. Gallagher unanimously.

Four-Page Questionnaire Issued

Dr. Buell G. Gallagher, president of City College for nine years, announced last Friday that he will resign his position in order to become the first president of California State College System.

He will commence his new duties as head of the group of colleges which will become the world's largest college system.

President Gallagher emphasized that "... There is a tremendous job to be done in a new 'world's largest college system.' They offered me the job and I felt that I should take it. I leave this position with great appreciation for nine years of warm friendship and hard work."

The twenty-one trustee of the new California education system appointed Dr. Gallagher unanimously.

Four-Page Questionnaire Issued

Dr. Buell G. Gallagher, president of City College for nine years, announced last Friday that he will resign his position in order to become the first president of California State College System.

He will commence his new duties as head of the group of colleges which will become the world's largest college system.

President Gallagher emphasized that "... There is a tremendous job to be done in a new 'world's largest college system.' They offered me the job and I felt that I should take it. I leave this position with great appreciation for nine years of warm friendship and hard work."

The twenty-one trustee of the new California education system appointed Dr. Gallagher unanimously.

Four-Page Questionnaire Issued
Dr. Gallagher has frequently argued for the strengthening of academic freedom and civil liberties as essential elements of higher education. He has been a strong advocate for the protection of student press rights and has stood firm in his conviction that there should be no censorship of the student press. His commitment to these principles has earned him the respect of many colleagues and students alike.

Other college presidents were quick to suspend students who read distorted and sensational stories in metropolitan newspapers. "The Baruch School will beاء themselves of observers," said President Gallagher, "because we believe that there are stories in metropolitan newspapers where they have the most stimulant effect on the student body."

Dr. Gallagher's resignation, becomes effective on August 15. We urge the Baruch community to consider carefully the actions of the Board of Trustees and to make their views known in the next few weeks. We believe that the Baruch community has the ability to make a difference in the future of our college.

In conclusion, we believe that Dr. Gallagher's departure is a loss for higher education. His legacy will continue to inspire those who value academic freedom and civil liberties.
Hofstra, Manhattan Top City in Baseball Games

By Mel Berndard

Wildness plagued City's pitchers this week as the baseball team dropped two games to Hofstra and Manhattan. City scored 5-6 and 7-5, respectively, in Monday afternoon doubleheader at Ruppert Field. Third baseman Tom O'Leary and John Curry batted .363 and .381, respectively, for the victorious Jaspers.

In the first game, City trailed 1-0 in the seventh inning when they scored four runs, featuring by attorney John Orlando. In the second game, City sent seventeen batters to the plate in the fourth inning, defeating the Beavers 9-1. City pitcher John Orlando fanned four for the win.

In the Hofstra game, wild pitching and four errors in the field contributed to the whitewash loss. D'Orca fanned five, walked one, and gave up four runs in the fourth inning, stretching his unbeaten streak to six games. In the Manhattan game, Tom Leder, the Jasper's ace pitcher, returned to the mound against Tom O'Leary and John Curry. City's runs came on a two-run homer by Barrett.

Spoiler

Fairleigh Dickinson spoiled City College's debut in dual meet track and field competition by defeating the Beavers 91-46, Saturday. In the seventh inning, when they scored four runs, City was leading 23-3 and 6-5, respectively. The strong Harvard team completely outplayed the Beavers who had possession of the ball. The Beavers scored three goals in the final quarter, one with ten seconds remaining to take the win.

The City lacrosse team, in its first two games of the season, lost to Harvard and Adelphi by scores of 23-3 and 6-5, respectively.

The strong Harvard team completely outplayed the Beavers who had possession of the ball. The Beavers scored three goals in the final quarter, one with ten seconds remaining to take the win.

In the encounter against the Kingsmen, City sent seventeen batters to the plate in the fourth inning against four pitchers. A bases loaded triple by Bill Botwinik and throwing errors by Harvard's Gill Leaf and John Orlando scored two goals for the Beavers in a losing cause.

In the Adelphi game, Adelphi scored three goals in the final quarter, one with ten seconds remaining to take the win.

Metropolitan Conference Champions to victory. D'Orca fanned five, walked one and gave up four runs in the seventh inning. Terry Kosens finished up for Hofstra. Howie Friedman pitched the entire game for City, fanning four, walking six and allowing seven hits.

In the Manhattan game, Friedman returned to the mound against Tom Leder, the Jasper's ace pitcher. The Jaspers broke the game open in the seventh inning when they scored four runs, featured by homers by Tom O'Leary and John Curry. City's runs came on a two-run homer by Barrett.