School Plans Convocation For Baruch

To pay tribute to Bernard M. Baruch as one of the College's most distinguished alumni, a convocation will be held at the School. The noted financier, philanthropist, and "advisor to Presidents," as Mr. Baruch preferred to be called, died of a heart attack on June 20. He was ninety-four years old.

The ceremony in his honor will be held Tuesday, November 16, at 10:30 in the School auditorium, to enable all students of the School to attend, class schedules will be altered.

President Buell G. Gallagher will officiate at the convocation, in which the principal speaker will be John J. McCloy, chairman of the General Advisory Committee on Dismissal. Also expected to attend are Beulah General David Baruch, Paul G. Hoffman, and Frank F. Lahey, all noted for their distinguished lecture series inaugurated by Mr. Baruch in 1964. Mr. Macloy himself gave the first three lectures of the series.

The City College renamed its school of business in honor of Mr. Baruch at a convocation, October 8, 1963. It was to this School that Mr. Baruch left the majority of the fortune that he accumulated during his lifetime. He bequeathed over $1.75 million to be used primarily for graduate and undergraduate scholarships, and a minimum of several million dollars for all other commitments that have been met.

Record Budget Proposed; Construction Plan Slated

A record budget of $86,072,242 for the City University of New York for 1966-67 was presented Thursday to the City Planning Commission by Dr. John J. McCloy, chancellor of the City University.

Dr. Buel G. Gallagher, president of the City College, outlined a comprehensive plan to the commission for new developments, including a five-block square "Plaza" complex over the heart of the Upper campus.

Dr. Rosenberg said the request was the largest that the university had ever made. "In our considered judgment," he said, "it represents a minimum program needed to carry out the city's commitment to higher education.

By CHARLES MIIEZEJSKI

Survey To Be Taken Of Baruchians' Views

Plans are going forward for a school-wide survey to determine student grievances, to be completed before the December 2 "talk-out." The survey will be conducted by a special Student Council committee chaired by Treasurer Norman Lipton '67.

Although all the details have not yet been worked out, Mr. Lipton said that the questions would be "very general, so as not to limit the student in his response or impose our own (the committee members') biases on the student."

Instructors in the Statistics and Psychology Departments and a member of the Marketing Department skilled in market research will be asked to help formulate the questions. It will be asked to help formulate the questions, "to ensure the validity and objectivity of the survey." Mr. Lipton is to present the survey to the Student Council on Nov. 13.

The "talk-out" will be attended by members of the Student Council committee to "collect their findings." The "talk-out" will be attended by members of the Student Council committee to "collect their findings.

Baruch left $1.75 million to the University of New York at New York City, which was the largest that the university had ever made. "In our considered judgment," he said, "it represents a minimum program needed to carry out the city's commitments to higher education.

By CHARLES MIIEZEJSKI

Food Counter Scored; Dean Seeks Change

Student reaction to the hot food now being served at the new counter in the tenth floor cafeteria was overwhelmingly unfavorable.

HOT FOOD: Pictured above is the new tenth-floor cafeteria counter, which serves hamburgers and frankfurters. It opened last Wednesday.

Food Counter Scored; Dean Seeks Change

Student reaction to the hot food now being served at the new counter in the tenth floor cafeteria was overwhelmingly unfavorable.

She urged students to be patient and not condemn the entire cafeteria because of initial difficulties.

"Students comments ranged from 'Feed it to the pigeons' to 'send the food to the gym.'"

(Continued on Page 6)

Orientation Assailed Classes Are Terned 'Waste of Time'

Members of the freshman class have voiced dissatisfaction with the Department of Student Life's orientation program.

Two freshmen termed the revised program, which stresses small group discussion and instruction solely by upperclassmen, a "waste of time."

Diane Weisenberg stated, "I think it is a tremendous waste of time and energy because we sit and talk about nothing of great importance to us or to anyone else."

"The purpose of orientation is good; it's basic ideas are good; but, in all practicality it is a waste of time," was Joseph Mahoney's view.

"Since we receive no credit for it, who wants to work at it? The only real thing it accomplishes is fifty minutes of fun and games.""

The primary aim of the orientation classes according to Mrs. Laura Farrar (Sust. Stud. Life), who heads the freshmen program, is to make the freshman more aware of his responsibilities as a student. This includes the questioning of ideas, participation, and responsibility as a citizen. She noted that the success of the orientation class is ultimately the responsibility of the freshmen:

"Committing on the purpose of the program, Ralph Warren stated, 'it feels it is to get us to express our opinions and to be active in School activities rather than just sitting back. However, I don't think it serves this purpose.'"

To discuss varied topics was the purpose expressed by Lorraine Cammarata, who felt that freshmen do not take orientation seriously.

"A former student at the State University of New York at New Paltz, Sharon Redish, who participated in an orientation program which was conducted in lecture form to the entire freshman class, prefers the idea of separate instruction and group discussion. However, she expressed dissatisfaction with the present program.

Simon Hollander, who also feels it is a waste of time, noted that "other schools can orient their students sufficiently in less than a week."

