Council Voting Tomorrow; Executive Assembly Fails

Ten Appear To Hear Executives

By TOM NICAS

Candidates for Student Council executive positions cancelled their scheduled debate Thursday when only ten students appeared in the auditorium, the site of the event.

The poor showing was termed an extreme disappointment by the candidates. In a similar forum run for class representatives last week only six students appeared.

Inadequate publicity and student apathy were the reasons cited by the candidates for the failure of students to appear.

At a meeting to the attendance at both election assemblies, Andrew Rading ’65, Campus Affairs Committee chairman, announced his intention to disband future assemblies.

The election assemblies were instigated this semester for the first time in several years as a reform measure demanded by members of the student body. In the fall elections, over five hundred students signed a petition protesting the failure of candidates to make themselves heard on School issues.

At that time, forty students also paraded in the lobby of the Student Center.

Mardi Gras Queen Selected; Depass Entertains Students

Angela Lo Re ’63 was crowned Mardi Gras queen Saturday, May 1, before a crowd of more than 200 people.

Associate Dean of Students David Newton announced the winner of the contest, which was sponsored by House Plan Association.

Miss Lo Re, a 5'2'' brunette, is president of LeGras ’63 and a member of Boosters. She was selected over Balence Newton ’68, Lillian Van Newkoop ’69, and Susan Weinsteine ’68.

The new queen received a bracelet, perfume, and a gift certificate to Lord and Taylor.

The Mardi Gras queen was voted on last week. All students were eligible to vote. The booth was set up in the lobby of the Student Center.

Immediately following the crowning of Miss Lo Re by last year’s Mardi Gras queen, Susan Jaffe ’67, folk singer Steve DePass performed.

Prom Changes Location; Lowers Admission Price

Major revisions in plans for the senior prom, including a change of location and a reduction in price, were announced by the Prom Committee.

The objective of the change, according to David Zeidman, president of the Class of ’65, was “to provide a prom of equal quality to the one planned at the Malibu Beach Club (the original location) but at a greatly reduced price” ($17).

The new senior prom, to be held June 14, will be a solo-course meal featuring prime ribs of beef.

Traveling time to the new location is fifteen minutes more than it would have been to the Malibu Beach Club.

Explaining the reason for the change, Mr. Zeidman said, “After three weeks of ticket selling, the executive board of the Class of ’65 and the Prom Committee concluded that they had underestimated the number of students who would attend at $30 per couple.”
At present, officers on Council 'only if the citizenship will not participate in the affairs of the school. Thursday night starting at 8:30 we will have a teach-in at Baruch. The purpose of this program is to make students aware of the issues that surround the very stated. In this case, the reward is well worth the effort.

Voting

Tomorrow we all will have an opportunity to cast one vote for the officers of the next term. The officers on the ballot will elect a new Student Council and new officers. We do not know the possibility that we will have a question in our minds about the effectiveness of the new administration.

Many people of the Baruch School have many complaints about the way the present administration has been running. Some of them are the elections. Therefore, only one day is required for a meeting of the Student Council to elect the new officers. The candidates are running for the positions of President, Vice-President, and Secretary.

Teach-in

A teach-in is a form of demonstration. It does not produce any direct action or inaction of Council. Therefore, we do not want to have a teach-in at Baruch. The program arranges for unlicensed political speech. The teach-in will be held on the campus of Baruch College.

Voting

The major issue Council should concern itself with is its own interests. For too long, we have been concerned about the political opinions of the electorate. In the past term, some of the motions were rejected because they were not in the best interest of Baruch students. It is necessary for Council to be concerned with the issues that affect the students of Baruch College.

Questions

The following questions were asked of the candidates for Student Council executive positions as a guide to the election.

1. What lessons are you going to teach in the schools when you take office?

2. Are you going to work in concert with the Organization of American States, or are you going to work in concert with the United Nations?

3. Do you feel the student body should be involved in decisions made at the School? If so, through what channels would you provide them with the opportunity to participate in decision-making?

Letters to the Editor

Katz

As president and treasurer of Student Council, I feel that it is our duty to support the administration of the Baruch School.

Schlow

Mr. Katz is the candidate who has demonstrated the ability to carry out the policies of Student Council. He has been an active member of the Baruch School, and has shown a strong commitment to the development of the Baruch community. His leadership qualities and organizational skills make him the best candidate for the position of president.

Yoskowitz

Martin Schlow '66 is running unopposed for vice president of Student Council. He has been an enthusiastic and active member of the Student Council, and has shown a strong commitment to the development of the Baruch community. His leadership qualities and organizational skills make him the best candidate for the position of vice president.

Berman

The campus undersecretary position is an important role in the Student Council. The candidate who receives the most votes will be responsible for carrying out the policies of Student Council. This position requires strong leadership skills and the ability to work effectively with others. The candidate who is best suited for this position is the candidate who has demonstrated a strong commitment to the development of the Baruch community.

Grossman

The stakes are too high. For you not to vote.

Students of Baruch School, I feel we have a responsibility to vote in the Student Council elections. The candidates who receive the most votes will be responsible for carrying out the policies of Student Council. This position requires strong leadership skills and the ability to work effectively with others. The candidates who are best suited for this position are the candidates who have demonstrated a strong commitment to the development of the Baruch community.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor of THE TICKER:

We endorse Martin Schlow for vice president.

Lucille Yarber for corresponding secretary.

Norman Lipton for treasurer.

The channels of communication regarding outside houses, parking, and student attitudes to representatives of the student body, are not as well as they should be. We endorse the following candidates:

Lucille Yarber—secretary.

Norman Lipton for treasurer.

We endorse Martin Schlow for vice president.

The candidates for corresponding secretary and executive secretary are leadership ability, and policy maker on the Education Committee. In this capacity, Mr. Schlow is relatively inexperienced; however, Mr. Schlow is a highly capable individual, a hard worker, and is more experienced. If elected, Mr. Schlow will exhibit both of these qualities next term.

City Drops Four One-Run Games

Three Conference Losses
Dash Nine's Title Hopes

* By BOB STERN

It was reported in this space last week, that the Beaver 'nine was brushing down the Met's in the Metropolitan Baseball League. The Beavers were one-half game out of first place.

But this is another week. In five short days, the Beavers were parted from their championship hopes. They lost four consecutive games.

Three of these were league games, and City was eliminated from the race.

One interesting factor in the losses was that they were all by one run. Three were in the ninth or tenth innings, which until this week had been the Beavers' favorite scoring time.

The Beavers came back with a 5-2 lead in the fifth, but the team didn't hold it. Then the score was 3-3 in the ninth and 4-4 in the tenth, when the Beavers fell behind.

One thing that is aiding the Beavers is that they are beginning to look up. Things are beginning to look up.

Netmen Defeat Brooklyn; League Crown Is in Sight

The CCNY tennis team just about wrapped up the Metropolitan championship Saturday, when they defeated Brooklyn College, 5-2.

The Beavers now have a 7-1 record, their only loss coming against Iona. Coach Robert Cire's team are undefeated going into Saturday.

Trackmen Eighth In CTC's; Ziembza Sets Career Record

The City College trackmen gave their finest performance for City. They placed in both the broad jump and the triple jump.

* By ANDY WEINER

"Each week the team learns how to play a different part of the game better, but it just takes time." This was the reaction of lacrosse Coach George Baron, after the Beavers had suffered an 11-7 beating at the hands of Drexel Technical University, Saturday at Lewishohn Stadium. City's record is now 1-6-1.
