Strike Vote Slated Tomorrow; Referendum Action Appraised

By Stan Dinskey and Mike Elkin

A student referendum will be held tomorrow to decide whether or not a strike to protest possible imposition of tuition at the City University should be implemented by the Student Council. Voting on the strike issue will take place from 9 to 3 in the cafeteria and Student Center lobby. All those wishing to vote must be matriculated day session students, all of the faculty, and the bursar's card at the polls.

Two requirements are necessary for passage of the strike proposal: First, that at least a majority of the students vote for consideration of the issue; and second, that at least a majority of the required number of voters are in favor of the strike.

This means that at least 1,074 students must vote, and at least 538 must vote "yes" for passage. If either of these stipulations are not met, the strike will not be held.

If the referendum should pass, a strike will be held on Thursday, March 26. Students are requested in such event to cut classes and show up at either the cafeteria or Accounting Society, and present their bursar's card at the polls with signs protest peacefully.

A motion to grant unlimited time for a protest was defeated, 13-8-2. If the referendum should pass, "a strike will be held on Thursday, March 26. Students are requested in such event to cut classes and show up at either the cafeteria or Accounting Society, and present their bursar's card at the polls with signs protest peacefully.

Gallagher: 'Fight Has Not Begun'

Although the bills to mandate free tuition were not discharged from committee, President Buell G. Gallagher declared that he has "not yet begun to fight." At a press conference for student newspapers, Thursday.

"We are still hopeful," stated the president, "that the Republicans will reject some of their own bills in favor of free tuition during the legislative session." In reference to the referendum on the strike for free tuition, Dr. Gallagher said that he questions the wisdom in striking against yourself, Why should the student cut off any educational opportunity?" he asked. He emphasized that he was in favor of any constructive demonstration in favor of free tuition.

The student trip to Albany was a very successful demonstration, stated Dr. Gallagher. The fact that the trip was made is the important thing, Dr. Gallagher added that "the citizens in Albany could not understand any demonstration."

Economic Views Set
For Berle Discussion

By Larry Capaldi

Professor Adolf Berle, a lawyer of law at Columbia University, will speak today at noon in 3S. His lecture is entitled "Charging Conceptions and Theories.*

The lectures are to be sponsored jointly by the History, Economics, and Political Science Departments in conjunction with THE TICKER and Student Council.

Goldsber

Professor Louis Goldberg, from the University of Melbourne, will address the Accounting Society on Thursday.

The lecture will be held at 12:15 in 4S, and is entitled "Pottery Cressam Lande."

Council Slates Investigation
Of Faculty Library Abuses

Student Council decided at its Friday night meeting to direct the Greivance Committee to investigate the alleged abuse of the privilege granted the faculty of withdrawing books from the School library for an unlimited amount of time.

Also included in this motion was a rider which called for a study of student employment practices in the library. The latter motion passed by acclamation.

A motion to grant unlimited cuts at S.C. meetings was defeated when it failed to attain the two-thirds majority needed to pass.

Proponents of the amendment to the S.C. charter argued that it was hypocritical to be in favor of unlimited cuts in the classroom, but not at S.C. meetings.

The opposing forces argued that there is no such thing as a free lunch and that the bitterness of the students would not be any greater if the cuts were unlimited. A strike on the part of the students will affect no one but the students themselves.

Professor Samual Randh of the

Council Slates Investigation
Of Faculty Library Abuses

Student Council decided at its Friday night meeting to direct the Greivance Committee to investigate the alleged abuse of the privilege granted the faculty of withdrawing books from the School library for an unlimited amount of time.

Also included in this motion was a rider which called for a study of student employment practices in the library. The latter motion passed by acclamation.

A motion to grant unlimited cuts at S.C. meetings was defeated when it failed to attain the two-thirds majority needed to pass.

Proponents of the amendment to the S.C. charter argued that it was hypocritical to be in favor of unlimited cuts in the classroom, but not at S.C. meetings.

The opposing forces argued that there is no such thing as a free lunch and that the bitterness of the students would not be any greater if the cuts were unlimited. A strike on the part of the students will affect no one but the students themselves.

Professor Samual Randh of the
Hillel Runs Functions

Group Adopts Orphan Girl

Ags, on orphans will be leaming all about the orphan child, its time, and how to be a happy, loving, and well-adjusted child.

Sponsor of this project is Miss Stamper Silver, a member of the student body and a former Hillel leader. She will be on hand to answer any questions and give information about the progand meetings are held in the library of the Student Center.

Comedian King To Perform At Mardi Gras Cauival

The school will have its first Mardi Gras this year, and the comedian King will be the feature entertainment on April 27.
Mr. King is a well-known comedian who has appeared in the Ed Sullivan Show and has appeared on television.

The theme for this year is "Laugh When It Hurts," and there will be a special feature entertainment on April 27.

Lexicon Takes Months to Produce

The Lexicon, the student yearbook, is published by the students of the school and is available for purchase. It is published once a year and is available for purchase through the school. The first edition of the Lexicon was published in 1934.
Free Tuition—Our Pledge
(Continued from Page 1)

Free tuition is a dream which is reaching reality. A few weeks ago, I mentioned that the possibility of a free tuition program was being considered for next year. I feel that we should look at the possibility of a free tuition program for the fall of 1963, and I believe that the Student Government has voted to support this idea.