A favorable comment came from Sam Grafton, who noted, "Freshman orientation is essentially a good idea. With a good organization, and providing the student leaders can stimulate discussion, the course can be very profitable."

Until two years ago, orientation was conducted in lecture, all freshmen being required to register for the course for Friday at 19 or 11.

Some of the lectures were conducted by Mr. Farrar. The class of '67 was the first in which small classes were used.

"This is the first semester that all instruction is being done by that method."

(Continued on Page 6)
Civil Liberties Union Seeks Libel Reversal

The American Civil Liberties Union is asking the United States Supreme Court to reverse the conviction of its New Hampshire office head for libel. The organization is seeking to overturn the conviction of Robert W. M. Reiser, director of the New Hampshire ACLU, who was convicted of libel in January for criticizing the state Supreme Court in a letter to the editor of the Concord Monitor.

The ACLU is appealing the conviction, arguing that the court's ruling was based on a misinterpretation of the First Amendment's protection of freedom of speech. The organization is seeking a new trial and is appealing the judgment to the United States Supreme Court.

The case involves a 1980 letter written by Reiser in which he criticized the court's decision in the case of State v. Chatfield, in which the court upheld a police chief's ruling that a student had violated district health regulations. Reiser wrote that the court's decision was based on a "vindictive" motive and that the chief's ruling was "unconstitutional and illegal.

The ACLU is seeking to overturn the conviction, arguing that the court's ruling was based on a misinterpretation of the First Amendment's protection of freedom of speech. The organization is seeking a new trial and is appealing the judgment to the United States Supreme Court.
Letters to the Editor

Talk-Out

To the Editor:

I am one of the "talk-out" leaders, and wish to explain what it was all about. The Student Council formed a Committee for the integrity with which the school is run, but did not have the full support of the student body. After four weeks of protracted discussion, we realized that the members of the committee were aware of the preceding meetings. This was the basis for the proposal of the"talk-out". We felt that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing. We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing. We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing.

Sincerely,

Student Council

---

Letters to the Editor

"Talk-Out"

To the Editor:

I am a member of the Student Council Committee for the Integrity with which the School is Run. We realized that the members of the committee were aware of the preceding meetings. This was the basis for the proposal of the "talk-out". We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing. We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing. We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing.

Sincerely,

Student Council

---

Letters to the Editor

"Talk-Out"

To the Editor:

I am a member of the Student Council Committee for the Integrity with which the School is Run. We realized that the members of the committee were aware of the preceding meetings. This was the basis for the proposal of the "talk-out". We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing. We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing. We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing.

Sincerely,

Student Council

---

Letters to the Editor

"Talk-Out"

To the Editor:

I am a member of the Student Council Committee for the Integrity with which the School is Run. We realized that the members of the committee were aware of the preceding meetings. This was the basis for the proposal of the "talk-out". We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing. We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing. We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing.

Sincerely,

Student Council

---

Letters to the Editor

"Talk-Out"

To the Editor:

I am a member of the Student Council Committee for the Integrity with which the School is Run. We realized that the members of the committee were aware of the preceding meetings. This was the basis for the proposal of the "talk-out". We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing. We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing. We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing.

Sincerely,

Student Council

---

Letters to the Editor

"Talk-Out"

To the Editor:

I am a member of the Student Council Committee for the Integrity with which the School is Run. We realized that the members of the committee were aware of the preceding meetings. This was the basis for the proposal of the "talk-out". We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing. We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing. We feel that the students were proposing that the president be investigated, and that would be an honor. If the students were proposing that the president be investigated, the president would be entitled to a hearing.

Sincerely,

Student Council
Seniors!

LAST CHANCE!

YOU MUST REGISTER NOW

For Your Yearbook

LEXICON '66

APPOINTMENTS AND DEPOSITS MAY BE MADE IN THE LEXICON OFFICE (316 S.C.) BETWEEN 9 A.M. AND 3 P.M.

DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 5

REMEMBER: MORE SUBSCRIPTIONS MEAN A REDUCTION IN PRICE TO YOU.

Dear Senior:

Your college career is almost over. The Editorial Board of LEXICON offers hearty congratulations and extends best wishes for a successful future.

To assure that you will have a souvenir that you will be proud to display, that will be treasured as many hours of pleasant memories, subscribe to LEXICON now.

Your deposit will be accepted until November 5, and this also makes your appointment for your portrait when you place your deposit.

It has been the policy of LEXICON that those students who did not subscribe in their junior year will not be allowed to subscribe in their senior year.

The price of LEXICON is $17.00. However, provided there is a sufficient number of subscriptions, there will be a reduction in price to you. SIGN UP NOW.

If you find yourself unable to subscribe to LEXICON because of financial difficulties, please contact Dean Newton or Doctor Gregor, to receive the yearbook.

Special congratulations to the Class of '67.

