History Head Elected

Gadol Succeeds Retiring Bellush

Dr. Joan Gadol was elected by the full-time day session instructors of the History Department at the Baruch School to replace Professor Bernard Bellush as the department's sub-chairman. Dr. Bellush is retiring from this position to teach at the Uptown campus of the College.

Dr. Gadol has indicated that she will be receptive to the establishment of a History Department honors program at the Baruch School. At the Uptown Center, it is now possible for a student to take nine credits of special honors work, with the guidance of a faculty mentor, and receive degree status. She added that the plan would have to be shown before it is initiated, she added.

"We want to maintain a high level of time and energy required to be a functioning, active, and devoted sub-chairman," stated Dr. Bellush.

"Since I am the one primary reason for my leaving, I am currently Assistant Professor of History," she added.

SC and Class Positions Open

Mark Grant '64 and Jeffrey Levitt '64 are uncontested in their bids for the presidency and three vice-presidencies respectively, of Student Council. All students desiring to run for positions may obtain petitions in 104 of the Student Center. Petitions are due Friday.

Candidates for the remaining executive board positions include: David Schwartz '65, running for secretary-treasurer; Ronald Horn '64 for corresponding secretary; Ronald Novitski '65 for recording secretary; and Lawrence Harneman '65 for activities coordinator.

Candidates for National Student Association delegate are Daniel Niedernberg '64, Steven Bauman '64, and Joseph Traum '64.

The Insignium Committee is also open.

In the class of '64, four have announced their candidacy for the open vice-president seat on Student Council. They are Zachary Niedernberg, Jeffrey Feuer, David Schafman, and Joseph Traum. In the wide-open election, Jerome Landau, and Max Wendel are running for the position of student representative to the Board of Governors, running unopposed for vice president.

The positions of secretary and treasurer will be filled.

Student Referendum: SC Favors Tuesday Club Break

Student Council, at its Monday night meeting, voted to suspend the proposed club break on Tuesday next semester between 12:2. The motion, first put forward by Alan Silverman '63, passed 11-9.

The proponents of the motion argue that the current hours would enable students to participate in more extracurricular activities with just a minor adjustment of hours. Those in opposition to the motion claimed that the additional time would enable students to participate in more extracurricular activities with just a minor adjustment of hours.

"Every student is interested in the club program to make such a change. They don't need more meetings. They also claim that the schedule change might also be adversely affected by a schedule change." Mark Grant '64 in referring to the statements made by the motion's advocates pointed out that under the proposed change Alice Augen Mullanigan, the registrar, has assured Council that just one additional two-hour class at four o'clock would be added to the schedule.

Mr. Grant also declared that after conversations with Dean Emanuel Saxe, he had been informed that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to take a break for lunch between the hours of 11:45-1:00, and that all students would be required to...

Nothing Like A Walk: 'First and Last 50 Mile Hike'

By Mike Ekin

Fifty-five members of the Boston Hiking Society set out from Boston's Public Gardens last Saturday morning for the last of the annual 50-mile hike. The hike, which started at 8:00 A.M., is one of the oldest and most popular hiking events in the United States.

The hike is divided into five sections, each covering 10 miles. The first section, from Boston to Medford, is the longest and most challenging. The next four sections are shorter, but still require a lot of effort.

The hike is not only a physical challenge, but also a chance to enjoy nature and meet new people. The hike is open to anyone who wants to participate, regardless of their fitness level.

The hike concludes at 5:00 P.M. on Sunday, May 4, at the Boston Public Library. The library will be open until 7:00 P.M. for anyone who wants to stay and relax after the hike.

Economics, Finance, and Insurance

The Economics and Finance Department is excited to announce the arrival of our new intern, Emma Smith. Emma is a third-year economics major and has already made a significant impact on the team. She is hardworking, dedicated, and always eager to learn.

Emma will be working closely with the team on various projects, including market research, financial analysis, and business strategy. Her skills and knowledge will be a valuable asset to the department.

A Student or A Puppet

By Bob Brooks

Tuesday, April 23, 1963

In the issue of April 2, I read about Mr. Kennedy's stand on the issue of Afro-American students and his refusal to admit them. The article said that this was a "student protest." My question is: is it a student protest, or is it a protest against the idea of students protesting?

I feel that students have a right to express their opinions, but I also feel that they should do so in a responsible manner. I believe that Mr. Kennedy's stand is based on the idea that students should not be allowed to protest against the president, but rather that they should speak out on issues that affect them directly. I think that this is a reasonable position, and I applaud Mr. Kennedy for taking it.

On the other hand, I do not support the idea of students protesting against the idea of students protesting. I believe that this is a futile exercise, and that it is more effective to work within the system to bring about change. I urge all students to consider this point of view, and to work towards a solution that is fair to everyone.

What Does He Mean?

By Richard G. Egan

Tuesday, April 23, 1963

Mr. Kennedy's statement that "I want to know if this is a protest against the idea of students protesting" is a clear example of the misuse of the word "protest." When students protest, they are exercising their right to speak out against policies that they believe are unfair. Mr. Kennedy's position is to prevent this from happening, which is a violation of students' rights.

I believe that students have a right to protest, and I applaud Mr. Kennedy for taking a stand against this. However, I also believe that students should do so in a responsible manner. I urge all students to consider this point of view, and to work towards a solution that is fair to everyone.

Student Council Boat Ride

By Paula Glassman

Sunday, April 21, 1963

The annual Student Council boat ride will be held Friday, May 15, at the City College campus. The boat will leave at 7 p.m. and will arrive at the Discovery Island dock around 8 p.m.

Tickets will be available at the Student Council office, located on the third floor of the Student Center. The cost of the boat ride is $2 per person.

I hope that all students will consider this and have the necessary equipment on hand when election day arrives.
For The Ambitious Students
Student Council Executive Board Position

President
By Neil Palomba

Though the Student Council is the recognized voice of the college (1963), the person who holds the office of president is the figurehead of the organization and is the most visible student leader on campus. This position is one of responsibility, but it is also a unique opportunity to serve and grow. The president must be able to handle the demands of leadership, managing tasks and projects with ease. They should be able to maintain a positive attitude and have a strong work ethic.

Corresponding Secretary
By Robert F. Keating

The duties of the secretary are to keep accurate records of all meetings and maintain a file of all correspondence. This person must be detail-oriented and possess strong organizational skills. They should also be able to type quickly and accurately.

Tennis Team

Cops Fourth

By Ken Freeman

The City College tennis team brightened its chances for the Metropolitan Conference championship Saturday with an easy 7-2 victory over Brooklyn College. The Bear's record is now 4-1. According to Coach Harry Karlin, "I am very optimistic; we will have a good chance to win the title.

A new doubles combination of Otto and Wunst paced the doubles teams to victory in all three contests. 1-1,6,8. Steinbrink and student manager Peter Sheldon handled the team on court against Brooklyn. In the first round, Al DeBernardo, a senior, delivered a 7-5,6,3 win in the No. 1,6,8 match. In the second round, Wunst and Otto won 6-4,6-4,2. Al DeBernardo also won 7-5,6-4,2 in the third round. At Losa, Ken Wunst, and Marty Delish was easily.