Furthermore, we believe that a strike of this time will accomplish little except to aggravate the Faculty, alumni, legislators, and communities. We hope that students will be made to realize the importance of free tuition. It is not because we are engaged in a struggle to maintain free tuition that we are striking. It is to engage in an activity which will probably result in more striking. To this end, we must also have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

We are in the process of striking the City University of New York in order to discharge the free tuition issue. We will also strike the State University of New York in order to discharge the free tuition issue. We will also strike the State University of New York in order to discharge the free tuition issue.

We support that students vote in the coming election. It is the responsibility of the Student Council to support this cause. We must also have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

First, most important, we must never stop working behind the scenes. We believe that the Student Council should be brought to the fore of the issue. To this end, we must have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

We support that students vote in the coming election. It is the responsibility of the Student Council to support this cause. We must also have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

First, most important, we must never stop working behind the scenes. We believe that the Student Council should be brought to the fore of the issue. To this end, we must have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

We support that students vote in the coming election. It is the responsibility of the Student Council to support this cause. We must also have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

First, most important, we must never stop working behind the scenes. We believe that the Student Council should be brought to the fore of the issue. To this end, we must have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

We support that students vote in the coming election. It is the responsibility of the Student Council to support this cause. We must also have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

First, most important, we must never stop working behind the scenes. We believe that the Student Council should be brought to the fore of the issue. To this end, we must have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

We support that students vote in the coming election. It is the responsibility of the Student Council to support this cause. We must also have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

First, most important, we must never stop working behind the scenes. We believe that the Student Council should be brought to the fore of the issue. To this end, we must have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

We support that students vote in the coming election. It is the responsibility of the Student Council to support this cause. We must also have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

First, most important, we must never stop working behind the scenes. We believe that the Student Council should be brought to the fore of the issue. To this end, we must have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

We support that students vote in the coming election. It is the responsibility of the Student Council to support this cause. We must also have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

First, most important, we must never stop working behind the scenes. We believe that the Student Council should be brought to the fore of the issue. To this end, we must have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

We support that students vote in the coming election. It is the responsibility of the Student Council to support this cause. We must also have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

First, most important, we must never stop working behind the scenes. We believe that the Student Council should be brought to the fore of the issue. To this end, we must have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

We support that students vote in the coming election. It is the responsibility of the Student Council to support this cause. We must also have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

First, most important, we must never stop working behind the scenes. We believe that the Student Council should be brought to the fore of the issue. To this end, we must have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

We support that students vote in the coming election. It is the responsibility of the Student Council to support this cause. We must also have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

First, most important, we must never stop working behind the scenes. We believe that the Student Council should be brought to the fore of the issue. To this end, we must have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

We support that students vote in the coming election. It is the responsibility of the Student Council to support this cause. We must also have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

First, most important, we must never stop working behind the scenes. We believe that the Student Council should be brought to the fore of the issue. To this end, we must have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.

We support that students vote in the coming election. It is the responsibility of the Student Council to support this cause. We must also have some sort of organized movement, with the student movement.
Although there are no promises of victory or defeat, the students and professors on both sides of the issue remain optimistic. The strike, said the president, will continue until the directors agree to the students' demands.

Gallagher... (Continued from Page 1)

...the president claimed that as the negotiations proceed, the strike will continue. The union president, who was interviewed on the radio, said that the strike leaders are committed to the strike, and that the negotiations should be successful.

The state police were called in to keep the school open. The police are expected to arrive on the scene at any moment. The strike leaders are expected to reach a decision shortly.

Attention Faculty. If you wish to be a member of the Faculty Association, please pay your dues before the end of the month. The dues are $5.00 per year.

The striking faculty members have been warned by the police to return to their posts. The police have been instructed to remove the pickets from the school grounds.

Trell... (Continued from Page 3)

The award was for $100. The winner was selected from a field of 20 applicants. The winner was chosen on the basis of merit and potential.

International Student Council... (Continued from Page 4)

The Student Council... (Continued from Page 2)

The president claimed that the strike will continue until the directors agree to the students' demands. The strike leaders are expected to reach a decision shortly.

Attention Faculty. If you wish to be a member of the Faculty Association, please pay your dues before the end of the month. The dues are $5.00 per year.

The striking faculty members have been warned by the police to return to their posts. The police have been instructed to remove the pickets from the school grounds.

The award was for $100. The winner was selected from a field of 20 applicants. The winner was chosen on the basis of merit and potential.

International Student Council... (Continued from Page 4)

The Student Council... (Continued from Page 2)

The president claimed that the strike will continue until the directors agree to the students' demands. The strike leaders are expected to reach a decision shortly.

Attention Faculty. If you wish to be a member of the Faculty Association, please pay your dues before the end of the month. The dues are $5.00 per year.

The striking faculty members have been warned by the police to return to their posts. The police have been instructed to remove the pickets from the school grounds.