JOHN RYBACKI

SIGMA ALPHA

WA^IQEE '67

ANITA BRANDEE '67

June 87, 1965
SPORTS

Harriers Upset NYU; Loeschnor Gets First
By STEVE GLUSSAND

Staging their best performance of the year, the City College harriers upset NYU 25-33 Saturday, at Van Cortlandt Park (2:29).

Although Jim O'Connell posted his lowest time of the year (2:54), it was not enough to keep City College from winning the first place, taken by the Violets' John Loeschnor (2:31).

"Rousing out the Beavers’ Abe Ama for third place, Kevin Fordie of NYU posted a 2:31 time. Aasa, Gus Marinos, and Al Hansen swept the fourth, fifth and sixth positions with times of 2:22, 2:37, and 2:52, respectively."

Dave Bass of NYU gained the second place, putting in a time of 2:34. The Lavender veteran Marcel Sierra, Rounding back in shape after a number of injuries, was clocked at 2:18. Baruchian Neil Leibowitz captured ninth place with a 2:39 time.

The over-all performance of the Beavers against the Violets marks City College as one of the top teams in the Collegiate Track Conference Championships, on November 13.

John's, Fordham, Manhattan, and Seton Hall are also considered to be strong. Despite O'Connell's improvement in his time since the beginning of the season, it will be difficult for him to capture the individual competition. In addition to Loeschnor, Jim will face Larry Fornell of St. John's, who defeated Loeschnor two weeks ago.

The Beavers cubs were shut out by the NYU freshmen, 15-48. The Violets team is the only one in the city program to make NYU's top track power.

Many of last year's top scholastic runners are on the team. The Beavers will meet the Manhattan College Jaspers this Saturday at Van Cortlandt Park. The early from Riverside are always formidable opponents and this year's team probably will prove that it is no exception to the rule.

The return of Marcel Sierra has been a great boon to the team. As Coach Castro says, "We can always count on Marcel to get some points. If he had been healthy in the Central Connecticut State-Indiana meet, I think we could have won."

The return of Marcel Sierra has been a great boon to the team. As Coach Castro says, "We can always count on Marcel to get some points. If he had been healthy in the Central Connecticut State-Indiana meet, I think we could have won."

The Lavender harriers will meet the Manhattan College Jaspers, Saturday at Van Cortlandt Park in the Bronx at eleven A.M.

Soccer
The City College soccer team will face the Queens College Knights on Saturday at Lewisohn Stadium at two P.M.

Coach Francisco Castro
O'Connell's Mentor

A Man for Buckley
By ALAN WIENER

Last year, Jim O'Connell could be seen darting across Pelham Parkway at six a.m., with a "Coldwater" button pinned on his chest. That year, he could also be observed dashing through the Bronx at dawn, but this year it was not so

Jim was healthy in the C.C.N.Y. meet, and the record-breaking Beaver runner supported, but the Converse advertisement candidate for Mayor, William F. Buckley, Jr.

"I think that he can handle the coldwater button for the offi-

Coach Francisco Castro's O'Connell's Mentor job well. In the first five meets this season, O'Connell has established himself as the new leader of the Beavers. Even though the Beavers defeated the Knights, 3-1 last season.

The coach hopes the steady playing of co-captain Cliff Soos can help put City booters in the victory column. The 6'1" junior has pipped well both offensively and defensively in this season.

After playing mostly defense for three seasons, Soos has recently put on offense. He was on a line with Jim Martino and Steve Goldman. These are the three biggest scorers on the team.

On defense the Beavers must rely on Marcel Court and Bob Molko.

Beavers are on the ball:
The City College soccer team managed to hold on to a slim one goal lead, Saturday.

City Booters Clip Adelphi Panthers
By WARREN HALM

In a game complete with City College booters squeezed Saturday at Garden City Stadium. The score was surprising.

A second goal was scored early in the season, while Adelphi had lost to the Blackbirds, 7-0, a week ago.

However, the Panthers were "up" for the game. Their play was fast and aggressive, and the defense was solid. But the Beavers' offensive thrusts proved to be too much in the long run.

Adelphi broke the deadlock at 1:55 of the first quarter; Sonny Rapinoe scored from an almost impossible angle, shooting from the goal line, ten feet to the left of the net. His shot deflected off Lavender goalie Watt Kopacz and into the goal.

Cliff Soos tied the score at 17:40.

Football Club Plans Dances
The Baruch Football Club is a reality. There are twenty-five members and four newly elected officers—but no football.

Commenting on the club's progress to date, Vice President Alan W. Foster said, "We have had a long way to go before we can call a team. Most of all we need money and student support."

At the club's second meeting, Thursday, Neil Comer '68 was selected president. Mr. Wiener, Frank Cassidy '67, and Bob Stern '68 were named vice presidents, treasurer, and secretary, respectively. A number of committees were formed. The committee will be working on finding a field, checking on equipment and researching insurance possibilities. A public relations staff was also set up.

"To help raise money, a dance and a rally will be held. There will be wide support for both of these proposals at the meeting."

Mr. Cassidy noted that the financial problem is one of the biggest

"Too often," he noted, "a movement like this one has wide support. (Continued on Page 7)"