Letters to the Editor

To the Editor of THE TICKET:

Dear Sirs:

Readers of THE TICKET may recall an editorial which appeared in this newspaper in the issue of October 27. It summed up the arguments against the Vietnam War, and ended with a statement that "The jury is still out, and the public should know the facts before coming to any decision on the war." This Thursday, President Johnson announced that our government had found the facts on the ground, and declared that America was winning the war.

We welcome President Johnson's report. Vietnam is an ugly war, and we have been uncertain about the facts. It is important for the public to know the truth about America's efforts in Vietnam. The report will allow the public to make an informed decision on the war.

Sincerely yours,

Cagers Upset by Panthers; Defeat is First of Campaign

By Harvey Pensky

City College's basketball team was dropped from the ranks of the undefeated last night by losing a hard fought Tri-State League contest to Adelphi, 64-59, in the winners' Woodruff Hall. The victory was the Panthers' first after five successive setbacks. City is 2-1 overall with a 1-1 loop record.

The lead changed hands many times. Adelphi took a 52-51 lead with 5:30 remaining in the second half and was never headed. With the game over in the first period, the Garden City team took a 12-1 lead. However, Winston and Nilsen hit their shots. C.C.N.Y. made slightly below 61 percent of their shots in the previous two wins. Baruchian Mike Winston led the Lavender attack with twenty-two points, scoring mostly on jump shots and driving layups. Howie Wilkov, who tallied eleven points, was the only other man to score in double figures.

JP Cappers Conquer Two

Zack Dyckman poured in sixteen points to pace the C.C.N.Y. junior varsity hoopers to a crushing 90-66 triumph over Brooklyn Poly, a weak quintet. Brooklyn showed little finesse in the victory.

Scheinblum (3-11) starts with Ezra Katz (6-4), Bob Smolor (6-3), Mike "Stretch" Grossman (6-7) and Bob Sommer (6-2). All are sophomores...and juniors except Scheinblum, a senior.

The Cagers tackle Brooklyn College in a Tri-State League tilt tomorrow in Wingate Gym, Uptown. Tap-off time is 8 p.m. with a freshman encounter at 6.

Beavers Face BC Next In Loop Tilt Tomorrow

By Alvin Berkiv

City’s cagers tackle Brooklyn College in a Tri-State League tilt tomorrow in Wingate Gym, Uptown. Tap-off time is 8 p.m. with a freshman encounter at 6.

The Kingsmen are sparked by Captain Steve Scheinblum, who scored twenty-seven points in B.C.'s 85-59 win over Queens. In that contest, Scheinblum scored eleven field goals and hit five of six from the free-throw line.

The Kingsmen's other win was a lackluster 64-56 triumph over Brooklyn Poly, a weak quintet. Brooklyn showed little finesse in this victory.

Scheinblum (5-11) starts with Ezra Katz (6-4), Bob Smolor (6-3), Mike "Stretch" Grossman (6-7) and Bob Sommer (6-2). All are sophomores...and juniors except Scheinblum, a senior.

The Beavers counter with Tor Nilsen, Irwin Cohen, Howie Wilkov, Jerry Greenberg and Mike Winston. Backing them up are Don Sidat and Ray Camisa. The Brooklyn freshmen are a power-packed unit, led by Lee, Engelmeyer, Jack Kushnick and A. Marden.