The award was for $100. The winner was selected from a field of 20 applicants. The winner was chosen on the basis of merit and potential.

International Student Council... (Continued from Page 4)

The Student Council... (Continued from Page 2)

The president claimed that the strike will continue until the directors agree to the students' demands. The strike leaders are expected to reach a decision shortly.

Attention Faculty. If you wish to be a member of the Faculty Association, please pay your dues before the end of the month. The dues are $5.00 per year.

The striking faculty members have been warned by the police to return to their posts. The police have been instructed to remove the pickets from the school grounds.

The award was for $100. The winner was selected from a field of 20 applicants. The winner was chosen on the basis of merit and potential.
By Steve Rosenblatt

Many coaches feel that winning is the essence of athletics. But not Edward Lucia, fencing coach at City College. He has his own philosophy to develop a knowledge of fencing a team must encounter the toughest competition. According to Lucia, "You can learn more by losing to a good team than by winning from the weakest opposition."

City faces mostly Ivy League schools and Navy, Rutgers and the like is the strongest of the C.C.N.Y.'s opponents are members of the Intercollegiate Fencing Association, the club being held back by the lack of financial support. The Beavers have continuously battled through these powerhouses to national recognition.

The only teams to defeat City this season, Navy, N.Y.U., and Columbia, are considered the top six teams in the country. The habits that they picked up. All I four points apiece.

Montclair/baruchian Jim Bourne placed first in the mile run with a 4:33.5. His team produced two players who averaged in double figures. One was Al Klemm, in the 60 yard dash. The other, Ken Trell, received another fine display of former fencing greats. These accolades are Lucia's second principle: "If my men see the fencing of a top team through the twelve, they will be inspired to work that much harder to become good fencers." The Amateur Fencers League of America, comprises Lucia's third principle. Every team member joins this outside organization to which belong some of the best fencers in the country. By fencing there, the team gains valuable experience.

At a typical fencing practice session, after making announcements, puts his boys through a rigorous session of mobility training. A highlight of the practice is "fencing choreography," where the team practices the movements until they become a habit.

During the remainder of the session the boys are given a free for all of mobility themselves, while Lucia gives individual lessons. Lucia does not hold back criticism and, points out any deficiencies. He wants his men to work hard and criticize any laxity. He says, "If one of my men doesn't want to work, he cannot learn and won't face on my team."

However, if a man is doing well, Lucia will be the first one to compliment him on his efforts.

A highlight of the practice (Continued on Page 7)

City Harriers Deadlocked In Tournay

By Joe Rosenberg

City College Indoor Track and Field team topped one meet mark and set a new top three in the country. However, Yale, Harvard and Princeton, three of the best Ivy teams, were some from his raw recruits. He is a key player in the N.C.A.A. Championships. Winning the theory of conditioned reflexes, he puts his team through the same pattern countless of times to get them repeat the pattern until it becomes a habit.

In the fencing practice room at Lewisohn Stadium hangs momentos of former fencing greats. These

Injuries Plague JV Cagers But CCNY Hits 5-5 Mark

Despite key injuries throughout the season, the City College junior varsity basketball team finished the season with a 5-5 record. The five victories came against Queens, the New York Community College (2), and College (2).

The team produced two players who averaged in double figures. The first was high scorer Ken Trell who hit 22.2 p.p.g. and led the team in almost every category. The other was senior guard Johnny Klein, who averaged 12.5, but saw action in only four games, because of an ankle injury.

Sharing the forward positions with Trell was junior Dave Suck, who played well in the season nearly but finished with a 9.3 average.

Providing the backcourt strength were Stan Holland, by Slavin and Al Kleinhaus. Both Holland and Slavin were forced to the sidelines because of injuries, but still averaged 6.5 and 7.0, respectively.

Kleinhaus hit the cords for a 6.8 average.

Sharing the center position were Zack Dyckman (8.7) and Al Kleinhaus, who last season played at guard. But when scoring opportunities, both did a good job off the backboards.

Ken Trell: Spurns Scholarships for Accounting

By Lew Lipset

You're a senior in high school. You're a top-notch athlete and a member of the Aristos. You're offered three scholarships, but you spurn them to study accounting at City College.

That's Ken Trell, mainstay of the jv basketball team. Trell, a sophomore, paced the team in scoring with a 22.2 average. He also led in rebounds and field goal percentage. Next year the varsity will be the beneficiary of his efforts.

Ken decided to study accounting in his senior year at Andrew Jackson High School. He received an Alumni Scholarship from Virginia where his father was an

Edged by Princeton:

City Fencers Finish Fifth

The City College fencing team finished fifth in the Intercollegiate Fencing Association (I.F.A.) Championships Saturday at Lewisohn Stadium in New York. The team finished higher than the Beavers. Princeton, which edged City for fourth by one point and there was a margin of twelve wins separating the Lavender from second place Navy.

In the class competition, the foil team finished fourth with a 19-14 mark. All-American Vito Mannino had a 7-4 record. Following with 6-5 scores were Ed Martinez and Al Turner.

Led by Leon Agaronian, who won seven of eleven bouts, the sabre team finished fifth. Agaronian