Class, SC
Seats Filled
Jerry Landau, the incumbent senior class president, garnered 124 "yes" votes and 28 "nay" votes, respectively. They received 73 "yes" and 20 "nay" votes, respectively. The 19 of the 6 seats listed on the ballot boxes, Kpstein informed the committee that if a complaint from Epstein is received, it can be considered by the committee at least as this afternoon.

Barry Epstein '65 will seek to invalidate the election of Richard Sacks as president of the Class of '66, he declared yesterday. Sacks defeated Epstein in yesterday's class-wide election 69-62.

"I have witnesses that were at the ballot boxes," Epstein informed the TICKER, "and they saw someone giving out ballots and telling people to vote for Sacks."

Sacks denied "any connection" with the alleged irregularities. "I have no way to deny the charges," he added, "because I wasn't there."

Any petition to invalidate a class-wide election must be signed by 10% of the voting members of the class, and if upheld, the election must be re-run.

The newly elected treasurer, Novita, is now Council's recording secretary and has served as chairman of the Activities Coordination Board receiving 425 positive votes and 73 in the negative.

Letters to the Editor

A Look Back

To the Editor:

Mr. Tinney was right in his Nov. 22 column. The events of the past few years have certainly made the University a more wholesome place. But Mr. Tinney’s column does not reflect the current reality. The University is not perfect, but it is improving.

The President’s speech

The President’s speech last week was a great example of how the University can improve. He made a strong commitment to making the University a better place for all students. This is a positive step forward.

S. A. S. Plans

The Student Activities and Services (S. A. S.) are planning some exciting events for the upcoming semester. We encourage all students to get involved and support these initiatives.

The Council

The Student Council is working hard to improve the University experience. They are addressing issues such as overcrowding and lack of resources. We support their efforts.

Rivlin Reviews Conant Report; Urges Teacher, Course Study

Professor Rivlin reviews the Conant Report and urges the University to consider teacher and course studies. He argues that these initiatives are necessary to improve the educational experience.

New Teacher Requirements

The University is considering new teacher requirements. These changes aim to improve the quality of education and ensure that all students receive a top-tier education.

The Future

The future of the University is bright. With the support of our community, we can make it an even better place for all students.
